Day	3:17 A. M.	12:15 A. M.
Valeria Branch	4:25 P. M.	10:20 A. M.

—Go to the concert to-night and insure yourself a pleasant dream.
—Orri-Allard has sold his farm south of Bigelow to A. W. Van Camp.
—Preaching at the M. E. Church next Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.
—Hon. B. O. Cowan has bought a half interest in his father's herd of short horns.
—Dr. W. L. Gordon has been appointed administrator of the estate of James Riggs, lately deceased.
—Mrs. Boyd, nee Mary Thomas, presented her husband with a bouncing boy on Monday night, the 14th inst.
—Go and hear "When the Leaves Begin to Turn," to-night. It is a beautiful solo, and snip your stirring as rendered by Miss Barker.
—We are a little ahead of time this week on account of the concert and Thanksgiving, and besides, printers need a little rest as well as other animals.
—The quarterly bible meeting will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday at 7 o'clock p. m., addressed by Rev. S. Carothers and others; all are urged to attend.

—It is reported that the Minton bros., of Forest City, are selling goods to the amount of $300 to $500 per day. They have four salaried men all the time and five on Saturday.

—Another prisoner arrived at the jail this week. His name is William Wilson and hails from Biglow. The charge is refusing to pay a fine imposed upon him by a justice of the peace.

—"Come where the Lillies Bloom," is a beautiful quartette to be sung to-night at the concert by Mrs. Carthers, Miss Barker, Messrs. Kellog and Hoffman. It is alone worth the price of admission.

—Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," so, if the drop of milk of human kindness has not soured on your breast-works, go and lend your presence to the concert to-night, and contribute to a good cause.

—Jessie C. Cam, Curator of the estate of Edward Saunders, has sold all the real estate belonging to said minor, for cash in hand. The lands were situated in Nodaway county and were valued at several thousand dollars.

—Through the kindness of J. H. C. Curtis, the band boys enjoyed a delicious oyster supper last Saturday night at Rinehart's restaurant. Several toasts were offered and "May the shadow of our efficient county clerk never grow less," was pronounced in universal accord.

—Prof. A. P. Venen, of the music house of Sanborn, Weld & Co., of St. Joe., will soon be here with a fine stock of organs, and those wishing instruments will do well to see Mr. Venen and price his goods as he handles a fine article and sells at bottom prices. He is also a fine tuner and repairs instrument of all kinds.

Thousands of dollars could be saved to Holt county if our farmers would put up their hogs into pork. Coleman's Rural World, a farmers' paper of St. Louis, that should be taken by every farmer in this county, strongly urges this upon the farmers this fall, because it is absolutely certain that pork will be enormously high next summer. It says very truly, "If pork dealers make fabulous fortunes, why shall not our farmers make some of this money?" A word to him is sufficient.

—My Daughter. "My daughter!" I have sent you to the best educational institutions in the west and you have come home from college with your diploma, which is the evidence of your accomplishments. But as my duty to inform you that you as yet know but little about what it takes to make a home happy. You can't live on music and poetry and flowers. Happiest compound of several substantial elements, chief among which is good substantial shoes and boots. Herberger & Anderson have just received 100 cases of the Phelps, Dodge & Palmer Boots & Shoes which they are selling very cheap. Playing the piano with your feet sticking out, looks bad. Go and get a pair at this house, they are so cheap.

—The Comet. By stationing yourself in proper position about midnight, and using an ordinary field or opera glass you will see the star that is now creating a commotion as the sixth comet. You can't see the tail, but if you will take the trouble to drop into Martin & Stewart's Millinery Emporium you will hear an exceedingly interesting tale about the lowest prices for milliner any ladies notions or anything in their line. New stock comprising the very latest novelties.

—Lone Fisherman. Let's hear from you often from Lake Shore.
—An interesting letter from New Mexico appears on our eighth page. Everybody should read it and get posted how things are being done in that most over-rated country.
—If you want your eyes dazzled just step into Harry Farragher's jewelry store, and then turn around and look at that brilliant array of new clothing which Nick Stock has just received.
—While Rev. E. Evans in company with his family were leaving the city last Saturday, their sleigh capsized near the W. F. Drake property, throwing the entire party out upon the ground and dislocating Mrs. Evans' left elbow. Dr. Thatcher was called who soon replaced the joint, and Mrs. Evans is now getting along nicely.
—Miss Barker should be greeted with a large horse this evening. She has kindly given her assistance to the Methodist Church without asking any compensation. The members of the brass band also deserve special mention for furnishing music free of charge. Mrs. K. G. Holt should also be kindly remembered for tendering the use of her piano, after everyone else had refused. Such kindnesses should never be forgotten, but hung on the walls of our memories for future reference.
—Authentic news has been received in Oregon this week that Mr. Edgar L. Allen had been appointed Postmaster, the appointment to take effect January 1, 1882. If a clap of thunder had fallen from a clear sky it could not have surprised us, nor the many friends of our present postmaster any more. Of course, being the largest patron of the post-office here, we had no right to a voice as to who should be appointed Postmaster. Again Englishism has been victorious, but for how long, remains to be seen. The newly appointed, Mr. E. L. Allen, is an excellent gentleman, and will no doubt perform his duties faithfully and satisfactorily. We do not object to him but we do object to anything which tends to ringism.
—One of the most pleasant affairs of the season took place at the residence of Mr. S. J. Hershberger last Thursday evening. Quite a number of young folks assembled and proceeded in a body to surprise Miss Elma Hershberger, who entertained her guests right royally. The evening was spent very pleasantly in social games of amusement and at a late hour they dispersed for their homes, feeling that it was good to have been there. The following is a list of those who were present: Jennie Cotton, Annie Corwin, Lula Chadwick, Grant Holitz, Willie Maupin, Frank Peter, Katie Maupin, Myra Moore, John Colvin, Frank Graham, Nettie Nies, Ina Nies, Robert Schatz, Charles Soper, Belle Cottrell, Bonnie Broadbeck, Edward Allan, Maggie Schatz, Clara Irvine, Ora Russell, Elma Kyger.
—Judge Kelley on Monday decided an important joint in criminal practice which all justices of the peace throughout the county should thoroughly understand. Several cases of misdemeanors, which had been tried before justices of the peace had been appealed to the circuit court. It seems the affidavits for appeal in these cases had been filed before the justices several days after the judgments had been rendered. The circuit court decided that all appeals in such cases should be granted on affidavits filed by defendants immediately after the rendition of the judgment against them in the justices' court and should not be granted the day after the rendition of judgment. It was also decided that justices should in cases of appeal in misdemeanor cases proceed at once to recognize all material witnesses. The proper observance of this decision will save necessary cost and delay in the collection of fines due the school fund. Nodaway Democrat.

—A few boarders can be accommodated at the residence of Mrs. W. T. Maupin.

—Parents, take your children out to hear the "Cantata of Eve." It is very instructive and interesting.

—Don't forget to attend the Thanksgiving Dinner and Oyster Supper at the residence of W. T. Maupin, to-day.

—There are now only three prisoners in the county jail. The next sitting of the Grand Jury will probably dispose of all of them.

—An interesting communication is crowded out this week entitled "Should Oregon have a Railroad." It will appear next week.

—The ladies of the Christian church are requested to meet at the residence of Mrs. S. J. Hershberger, Friday at ten o'clock at 2:30 o'clock.

—Miss Blanch Howell, the favorite soprano in Oregon circles, will sing a beautiful selection entitled "Thou art so Near and Yet so Far," at the concert this evening. Miss Blanch's songs always elicit applause.

—The river convention meets at St. Joseph on the 29th inst. Oregon is entitled to two delegates, and Mayor Cummins has issued a request that a meeting of the citizens be held next Saturday for the selection of the two delegates.

—The band boys were out on parade last Saturday for the first time in their new uniforms. They made a brilliant appearance and played sweeter than ever before. They are a jolly crowd and the citizens of Oregon are justly proud of them.

—As a matter of news, we would remark that the first snow of the season fell here last Saturday morning. We have only received three poems on "Beautiful Snow" so far, and we have come to the conclusion that at the wood-beds in this vicinity are waiting for more snow.

—The literary society held its first meeting for the winter, last Friday evening at the public school building. The following permanent officers were elected: President, H. Hershberger; Secretary, Miss Estelle Goslin; Treasurer, D. P. Dobyas; Critics, O. C. Hill, Mrs. A. K. Irvine.

—Deputy Constable Moore, of Holt county, came down last Saturday with John B. Campbell, whom he was taking to the insane asylum. He was in the asylum once before, and was sent home in January last, but was unfortunately again overtaken by un soundness of mind. He has been a prominent citizen.—St. Joe Gazette.

Literary Night.
The literary society will meet Friday evening in the Public school building. The public are cordially invited to attend these meetings. The following is the program:

- Miss Jennie Barker of Atchison, Kas.
- Select Reading..... Carrie Hill.

A Narrow Escape.
Charles O. Stewart, of Aceme, Stewart and Cain, came very near losing his life and marching at the head of a long funeral procession yesterday morning. As the train pulled into the depot at Forest City, he thought to make a little time and jumped to the depot platform while the train was yet in motion. His foot slipped, and he fell to the ground. He fell in such a manner that he was thrown under the car and upon the rail. He had presence of mind enough, however, to extricate himself from his perilous position, and the wheels caught his pants and cut one leg almost the entire length. Mr. Stewart himself was uninjured, save a few bruises, but it was a narrow escape.—St. Joe Gazette.

Death of Daniel Hudson.
Daniel Hudson, an old pioneer of Holt county, Mo., died November 11th, aged 78 years, from old age and a lung disease. He was born in Kentucky in October, 1803 and was married in that state at the age of 23 to Miss Jersha Duncan, who was a relative of General Robert Lee. Six children were born to them, four daughters and two sons, only two of whom survives him. Mrs. Mary Boswell and Amanda Hudson. His wife died seven years ago, and his son Charles died during the late war. He and Squire T. S. Bragg settled on adjoining farms in Holt county, in the west end of N. Eckell's Grove, six miles northeast of Oregon, thirty-two years ago, on which farm he lived until the time of his death.

† The prisoners of the jail allowed to clean up the court house yard.
† A full house greet Miss Barker this evening at the Methodist church.
† New subscribers continue to pour in and old ones continue to come in and pay up.

The Concert.
Below we publish the programme of the concert to be given at the Methodist Church this (Thursday) evening. We certainly think it is the finest ever presented in Oregon since our residence here. The committee in securing the services of such eminent talent as Miss Barker, who so delighted her audiences everywhere she has appeared, will give two sections: "When the Leaves Begin to Turn," and "When Sparrows Build." She is one of the leading piano players of Atchison, and has a voice of rare culture and compass. It is unnecessary to mention individually the home talent. Every one of them is known to be an artist of rare ability. A glance at the programme ought to be sufficient to crowd the house:

A Pleasant Affair.
A pleasant party assembled at the residence of Mr. W. H. Richards last Thursday evening, in honor to Miss Lou David who has been visiting in Oregon. The young folks enjoyed themselves hugely, and about 9 o'clock were invited to a sumptuous repast, consisting of all the delicacies of the season. Kind and hospitable waiters served the viands, and the supper was heartily relished by all. After supper temperance exercises were indulged in until about midnight, when all took their departure, feeling happy and delighted with the evening's pleasures. The following is a list of those present: Misses Lou David, Anna Ryerson, Lota Wilson, Martha Snyder, Ida Raley, Blanche Howell, Mr. Mattie Peters, Mr. Louis J. Moore, Clark Philbrick, John C. Philbrick, James Foster, W. R. Hoffman, Grant Howell, John Peters, Herman Reinhart, Irvin McMurray, W. F. Wa ler.
