

The Ford International Weekly

THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT

By the Year One Dollar

Dearborn, Michigan, March 6, 1920

Single Copy Five Cents

Mont Salève, Within Easy Street Car Ride of the Center of the City, Rises Sheer Above Geneva, Switzerland, to a Height of 4,000 Feet. Over There They Say It Will Be the Future Watchtower of the League of Nations.

Who Gets the Profit in Cotton?—page 2
What About Hard Times?—Mr. Ford's Page

Mr. Asquith Trying to Come Back—page 5
An Experiment in Co-operative Living—page 7

One City Is Being Moved; Another
City Is to Be Drowned—pages 8-9

IN THIS ISSUE

Aguinaldo's Daughter Tells of Real
Civilization in Philippines—page 12

Senator France Proposes Three New Cabinet Members—Health, Education and Mining—page 13

Be sure to read in next week's issue about the fight to give the Great Lakes cities direct steamer connection with ports of the world.