

Clean Up Sale.

To clean up or clear out our large stock of Fancy Soaps we have for this week reduced the price of all our 10 and 15c soaps to

Only 7c a Cake or 3 Cakes for 20 cts.

Come in and look over the assortment. You may find just the kind you are now using at half the price you are used to paying.

E. A. Pfefferle.
The Reliable Druggist.

LOCAL NEWS.

A. W. Bingham was in Minneapolis Friday.

F. H. Retzlaff went to Lambert on business Saturday.

Einar Toenberg of Hanska, attended the theatre Thursday night.

Miss Charlotte Silverson departed Friday for Cincinnati, Ohio.

Attorney I. M. Olsen of Sleepy Eye, was here on business Friday.

John Siebenbrunner went to Morgan on business Monday morning.

County Attorney A. A. Stone of St. Peter, was in the city Friday.

August Fenske and wife of Morgan, visited here several days last week.

Mrs. J. Newhart arrived Saturday from Minneapolis to visit with friends.

Attorney A. R. Pfau of Mankato, attended to legal business here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Behnke entertained the Elite Whist club Monday night.

Miss Marie Rummings of St. Peter, is being entertained by her sister, Mrs. F. H. Behnke.

Mrs. Oliver J. Green is reported as critically ill at her home on North Minnesota street.

P. D. Hanson left yesterday for a trip to Spokane, Wash., and other Pacific Coast points.

Joseph Engesser, the well known St. Peter brewer, was in New Ulm for a short time Thursday.

Chas. H. Stuebe returned home Saturday night from a week's stay in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Miss Fannie Sawyer arrived Saturday from Faribault and is visiting with Mrs. B. F. Webber.

W. G. Little was a passenger for Marshall Saturday. He spent Sunday with relatives in that city.

In its Sunday issue the St. Paul Globe published a good picture of the new Catholic school building.

Fred Seiter returned to New Ulm Friday night, after spending a week in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Andrew Bohrer and M. W. Offermann, both of St. Peter, came to New Ulm on business last Thursday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Weiser entertained a party of friends at their home on Centre street Friday evening.

Miss Minnie Schoch left Saturday for Chicago. She will go from there to Kansas City to join her father.

Mrs. Wm. E. Korth of Winthrop, passed through the city Thursday and visited for a few hours with friends.

SELLING OUT

our line of Art Goods, Pottery, Vases, Fancy Dishes, Hand Decorated Wear and Japanese Goods at below cost, as we must sell them to make room for other goods. Sale begins on Jan. 20th. Look at our window for goods and prices. Such a reduction was never heard of before.

HAUBRICH,
The Jeweler and Optician.

Mrs. B. Follmann spent Sunday with Winthrop friends.

Geo. Graff of Ivanhoe, called upon friends in the city Monday night.

Alfred J. Vogel was a passenger yesterday morning for the Twin Cities.

Mrs. Joseph Bobleter returned Saturday evening from a visit with St. Paul friends.

Mrs. Augusta Seiter of Winthrop, was the guest of friends in the city Saturday.

Miss Martha Vedder returned to Minneapolis Sunday, after a visit with her mother.

O. S. Erickson and P. M. Bransch, business men of Comfrey, looked after their interests here Saturday.

A party of Sleepy Eye young men came down from that city Saturday evening to attend the club dance.

Members of St. Anne court, W. C. O. F., will give a card social in their hall on the evening of Sunday, January 24th.

Dr. A. Marden and Attorney Einar Hoidale go to St. Paul today to be present at the meeting of the Masonic grand lodge.

Geo. G. Schwandt of Germantown, Cottonwood county, has been granted a license to wed Miss Lydia Matke of Eden township.

Chris Arveson, the Sleepy Eye jeweler, came down Thursday evening, to see Chas. B. Hanford in "The Taming of the Shrew."

Jacob Klossner, Jr., and C. H. Dirks were in Fairfax last Tuesday night to attend a meeting of the directors of the Citizens State bank.

It was voted Saturday night by the New Ulm Turnverein to give a masquerade ball in Turner Hall on Tuesday evening, February 16th.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Rothenburg and children returned Friday to their home at Springfield after a brief visit with relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt, formerly residents of Cottonwood, celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Menominee, Wis., Monday.

Dietrich Grunholz of Courtland, was operated upon at St. Alexander hospital Saturday morning by Dr. G. F. Reineke and Dr. L. A. Fritsche.

Bowling teams have been organized by employes of the Eagle Mill and Crone Bros. Tonight they will play a match game on Brick's alleys.

Policy holders of the Inter-State Accident and Relief association will hold their annual meeting in the offices of the company next Monday.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sons of Brighton, died last Wednesday and was buried the following day in the Swan Lake cemetery.

While absent in the South attending the national guard meeting, Gen. Jos. Bobleter will also take an eastern trip and visit in the city of Washington.

A freight engine on the Minneapolis & St. Louis left the rails near the depot Thursday and blockaded the line until the arrival of the passenger train.

G. W. Barnes has been absent at Stevens Point and other Wisconsin points for the past ten days, looking after the Badger interests of the Inter-State.

Mrs. Maria E. Hess has disposed of her residence property on North Minnesota street to Wm. Braun of West Newton. The latter will rent the dwelling.

August Schwertfeger, formerly county treasurer of Brown county but now engaged in the milling business at Sanborn, visited here several days last week.

St. Paul papers say that the police of that city have been asked to search for Henry Raschke and Mrs. Lena Velikanje, alleged to have eloped from Sleepy Eye recently.

Masquerade balls were given Saturday night in the New Ulm opera house and the Essig hall. The members of the New Ulm skating club realized a neat sum from the former.

A bowling tournament for Southern Minnesota will be held in St. James about February 22nd. It is possible that one or more teams from here will participate in the contests.

Miss Elsie Hillmer left Sunday for her home in Winona. She had been visiting here for several weeks but last week substituted for a teacher in the Winthrop public schools.

Ferdinand Crone, Dr. O. C. Strickler, Jacob Klossner, Jr., and Peter Manderfeld are among the stockholders of the new state bank at Gaylord. It has a capital stock of $15,000.

Miss Gertrude Baker of Redwood Falls, arrived last week for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jueneemann. Mrs. Jueneemann entertained in her honor Saturday evening.

One of Chas. Stuebe's delivery horses took a sprint up Minnesota street Monday afternoon. Fresh meat was scattered about promiscuously and the cutter reduced to splinters.

Saturday evening the members of the Turner Hall orchestra gave the fifth of their series of club dances. It was a very enjoyable affair and was as largely attended as have been its predecessors.

CRONE BROS.' SPECIALS.

Don't forget to come in and let us show you the new shirts with the patent placket. All new fabrics cut and trimmed in the latest styles. Prices $4.00 up.

The new Gingham are in and the line comprises a great many pieces of pretty pattern. Come early and get first pick.

In going through our stock of dress goods we found many remnants which we are offering for sale cheap.

There is no more simple pattern than the New Idea paper pattern which makes it the proper one for beginners to use. Any pattern 10c.

Special cloth collars for Overcoats sell at $1.00 and $1.50. Get one of these for your dress overcoat.

We have still a good assortment of overcoats for general wear, winter and spring. We sell them at reduction prices.

Men's boy's and children's sweaters at cost. Just a few left, better hurry.

Tomorrow afternoon the Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. E. T. Critchett.

There was a very large attendance at the dance given Sunday evening in the Star hall. The singers who have been there for the last fortnight contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening.

Miss Lydia Krause of Milford, was awarded the first prize for the best costume at the masquerade ball in Essig Saturday night. The ball was well attended and was a success from every point of view.

N. Henningsen last week handed to Elias Kellermann a check for $60 as indemnity for the accident which Mr. Kellermann suffered some time ago. He carried a policy in the Fidelity & Casualty Co., of New York.

Miss Mary G. Fitzpatrick, one of the teachers in the New Ulm public schools, went to Rochester Saturday and had the Drs. Mayo perform an operation on her eyes. She was able to resume her work Monday morning.

Miss Martha Becker, daughter of Fritz Becker of Courtland, was operated upon at St. Alexander hospital Thursday morning. The operation was performed by Drs. O. C. Strickler, G. B. Weiser, J. H. Vogel and E. W. Bayley.

Brigadier General Joseph Bobleter leaves tomorrow for St. Augustine, Florida, to represent Minnesota at the meeting of the Inter State National Guard association, which will be in session from Monday until Thursday of next week.

Architect A. J. Van Deusen of Winona, was in the city Sunday and met with the building committee of the Catholic parish. His design for the new parochial school was accepted and he was ordered to prepare the plans and specifications.

High scores on the Brick bowling alleys last week were as follows: A. Boock, 237; N. Glasgow, 236; Chas. Bierbaum, 233; T. B. Brick, 227; Chas. Arbes, 208; A. Vogelpohl, 207; H. Raabe, 205; A. Burmeister, 202. A. Boock was awarded the weekly prize.

Dr. Ed. W. Gag of this city, successfully passed the examination of the state medical board and will go to Wabasso to locate. He practiced for some time in that village but has since taken a post-graduate course in diseases of women and children and also in surgery.

Wm. Blauert celebrated his forty-second birthday Friday. In the evening he was pleasantly surprised by the pupils in his class at the Lutheran parochial school and the members of the Lutheran male choir, of which he is the leader. The evening was spent most agreeably.

A bill has been introduced in congress by Representative Martin of South Dakota, which provides for the distribution of medals to certain Sioux Indians of that state for their kindness to women and children who were captured by the Indians during the outbreak of 1862.

Chas. F. Ceiley of Minneapolis, organizer for the State Federation of Labor, was in New Ulm last Wednesday. He called upon several of the larger employers of labor but made no effort to form unions. It is understood that he will return to the city later and take up this part of his work.

John Helget, the young man living south of Sleepy Eye who was arrested some time ago on a serious charge preferred by Mary Ziegler of this city, has settled with the plaintiff by paying the sum of $50 and giving a bond of $150. On Monday County Attorney Einar Hoidale dismissed the case against him.

The St. Paul Daily News is offering a $400 Wesley Piano to the most popular young lady in the Northwest, outside of the Twin Cities. Miss Mamie Schneider of Sleepy Eye, has a big lead over her nearest competitor with 11,553 votes. Friends of Miss Hertha Weschcke of this place, have given her 1,022 votes.

Robbers operated with success in Comfrey last week, according to the Times. They entered A. Hartmuth's saloon and took $22 in cash and also secured $2.50 in Breitkreutz Bros. store. Chief Klause of this city, was given a description of one of the men but there were no strangers in New Ulm answering to it.

A real estate transfer made Monday gives a good idea of the way land in Brown county is increasing in value. On that day Robert Lieder conveyed 40 acres in the township of Milford to William Dehn, and in consideration received the sum of $2,520. There were no buildings on the property but in spite of this it brought $63 per acre.

W. W. Green and wife went to Le Sueur Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Green's brother, Franklin Schluter, who passed away last week in Memphis, Tenn. The deceased was 27 years of age and his death was due to a stroke of paralysis. The remains were taken to Le Sueur and burial was made in the family lot, the funeral being conducted by the Masonic fraternity.

Looking over the audience at Turner theatre Thursday evening the appearance of the large number of men unaccompanied by ladies, could not but raise the question as to whether or not the most of them were not expecting the ladies to take advantage of leap year. It isn't possible that all were turned down and only a few of them had oil stock, so their social standing was not below par and their financial condition uninjured.

Public installation of officers was held Thursday evening by St. John Court, No. 698, C. O. F. Addresses were made by Chief Ranger Andrew J. Eckstein and Rev. F. S. Rant and a delightful program was given. This consisted of instrumental duets by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Eckstein and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jueneemann, a piano solo by Miss Elsie Eckstein and selections by the male choir, under the leadership of Prof. M. A. Endres.

Chief Adolph Klause has received a circular which offers a reward for information as to the whereabouts of Hugo Engel of Windom, S. D. He left his home on December 22nd and was last seen at Wheaton, Minn. It is feared that he has met with foul play. The missing man is a blacksmith and is in partnership with his brother, Herman Engel, at Windom. Herman Engel formerly lived in New Ulm and was a member of the firm of Neumann & Engel.

The annual meeting of the State Bank of Lambert on was held Tuesday and the following directors and officers were elected for the ensuing year: The directors are, F. Schandera, R. Clausen, R. Morton, J. L. Schoch and M. Lehrer. The directors elected the following officers: F. Schandera, president; R. Morton, vice president; L. Redding, cashier, and T. J. Dickson assistant cashier. The surplus was raised from $7,000 to $10,000. The out of town directors present at the meeting were J. L. Schoch, of New Ulm, and M. Lehrer, of Springfield.—Lamberton Star.

The world's greatest cough cure is Norgren's Frisco Cough Syrup. Sold by all druggists.

John Wilttschek, for nearly thirty-three years a resident of Brown county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Hauser, in Home township, last Tuesday at the age of 80 years. Deceased was born in Bohemia, Aug. 24, 1823, and came to this country in 1871, settling in Sigel township, where he remained for four years. He then moved into New Ulm and made his home here until six years ago. Two sons, John Wilttschek of this city, and Wenzel Wilttschek of Sigel, and three daughters, Mrs. Wenzel Richter and Mrs. Andrew Bruckbauer of Stark, and Mrs. John Hauser of Home, are left to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held Thursday morning from the Catholic church.

Saturday evening the Second Regt. Band of New Ulm gave a concert at Turner Hall, the receipts going toward defraying the expenses of the band's proposed trip to the St. Louis fair next summer. Ten members of the Redwood Falls Cornet Band attended the concert as guests of the New Ulm musicians. The delegation consisting of Messrs. Michael Lauterbach, Joe Lauterbach, Clement Lauterbach, George Seebeck, Will Milne, Lewis Baker, Judd Smith, John Darkow, Sam Davis and Walter Peavy, went down on the Saturday afternoon train and returned Sunday. All are enthusiastic over their hospitable treatment and the high grade of music to which they listened. The closing number on the program, entitled "The Burning of Rome," was given with an electric light accompaniment and was a fine production.—Redwood Reveille.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

FOR RENT—Two excellent office rooms for rent in the Ottomeyer block. Inquire of A. F. Ottomeyer. 51-1f

HOUSE FOR SALE—A 4-room frame dwelling, with workshop and barn, at Washington street and Fifth South, will be sold cheap. Inquire at this office. 1-3.

* Masquerade suits and Masks for sale or rent of BURG & HAUENSTEIN, 123 N. Minnesota St., Up Stairs. 3

LADY BOWLERS.—My bowling alleys in the Hornburg building on North Minnesota street will be reserved every Wednesday afternoon for the use of ladies who desire to profit by the exercise. THOS. B. BRICK. 2-1f.

FOR SALE—Total Adder, National Cash Register at Max Burg's Corner Store. 3f

MRS. B. FOLLMANN.

Some Fair Questions

put to intending purchasers are often unanswerable. For instance, why buy where the prices are far in excess of quality? Why not select from our superb assortment of Trimmed and Felt Hats, etc. These prices are telling. Trimmed Hats at $7 for $3.50, $5 for $2.50, $3 for $1.50.

Millinery Goods and Hats

N. HENNINGSEN, THE LEADING INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE MAN.

I represent 25 of the largest and strongest Fire and Tornado insurance companies in the world.
—I also represent the largest and strongest—
Bonding Fidelity, Employers' Liability, Accident, Bail and Life Insurance Companies.

Lands! Improved and unimproved lands bought and sold.

I have some bargains in Red River valley lands in Minnesota. The time to buy land is now. If you buy land you are sure to save money. I have made thousands of dollars for my clients. I can make money for you.
N. Henningsen, Insurance & Real Estate, New Ulm.
My agency is one of the largest in the state.

The high quality of GOLD COIN FLOUR surprises everyone. Try a sack and you will find a big improvement in your bread. Manufactured by Eagle Roller Mill Co.

Daily capacity 3500 bbls. New Ulm, Minn.

Why is August Schell Brewing Co.'s beer always pure?

Because

THE BARLEY IS RIGHT
THE WATER IS RIGHT
THE HOPS ARE RIGHT
THE PLANT IS RIGHT

Try a case of our Pilsener beer and be convinced. We deliver to all parts of the city.

Aug. Schell Brewing Co.

Phone 8-2. New Ulm, Minn.

HARD MAPLE SOAP is guaranteed to give better results than any other soap offered to the public.

Sponge Cakes and Fine Baking.

Sold in 5lb. packages at all groceries.

TRY A SACK.

You will be surprised to find how much better your cakes taste and look.

NEW ULM ROLLER MILL

The Star Billiard and Bowling Hall

FRED KRETSCH, Prop.

Everything New, Clean and Up to date.

BEAR IN MIND we give More Valuable Information on the Domestic and Wild Animals
Hides and Skins than any other firm in the world, and pay highest Cash Prices. 24 page Trap Book beautifully illustrated, postpd. 2c. Price List Free.
NORTHWESTERN HIDE & FUR CO.,
MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., U. S. A.