Also a few METALLIC COFFINS, a superior article. TO buy second hand furniture, is too much like buying second hand gar ments. We take it for granted, that the people of our Territory, would rather prefer to have their chairs, washstands, bureaus and tables, made to order, and expressly fer their own use; although old furniture might be bought for less money. use; atthough old infiniture might be bought for less mo ney. Then we think our people would rather have articles made of the timber that grows here in the Territo ry, manufactured by our own mechanics, who have cast their lot in Minnesota, for better, for worse.

We will make promptly to order, whatever articles of furniture may be wanted, (if we have not what is desired on hand;) and will warrant our goods better and all things considered, cheaper, than they can be imported. Undertaking promptly attended to.
