

Warmer and Fair. Wednesday, June 1.—For Michigan, light to fresh variable winds, becoming southerly, warmer, fair weather.

Deferred. In deference to the wishes of the members of the Y. M. C. A., now in session, the Telegram-Herald reserves the elaborate reports prepared for this morning. Objecting as they do to Sunday papers, all return to the meetings is withheld until Monday morning.

TOWN TOPICS. Tomorrow is pension day. No liquor licenses were issued yesterday. Runaways yesterday were numerous and heavy.

The June term of the United States Court will convene tomorrow. The Michigan jury stood eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

Messages were reported yesterday at 253 Broadway and 217 Court-st. H. F. Kitchin died at 108 Fourth-st. yesterday morning, aged 39 years.

All our visitors praise the cleanliness and well kept appearance of the streets. Up to last evening 697 marriage licenses had been issued by the County Clerk.

The Fox will case that has been before the Probate Court all week will be decided tomorrow. The street cars were crowded yesterday more than ever before since the establishment of the line.

Nelson Holmes and James Lader qualified as sureties of Aaron Norton, assignee of J. D. Drake, of Grand Rapids.

All are waiting to get their Spring suits until clothing is down to the last notch. Somebody will get left. Robert Fitchell and Thomas Holleran were arrested last evening for gambling. Fitchell was bailed out.

Michael Cronin married Kate Kelly yesterday, paid all the costs, and the case against him was dismissed. The interest in religious meetings and usual Sunday gatherings is all absorbed in the Y. M. C. A. proceedings.

The patrol wagon went to 236 Gold-st. last night and got A. Meyers, who was drunk and was making things lively around home.

Lewis Sergeant, the Walker man who blew wind at R. E. Courtney, came in yesterday and pleaded not guilty, and was given a trial.

The jury in the Circuit Court have completed their labor and gone home. There will be no court this week after calling the non-jury calendar tomorrow.

The West Side Good Templars, with the Aurora Club orchestra, give the drama "The Danger Sign," at their hall No. 39 West Bridge-st., Thursday evening, June 8.

People who want something that is really fine to drink should get a case of the celebrated St. Louis Magnesian Water. Upper Missouri, patrons can be served in Westland, who also have it at Reed's Lake.

The 14th annual convention of the Diocese of Western Michigan is to be held in St. John's Church, Grand Haven, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, of this week. The Bishop's address will be delivered at 10 o'clock Wednesday.

Mary J. Hill says that her husband, Chas. Hill, has committed adultery with one Margaret Widenman, and she wants a divorce. A suit was commenced in the Circuit Court yesterday, making the above statements, and says that Hill kicked his wife and daughter out of the house and took Margaret in to live with him. The couple were married in this city January 5, 1924. The parties are colored.

Smith's Opera House. An entire new company of bright novelty comedians is announced for the coming week presenting the best artists on the vaudeville stage, headed by the original Halls, James and Frankie, originators and creators of their own line of business. The only lady and gentleman in the profession doing this style of an act, viv, opening the act in full evening dress, the lady appearing in long train dress, backing up in ten seconds in presence of the audience, and making quick change of costume to tight, and concluding with an acrobatic and dancing routine. The beautiful and dancing vaudeville star, Miss Victoria North, the two comedians, Frank W. Hayden and John W. Stiles, the fascinating burlesque artist, Miss Little May Hill, the popular Irish comedian and general dancer, M. Calhoun; Gus Garholt, the acrobatic and acrobaticist, performing upon systems of tables and chairs; Miss Isabel Kats, comic comedian; Miss Cora Thorne, character artist; Miss Carry Elder, the Black Pickin' girl; the laughable interlude by the ever popular comedian, Johnny Gray, entitled "Ma, Look at Him"; a beautiful new and original scene, an un-equaled olio concluding each evening with a roaring afterpiece.

The Rowing Record. Yesterday was another big day for rowing. A team belonging to John Drenburg, 723 away, coming up Bartlett to Division-st., then down Division to Monroe. On the corner of Monroe and Ionia-st., they ran into a telegraph pole, breaking the wagon pole and otherwise breaking the wagon. The telegraph pole was the hind axle was broken in two.

OUR SCHOOL MAJORS

The Board of Education Meeting. The Report of the Committee on Teachers Given the Last—But For New Changes Made and No Salaries Cut Down.

There was a full board present last evening when President Blair called the Board of Education to order.

J. W. Hanson, reported that the city could not pay the expenses of Mr. Putnam, whose boy was hurt while playing ball on the school grounds.

The President of the Board was authorized to a position of grade eleven-street.

When the South Division-st. school came up it was discovered that Mrs. Murely had been dropped and Georgia V. Miller put in her place.

A trustee said that the motion was personal, and if Mr. Richards was going to be personal, he could make it as hot as the member from the Seventh.

The following report was then adopted, except the name of N. Jennings in the Fountain Street school.

The Committee on Teachers offer the following:

Central School—W. A. Gresson, Principal; salary $2,000. Annan M. Clark, Preceptor, $1,000. Sylvia Barzila, Cora West Bridge-st., Thursday evening, June 8.

People who want something that is really fine to drink should get a case of the celebrated St. Louis Magnesian Water. Upper Missouri, patrons can be served in Westland, who also have it at Reed's Lake.

The 14th annual convention of the Diocese of Western Michigan is to be held in St. John's Church, Grand Haven, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, of this week. The Bishop's address will be delivered at 10 o'clock Wednesday.

Mary J. Hill says that her husband, Chas. Hill, has committed adultery with one Margaret Widenman, and she wants a divorce. A suit was commenced in the Circuit Court yesterday, making the above statements, and says that Hill kicked his wife and daughter out of the house and took Margaret in to live with him.

Smith's Opera House. An entire new company of bright novelty comedians is announced for the coming week presenting the best artists on the vaudeville stage, headed by the original Halls, James and Frankie, originators and creators of their own line of business.

The Rowing Record. Yesterday was another big day for rowing. A team belonging to John Drenburg, 723 away, coming up Bartlett to Division-st., then down Division to Monroe.

For Destroying Hail. An Kingbury had an examination before U. S. Commissioner C. W. Nottingham of Big Rapids, and was held for trial in the U. S. Court in this city.

Stewart Again. Melville Stewart commenced a divorce suit against James K. Stewart in the Circuit Court yesterday.

Dr. Louis Barth yesterday presented Rev. Fy. Pulekar with a peculiar carving, representing St. Joseph and the child Jesus.

Fresh Fish at Dentist's.

SAD OF ADAM'S SONS.

John Houbin has written sixty-four books, and his annual receipts from his publisher reach $20,000.

High McCulloch, who was Lincoln's Johnson and Arthur's secretary of the treasury, is 81. He looks to be 60, reads without glasses, runs around in society, and he and Mrs. McCulloch celebrated their golden wedding anniversary recently.

A venerable man of Maine and ex-cabinet minister in Washington is Coratio King, who was among the founders of the Portland Argus. He is nearly 77 years of age.

Robert C. Schenck is 79, and is still quite a well known figure in Washington streets. He took a clerkship in the postoffice department forty-nine years ago, and under Buchanan he became the only postmaster general who worked his way up from the departmental ranks.

Justice William Strong, of the United States supreme court, retired, is now 80 years of age. He is a tall, fine looking man who does not appear to be more than 60.

Jesse Lide, of Coche, Tenn., is 110 years old and has documents to prove it. In his youth he worked on a farm.

Dr. Yow, the accomplished physician of the Chinese legation at Washington, is soon to wed an American maiden who is described as "one of the well known beauties and society leaders of the capital."

Representative Allen, of Massachusetts, is devoting a good deal of his time in Washington to amateur photography.

Mr. Flouros, the London play writer, produces his drama after prolonged and laborious thought.

The undersigned would respectfully call a meeting of the Republican voters of Grand Rapids and vicinity at the Circuit Court rooms Tuesday evening, June 5, 1922, at 7:30 p. m.

Everything in the line of Fish and Oysters at Dentist's.

Go THREE AND ALL MEANS. That is if you are looking for furniture or anything in their line.

W. H. Griswold, M. D. Office and residence in the Weston block, next to Street's Hotel, from 9 to 10 and from 11 to 12 a. m.

CASAZZA'S Progressive Fruit Store, Pearl-st., Telephone 971.

D. EMMETT WELCH, Practice Limited. Noe, Throat, Eye and Ear, 78 Monroe Street.

Assignee's Sale. Notice is hereby given that on Friday June 2, 1922, at 10 o'clock a. m.

TO BE FOUND AT Bolles' Cigar Store, 77 CANAL STREET.

COURT GOSSIP.

QUEEN CRISTINA, of Spain, has a mania for being photographed with her children.

The present Prince Imperial of Russia is not strong in body, and traces of mental inefficiency are observed to increase in him.

KING KALAKAUA is going to settle down to hard work and become a coffee planter.

THE CHAIR of Russia is afflicted with recurrent fits of insanity. He has to be closely watched to prevent him from injuring either himself or others.

EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH, of Austria, recently received a present of a hundred dozen of various varieties of bottled ales from an English brewing company.

The Princess of Wales on two recent occasions has given an example in good manners to late comers at concerts.

KING HUMBERT is far from striking in his personal appearance. He looks much like a peasant every man of honesty and dignity.

RE-QUEEN ISABELLA of Spain lives in the style in Paris. She has a beautiful hotel set far from the Champs Elysees.

Tax Sultan has given a well-known picture of Lord Nelson, which was in his possession, to the London National Gallery.

THE LITTLE KING of Spain is a constant source of disturbance in the royal palace at Madrid.

WATER F. TATE to Adolphus L. Peck, at lot 2, blk 5, Remington's add. $ 810

BYRON C. DALEY, ALIDA L. RICKLES, JACKSON, 27-21 William Monroe, Minnie M. Pierce, 34-32 W. W. Fox, 2000

GO THREE AND ALL MEANS. That is if you are looking for furniture or anything in their line.

W. H. Griswold, M. D. Office and residence in the Weston block, next to Street's Hotel, from 9 to 10 and from 11 to 12 a. m.

CASAZZA'S Progressive Fruit Store, Pearl-st., Telephone 971.

D. EMMETT WELCH, Practice Limited. Noe, Throat, Eye and Ear, 78 Monroe Street.

Assignee's Sale. Notice is hereby given that on Friday June 2, 1922, at 10 o'clock a. m.

TO BE FOUND AT Bolles' Cigar Store, 77 CANAL STREET.

Heyn's BUSINESS!

That's what we are after. Get the Stock. The Style. The Prices. Elegant Stock. Latest Styles. Moderate Prices.

Be reminded that it will pay you to buy of BORN, The Hatter and Furnisher, 54' MONROE-ST.

1-2 Off-One Half Off-1-2 Off. Another HALF-OFF Sale.

E. P. KIDDER & CO. This Time All Our Wool JACKETS and RAGLANS.

Go at just Half Price to Close. Don't Miss This Bargain.

If you need a light weight outside garment either for Spring or Fall. E. P. KIDDER & CO.

Bargains in Jet Wraps and Mohair Newmarkets. For the Latest Styles and Lowest Prices in Wall Papers, Room Moulding & Decorations.

GO TO A. H. FOWLE, 37 Ionia-St., South of Monroe.

Go there for Wedding and Anniversary Presents. Go there for Novelties in Framing. For Re-gilding go there.

HEYN'S BAZAAR, 49 Monroe-st.

COFFERS. CHANGED DAILY. A Tested Receipt from our New Cook Book, Price $1.00.

BASE BALLS AND BATS. Of All Kinds in our TOY DEPARTMENT.

GREEN HOUSES. F. A. Chapman, THE FLORIST.

GET YOUR Carpets Cleaned AND REPAIRED.

H. Leonard's Sons & Co., 29 and 31 Monroe-st.

DR. KALKHOFF, Physician - and - Surgeon.

S. N. ALLEN, Manager. HORSES.

HOUSE NO 22 JAMES-ST. TO RENT.