THE SAINT PAUL DAILY GLOBE, WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 1, 1869

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

THE BUSINESS EXHIBIT.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Department</th>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Business</th>
<th>Office</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Agriculture</td>
<td>John Doe</td>
<td>Farm</td>
<td>Minneapolis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commerce</td>
<td>Jane Smith</td>
<td>Trading</td>
<td>Saint Paul</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industry</td>
<td>Robert Lee</td>
<td>Manufacturing</td>
<td>Duluth</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON.

- A bill has been introduced in Congress to regulate the printing of newspapers.
- The President has signed an executive order concerning the Indian reservations.
- The Senate has passed a resolution condemning the recent acts of violence in the West.

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS

- The Minneapolis City Council has approved the construction of a new water tower.
- The St. Paul and Duluth Railroad has announced plans for an expansion.
- A new fire station has been completed in St. Paul.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

- The Duluth Literary Society has announced its fall meeting dates.
- The Minneapolis School Board has approved a new curriculum for the elementary schools.
- The Saint Paul Symphony Orchestra has announced its 1869-1870 season schedule.

---

THE END OF THE CITY

The Saint Paul Daily Globe, Wednesday morning, December 1, 1869.