For the Street.
We are showing overcoats, gloves and neckwear of the most approved styles, and cases too if you like. For with cooler days the promotion again is in favor, and we fancy that young men have quite the same pleasure in a becoming and fashionable wanting that the young women have in new wraps and millinery.

We are prepared, therefore, to fit out the young man of fashion as well as the staid man of business. The workman and the merchant alike may find here what his purse or his fancy demands.
