Calendar for February 1905 showing days of the week and dates.

The Russian Revolt.

The forebodings of Sunday, January 1905, are the facts of today. It would be difficult to exaggerate the gravity of the news, which came from St. Petersburg last week.

Within the past week more than one writer has likened the situation at St. Petersburg to that at Paris and Versailles at the beginning of the French Revolution.

It is being repressed. With all that are bent in Eastern Asia, there are still enough troops left to the Czar to crush this insurrection, unless the disaffection in the army is found to be extensive.

To Repair Dangerous Bridges.

The following is the text of House Bill No. 3, providing for repairing of bridges known to be in dangerous condition.

The county court shall, whenever it is necessary, without delay, make an appropriation to repair any public bridge in the county; and whenever any bridge shall be repaired, the like preliminary steps shall be had as in case of building a bridge.

The winter and spring rains likely to fall creates an emergency within the meaning of the constitution, therefore this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

County Supervision.

This biennial bill is again up before our legislature, and we here give the important features of the bill: The superintendent is to be a county officer, paid from county revenues.

The Youth's Companion in 1905. It is impossible even to summarize in a single paragraph the many and varied attractions which THE YOUTH'S COMPANION will contain during 1905.

A series of articles planned to interest especially the forty-five millions of Americans who look directly to the soil for their subsistence.

SHOT IN THE BREAST.

Jesse Summers Badly Wounded by the Accidental Discharge of a Shot Gun.

At the Hiatt House in this city, a young German, Jesse Summers by name, lies suffering from a gun wound received in his right breast last Wednesday afternoon, January 25, 1905.

After receiving the wound the young German walked to the house, and was brought to town in a spring wagon, enduring his suffering with remarkable fortitude.

Mr. Summers is about 22 years of age, is a young man of exemplary habits, is industrious, attentive to his duties and is well liked by all who have formed his acquaintance.

A Practical, Helpful Farm Paper.

To the Editor of the Tribune Farmer. Sir: Again I greatly appreciate the fact that I can come to you for advice.

A Year Book and Guide.

You frequently hear mention of dead languages. Well, some facts are even dead, but these are not the kind that The Tribune Almanac deals in.

Herein will be found a perfect gold mine of information on topics of interest, not only to every American, but likewise to all who care to know about us, our laws, population, officials, and so forth.

In fact, it is really not an exaggeration to say of a hundred and one things a sane person wants to know, at least 99 will be found in The Tribune Almanac.
