THE ELECTIONS.

In matters political the culminating point of the year was reached on Tuesday. The elections in Iowa and Ohio...

The returns come in very slow, and even at this writing it is almost impossible to give any definite estimate of the result.

In Ohio the Republican committee thinks Hoadly's majority will be 3,000 or 4,000. Governor Foster thinks Hoadly's chances are best but does not abandon hope of either governor or legislature.

The "bears" have certainly been the ruling power in the grain market the past week, the prices of both wheat and corn having fallen several points.

The receipts of cattle for the past week show large gains while on range cattle prices have declined from 20 to 25 cents.

Looking over the mass of announcements for "G. A. R. Reunions," "Veterans Reunions," "Confederate Reunions," etc., we are led to wonder how so many men can afford to spend so much time and money attending these "how-woes."

MOUND CITY.

C. J. Moore has returned to Kansas. Still property sells here—and all ways sell well.

The famous George R. Wendling will deliver his latest and best lecture—title, "Satan"—at the Corsaut & Meyer Opera Hall on the 27th inst.

There is not a vacant house in our city. Esquire Claiborne held court the entire week.

Health is very good—the doctors say too good for comfort. Five school teachers in Maitland last Saturday, and no one hurt either.

Mr. J. M. Kenyon has commenced building a large warehouse on his business house, opposite the bank.

BLUFF CITY.

Mrs. Seth Strickland is very sick. W. R. Adams is enjoying very poor health.

Harvey Stephens has been keeping midnight hours the past week, caused by a painful felon on his right hand.

Mr. G. W. Moore has returned to Council Bluffs, where he will probably stay a year; his son Perry will manage the home farm in his absence.

Watson Babo, a young man of promise of this place, broke his leg while working in Nebraska.
