Protection. the Miller's Evil Genius.

By William C. Edgar, Editor of the Northwestern Miller.

The men of Minneapolis to Remnants, and Farmers' Elevators. The people of Denver to their Citizens. The people of St. Paul to their Taxpayers. And the people of all the other wheat-growing regions of the United States to their Members of Congress. With a single purpose: to save the American miller from the ruin that is now in sight. The people of all the wheat-growing regions of the United States were meeting in Denver under the auspices of the Farmers' Elevators to do battle for the American miller. And the people of all the wheat-growing regions of the United States were meeting in Denver under the auspices of the Farmers' Elevators to do battle for the American miller. The people of all the wheat-growing regions of the United States were meeting in Denver under the auspices of the Farmers' Elevators to do battle for the American miller. The people of all the wheat-growing regions of the United States were meeting in Denver under the auspices of the Farmers' Elevators to do battle for the American miller.

Demands of the Orient.

By William M. Bunker, Commissioner of the Chicago Board of Trade.

The demand for wheat in the Orient is increasing. The demand for wheat in the Orient is increasing. The demand for wheat in the Orient is increasing. The demand for wheat in the Orient is increasing. The demand for wheat in the Orient is increasing.

Scope of the Patrons of Husbandry.

By Sarah G. Baird, Commissioner of the United States Department of Agriculture.

The scope of the Patrons of Husbandry is increasing. The scope of the Patrons of Husbandry is increasing. The scope of the Patrons of Husbandry is increasing. The scope of the Patrons of Husbandry is increasing. The scope of the Patrons of Husbandry is increasing.

Enlisting for an Army Commission.

The enlistment for an Army Commission is increasing. The enlistment for an Army Commission is increasing. The enlistment for an Army Commission is increasing. The enlistment for an Army Commission is increasing. The enlistment for an Army Commission is increasing.

Advice to the Young Journalist.

By J. P. O'Connor, Editor of the New York Times.

Advice to the Young Journalist is increasing. Advice to the Young Journalist is increasing. Advice to the Young Journalist is increasing. Advice to the Young Journalist is increasing. Advice to the Young Journalist is increasing.

Inheritance Tax Legislation.

By Max West, Editor of the Washington Post.

Inheritance Tax Legislation is increasing. Inheritance Tax Legislation is increasing. Inheritance Tax Legislation is increasing. Inheritance Tax Legislation is increasing. Inheritance Tax Legislation is increasing.

Foreign Missionaries Misunderstood.

By the Rev. Dr. James L. Barton.

Foreign Missionaries Misunderstood is increasing. Foreign Missionaries Misunderstood is increasing. Foreign Missionaries Misunderstood is increasing. Foreign Missionaries Misunderstood is increasing. Foreign Missionaries Misunderstood is increasing.