County Court.

The regular February term of this court was held the three first days of this week, and while much business was transacted, it was not of general importance.

The county clerk and his clerks are always ready for business, and they discharge their duties with promptness and efficiency.

Mr. Strough and others presented a petition asking for a new public road, which was filed. Asse Lawrence and others filed motion to dismiss said petition, and after argument by the attorneys—T. C. Dungan for petitioners and J. H. Huggins for respondents—the petition was ordered into the hands of the road commissioner as the law directs.
