Drs. Baker, Welch and Philpott were in Fayette this week as were also Hollis Wilhite, R. Winfree and others.

A 4-year-old child of Geo. Wilkison west of town died Sunday. This family has met with many misfortunes recently.

The proofs of death of Joseph Allin have been made out and forwarded to headquarters. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and his widow will receive $2,000.

Hon. I. H. Kinley of Kansas City stopped off here a few moments Wednesday afternoon while on his way home from Fayette, where he had been assisting in the Elliott insurance cases.

Judge Minter, O. F. Wayland and Dr. Baker sat as judges at the debate Friday night and decided the question, "Resolved, That Hawaii should be annexed to the United States," in the negative.

W. S. Stockwell, Fred Lamb, C. C. Hammond and A. W. Johnson, with several witnesses, went to Fayette Sunday afternoon in order to be present the next day at the trial of the cases of Hettie V. Elliott vs Massachusetts Benefit Life association and same vs Monroe City Safety Fund association in the Howard circuit court on change of venue from this county. The first case was compromised and settled before going into trial and was dismissed. Mrs. Elliott gets a preferred claim against the assets of the company, now in the hands of a receiver, for $1,000.

The second case was tried before the court and resulted in a verdict for plaintiff for the full amount of policy ($2,000) and six per cent interest from date of filing proofs of loss. These policies were issued on the life of Coda M. Elliott, who committed suicide March 1st, 1896, and her mother, the beneficiary, has recovered judgments for something over $8,000. Both cases tried were appealed.

The Klepper Bros., finding their present premises far too cramped for their extensive stock, have purchased lots 16 and 17 in block 19 on one of which they will erect a 26x72 foot brick structure. They will commence moving their present two-story frame structure in a few days to the adjoining lot, and will start to build as soon as a contract for the same is concluded.

Edward McDonald of Sumner and Miss Minnie Carlstead of Cunningham were united in wedlock at the residence of the parents of the bride in the presence of about 60 relatives and friends, Rev. C. E. Hedgepeth of Salisbury officiating. Among the many wedding presents was a handsome and serviceable rocking chair to which was attached a card on which was neatly inscribed, "From R. B. Kilpatrick and wife and Lewis Lisse."

There were no services at any of the churches here Thanksgiving, but the day was celebrated by a supper given by the ladies of the M. E. church, which was well patronized. There were also masked balls at both the Dickson opera house and the Lotus club rooms. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather there were about 25 couples at each. The town presented a lively appearance until 2 o'clock Friday morning, but there were no disturbances or unpleasantnesses. The M. E. supper netted $25.

Mrs. C. D. Turner had the misfortune to lose 24 fine chickens Thursday and Friday morning of last week by Mr. Mink. Amongst them was a favorite of the family, "Little Jim," a white Bantam rooster.

Several of our neighbors had quite a time fighting fire Saturday evening of last week, as a renter on "Uncle Peter" Smith's farm put out some fire for the purpose of burning off some high weeds so he could not plow under, and the wind was so strong it blew the fire over the plowed furrows into an adjoining field belonging to Mr. Glines, burning all his stalk field, and had it not been for hard work it would have burnt Mr. Sterner out of a house and home. The fire spread over several large fields before it could be gotten under control. People should be more careful with fire, especially in such a dry time. This one did considerable damage to stalk fields and meadows and caused a great deal of excitement.
