

THE MIDNIGHT TRAIN.

Across the dull and brooding night
A giant fire, with demon light
And breath of wreathing smoke;

PRACTICAL SCIENCE.

By means of a novel and ingenious arrangement of needle for belt lacing, the rawhide, long or threads—other material which is used to connect the end of belts—is drawn and laced through the holes or eyelets prepared for its reception, thus enabling the belts to be secured with greater facility than hitherto has been attained.

Water in Boilers.

By means of an electric indicator, recently invented abroad, the water level in any boiler may be ascertained at any distance from the latter.

Luminous Liquids.

Discussing the question of luminous liquids—those which, when exposed to sunlight, to the electric or the magnetic light, and then brought into a dark place, give off a yellow or a bluish white light.

Heat from the Stars.

Bright starlight nights and a frosty air are generally associated that there may be those who will find it hard to believe that the stars really tend to warm us.

enough to exhibit the minutest fluctuations of temperature, comes to the astronomer's aid, and promises the mail they want in the matter of instrumental accuracy.

About Fossils.

"It was a lovely place, and at the side rises a mountain rock in rugged pride. And in that rock, are shapes of shells, and forms of creatures in old worlds, and countless worms;

Four hundred people are employed in the Philadelphia mint, and all are making money.

There is one town in Connecticut that has no fear of the measles. It's Had-dam.

MADE NEW AGAIN.

Mrs. Wm. D. Ryckman, St. Catharines, Ont., says: "R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., has cured my Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery, and Pleasant Purgative Pills for the last three months, and find myself—(what shall I say)—made new again—the only words that express it. I was reduced to a skeleton, could not walk across the floor without fainting, could keep nothing in the shape of food on my stomach. Myself and friends had given up all hope, my immediate death seemed certain. I now live (to the surprise of everybody) and am able to do my own work."

Consumption Can be Cured!

Allen's Lung Balm is a powerful expectorant, and is sold by all druggists. It is a positive cure for the most stubborn cases of female weakness.
