The new elevated road which is now successfully being built in the state of New York and which will soon connect with the railroads existing there, is the subject of much comment throughout the state. The road is 100 miles long and 30 feet wide, and is being built at a cost of $5,000,000. It is expected to be completed by the end of the summer.

The whole estate of Mr. Thomas Newell, who recently died, has been left to the several states, with the exception of $5,000,000 which is to be invested in the new elevated road. The estate included a large tract of land in the state of New York, which is now being developed for agricultural purposes.
