H. KEHL WRITES OF GREAT TRIP

Laurium Boy on Board Battleship Connecticut Tells of Experiences in London.

Harvey Kehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kehl, who is a first-class fireman on the battleship Connecticut of the U. S. navy, writes entertainingly of his recent trip to European waters with a part of the Atlantic fleet.

MONTHLY BIRTH REPORT.

Village Clerk Martin Prisk, of Laurium, states that there were 24 births and 19 deaths in the village for the month of June.

LAURIUM BRIEFS.

David Vician of Gay, was a Laurium visitor yesterday. Wilho Inkas of Laurium, left last evening for the west.

COLDEST PLACE ON EARTH.

What is said to be the coldest place on the globe is the region of Verkhobolensk, Siberia. Here is a convict station, but during most of the year no guards are needed to keep the prisoners from running away.

hard as steel. When one breathes a powder like the very finest snow falls at one's feet. It is said that there are less forms of insect life here than elsewhere in the world, and some of those found are not found elsewhere.

A Battle of Languages. Three or four languages strove for mastery in ancient Gaul, which is now France. German was spoken by the 12,000 Frank invaders.

Corpse Rings. The sailor of the old fashioned, shell-back class always wears a corpse ring. This is a plain band of silver or gold, inscribed with the sailor's name and port.

How He Got Out. "No," said Woody. "I don't see Wiseman at all any more. He has dropped out of our social set."

SPORTING NEWS OF THE WORLD

BIG UPHEAVAL DUE FOR YALE

STUDENTS SMART UNDER STINGING DEFEATS ON FIELD AND WATER SUSTAINED BY YALE.

New Haven, Conn., July 6.—It is generally believed here that a big upheaval is pending in Yale athletics. Yale has lost every series in the four major sports this year, except football.

Several different movements are on foot to displace Kennedy, and at least one to displace Lush. The latter is headed by a faction of former Yale players who wish to see Johnny Evers of Chicago become the baseball coach.

Jack Powell is veteran. Next to Cy Young he is oldest pitcher in majors. Jack Powell of the St. Louis Browns is a study of endurance.

OLD BACKSTOP TELLS HOW HE PRACTICED IN GAMES.

Sid Smith, the backstop who caught Young, was also Russ Ford's catcher back in the Atlanta days. "Ford had a world of stuff then," remarked Smith the other day.

It is understood that two of the ingredients of the reforms will be the fight that two of the professional coaches, John Kennedy of the crew, and Billy Lush of the baseball nine, must make for their places.

Some very interesting cricket matches are scheduled for Saturday in the copper country. Mohawk and Painesdale will clash on the grounds of the latter team and a great game is expected.

WINN CORNISH WRESTLING.

Ziehr Takes First Money and Dick Johns of Tamarack Second.

The Cornish wrestling tournament held at Winn, Marquette county, on Wednesday brought together the best known Cornish wrestlers in northern Michigan.

It seems as if the Detroit pitchers will continue to prove a source of worry to Manager Chalmers Mullins.

Two trotters are expected to join the two-minute class. One is the Harvester, 2:01, and the other is the 2:04 1/2.
