The St. Nicholas Hotel was on Saturday evening 11

The St. Nicholas Hotel was on Saturday evening he scene of another frightful encounter, similar to hat enacted about a year ago, when Col. Loring, of dississippi, lost his life.

It appears that shortly before 9 o'clock, on the evening named, two of the boarders, Capt. J. J. Wright and Mr. R. S. Dean, were seen talking together in an xcited manner in the bar-room. Suddenly Capt. Vright drew from his pocket a cowhide, with which e struck Mr. Dean in the face. Instantly the latter rew from a sheath which he carried under his vest, large bowie knife, the blade of which he plunged have to the hilt in the side of his antagonist.

OF THE UPPER COUNTRY.

AN IMMENSE NEW STOCK OF FRESH GRO CERIES, WINES, LIQUORS AND PROVISIONS. Great inducements to Trade in Saint Paul

Upon an Undeviating Cash System! E. TYSON & CO. have been and are now receiving by every arrival from the Eastern and Southern Markets, the Largest Stock of Groceries, Liquors, and Procisions, EVER BROCHITO MINNSOTA, and more than double that which was thought to be entirely too large for for the anticipated business of last year. This stock has been purchased and brought here thus early in the season for the reason that there might be low water at a later period during its continuance; and consequently the added charges of high freight and incidental outlays have been avoided. We are, therefore, prepared now to sell our stock at unusually low prices

FOR CASH OR APPROVED PAPER. The utmost care has been exercised in making up this selection of goods, and it is confidently believed that it comprises a full and choice assortment of EVERY ARTICLE IN THE TRADE. Merchants from the Upper Country are solicited to make a personal inspection of our stock, or send their orders, which will be promptly attended to. Every facility will be offered for the speedy transportation of goods, and pur-chasers may rely on all their wants and directions being strictly attended to.

strictly attended to.

All goods sold are guaranteed to be of the quality represented; and it is certain that purchasers in the trade can find in our stock articles as numerous, and at prices as low, as they can be obtained in St. Louis, or any of the Eastern markets. A comparison of our prices with those of St. Louis and Eastern cities, is invited, and when the expense of travelling is considered, the loss of time in transportation, the dangers of navigation, and the wear and tear of packages, may be entirely avoided by purchasing of us, we think we stand on something more than an equality with them, in the inducements we offer to the Trade.
