ETHEL WATERS

The popular international favorite is the mainstay of the season's review "Leaf and Bloom," which is being shown at the City Theater. Miss Waters was last seen in New York in "The Bride."

Tennis Meet at Chicago Field On August 19

The Phyllis Wheatley Twin City Open Tennis Tournament will be held at Chicago Field, fifth and Chicago Ave. E., in Minneapolis, instead of Summit Field, because accommodations at Chicago Field hold up better. However, the date of opening has not been changed—10th of August, Saturday.

Robins Piling Up

To date, which is some two weeks before the opening date of the tournament, the following have sent in applications for entry:

Albert Allen, winner of the trophy last year; Bill Bethune, runner-up in the same tournament; L. E. R., Fred's great-uncle, who is expected to win the prize this year; and John Boardman, of the Boston organocalcium lea-

Mr. Carter, the son of a Negro soldier, was designated to run for the Senate by the State Committee of the Republican Club, Mrs. Carter, who was responsible for the campaign, has been a resident of New York for the past five years.

The meeting will be held at the Free Library, 511 West 108th Street.

Mass Meeting OPENING GUN

St. Paul—(CNS) Melvin Maas, a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor of Minnesota, took the stage at the Free Library last night and declared that he would fight for the votes of all Minnesotans.

UNBELIEVABLE!

African, South American, and Asiatic newspapers are reporting that in a certain country a Negro has twice been designated to run for the Senate by the National Committee of the Republican Club, Mrs. Carter, who was responsible for the campaign, has been a resident of New York for the past five years.

The meeting will be held at the Free Library, 511 West 108th Street.
