

Brunswick Brevities.

C. E. Stewart was in Keytesville on business Monday.

Dr. Wallace made a professional visit to Triplett Monday.

Geo. Klingbeil, who has been down with grippe, is able to be out again.

Hon. Chas. Hammond made a trip to Keytesville Tuesday on legal business.

Miss Nettie Bowman, who had been visiting in Keytesville, returned home Sunday evening.

Dr. T. F. Martin and little daughter, Hazel, spent a few days in St. Louis last week with relatives.

Lon Cook, of Keytesville, was dispensing smiles on one of Brunswick's bewitching young ladies Sunday evening.

Julian Bruce, who has been mining in Colorado for the past seven years, returned to his home here last week for a short visit to relatives.

Claude Bowman, who has been up north for a month or two, returned to his home here Friday and he and his wife left for Kansas City the next day where they remained a few days.

Mrs. W. H. Balthis, of Huntsville, and Clem Spencer, of Carrollton, came to Brunswick Saturday to see their mother, Mrs. Tom Spencer, who was injured by falling some days ago.

The young ladies in the east end of town have organized a club which will meet every Thursday evening for the purpose of whiling away the hours in pleasant pastimes. They have christened their club the "A. L. M. C. A."

Mrs. Cicero Cobb, who has been here for the past week assisting her father in breaking up house-keeping, returned to her home, in Carrollton, Monday, taking her little brother, Harry, and sister, Pearl, with her to spend the winter.

Last week Wm. Knight bought the residence property formerly occupied by Mr. Cross, which belonged to Mr. Shrunck, the purchase price being $900. Mr. Knight moved his family and household goods into his new home Wednesday, where they are now comfortably settled for the winter.

The young ladies, of the Christian church, are preparing for a "conundrum" supper to be given at Harugari hall next Tuesday night, for the benefit of their "Christian Endeavor" society. It will be something novel and interesting and they wish all to attend who can.

Mrs. Tom Spencer, while going over the crossing in front of the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Smith, a few days since, slipped and fell and injured herself severely. We are glad to note that the unfortunate lady is much improved and that although her injuries are of a very painful nature, they are not necessarily fatal, as was at first apprehended.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plunkett, of Mexico, died last Friday of membranous croup and was brought here by its parents Saturday and buried Sunday, at Elliott Grove cemetery. The funeral services were held at the residence of J. A. Merchant and were conducted by Rev. J. B. A. Vaughan. The babe was a sweet little boy and their only child. The many friends of the bereaved parents extend their heartfelt sympathies.

Last Wednesday Marshal Higginbotham received a telegram from Moberly to meet a couple at the depot and arrest them. They were a young man and a young girl, both of the dusky race, who had eloped with the intention of making themselves one as soon as the services of a parson could be secured. But as the ebony-hued damsel was under age, her father was cruel enough to prevent the marriage, and instead of their blissful dream being realized, the young man was lodged in the calaboose and the maiden was put under guard until her father could come and take her home. Names were not learned.

Sumner Squibs.

Law Lewis is on the sick list this week.

C. C. Taylor spent Sunday in Chillicothe.

Bob Hamilton was at the capital Tuesday.

Dr. J. W. Hardy visited Chillicothe last Tuesday.

F. S. Northup, of Laclede, Sundayed in Sumner.

Dr. Brown, of Bogard, was in our little city Tuesday, the guest of J. O. Hardy.

John M. Campbell, an attorney from Milan, Mo., was in Sumner last Monday.

W. M. Carothers attended the funeral of Mrs. Thompson, at Laclede, Wednesday.

Miss Mamie Poor, of Moberly, attended the Hardy-Simcox wedding last Wednesday.

Judge W. W. Rucker stopped here for an hour or so on his return from Linneus where he had been holding court.

Mrs. D. B. Kellogg and daughter, Miss Clara, of Keytesville, attended the funeral of little Cora Kellogg last Tuesday.

We regret to learn of the death of the mother of our fellow-townsmen, Geo. W. Thompson, which occurred at Laclede, on Monday, Dec. 11th.

MARRIED:—At the home of the bride's parents, in this place, on Wednesday, Dec. 13th, at 7 o'clock, p. m., Mr. J. O. Hardy and Miss Irena Simcox, Elder J. W. Caldwell, of Linneus, officiating. The groom is a rising young druggist of our city, commanding the respect of all for his sterling worth and upright dealing, while the bride is one of Sumner's fairest and most lovable daughters. We wish them unbounded joy.

DIED:—On Sunday, Dec 10th, at the home of her grandfather, Newton Long, Cora Amy, infant daughter of E. B. Kellogg. Another little light has been extinguished; another tender flower has been plucked in its early bloom. Twice has the grim reaper visited the home of the bereaved father in the last few months and taken from him his wife and baby around whom his fondest affections clung; and twice has he bowed in humble submission to the all-wise Creator, accepting his bitter fate with that fortitude which characterizes the truly great. We tender him our unfeigned sympathy in his sore affliction.

Triplett Times.

BY WARNING.

Mrs. Amelia Dameron, of Clifton Hill, is visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mrs. M. E. Shipp is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ida Brooks, of De Witt, this week.

Mrs. Nolan Riley, of near Brunswick, visited her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Britt, the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Mason Davis and two children, of Brunswick, attended the public school entertainment here Friday night.

Messrs. Chas. Tanner and Benj. Shupe, of Mendon, spent the day here Monday and attended the K. of P. lodge here that night.

The sick list in and about Triplett is larger this week than ever before. The la grippe has again become prevalent and is not discriminating in its victims. Nobody escapes.

Ruby lodge, No. 261, Knights of Pythias, has secured the services of Rev. G. A. Robbins, of Mendon, to deliver a public lecture here on Monday night, Jan. 1st, '94. The lecture will be followed by a public installment of officers.

Mrs. Clifford and daughter, Miss Vivian Daniels, of Sedalia, who have been visiting the family of J. M. Herndon for the past six weeks, returned home Tuesday. Miss Nellie Herndon accompanied them as far as Salisbury.

The mill, at this place, has suspended operations on account of not having a water supply sufficient to run it. The old well has been filled up and the Mill Co. is having another dug. It is the aim of the company to make the new one deep enough to supply water for all time to come.

Mr. Amos, of Darlington, Mo., who owns and operates several different ax-handle factories in various parts of the state, came down Saturday and remained here several days, looking after the interests of his factory at this place. He reports his business as unusually prosperous, notwithstanding the hard times.

The pupils of our public school, under the directorship of the principal, S. C. Matthews, rendered the play, "Under the Laurels," last Friday night to a full house. The parts were well taken and the play was a pronounced success. The entertainment was given for the purpose of paying for a clock. The net proceeds were about $20.

Some two or three years ago Marion Fleetwood, while carelessly handling a target gun, accidentally shot himself in the big toe of the right foot. The wound produced some pain at the time, but nothing serious was thought of until this fall, when his toe caused him so much pain that he could not walk. Finally he sent for Dr. Wallace, of Brunswick, who came up Monday night and upon examining the toe, reached the conclusion that an operation was necessary. So, with the assistance of Dr. Pendell, he proceeded to operate upon the toe. He took off the nail and found an abscess just under it. He removed the abscess and scraped the bone and the patient is now doing well.

The ladies of the Christian church, of Triplett, will give a dinner Christmas day and an oyster supper Christmas night. All are cordially invited to be present.

Echo Etchings.

Winter is making a very good start.

Mrs. D. A. Brown is on the sick list this week.

The farmers in this vicinity are marketing their hogs at 4 1-2 to 5 cts.

Fred McEuen, of Richmond, and Miss Anna McEuen, of Parkville, are in Echo at present.

Frank Fox is happy over the arrival of a girl on the 7th inst. Mother and child are doing well.

AT REST:—The beloved wife of J. F. Brown departed this life December 8th, '93, after an illness of five weeks, aged 24 years, 10 months and 27 days. She was a devout Christian and a consistent member of M. E. Church, South, and as she expressed herself, was perfectly ready to go without one regret save parting with loved ones. December 9th, the remains were followed by a large procession and laid to rest in Fair View cemetery after a very appropriate sermon by Rev. James Hise from the text: "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord." The remains were viewed by many sorrowing friends, thinking oh, how short the time had been since they had seen her bedecked in her bridal robes. Her friends, who are numbered by her acquaintances, won by her sweet and gentle disposition, mingled their tears with the bereaved relatives.

In infinite wisdom may it not be, That the light that went out here will in paradise be? There's swaying to and fro, the life light Lighting up life's dark, lone sea. Thou wilt guide thy loved ones homeward. They will steer their course for thee.

Shannondale Siftings.

Mr. Grisham, east of here, is quite sick.

Mrs. A. Tudor is on the sick list this week.

A little child of Wm. Grisham died Tuesday morning.

Mayor Ford, of Keytesville, was on our streets Saturday.

W. P. Raffle, of the Glasgow Missouriian, was here on business a few days ago.

Mrs. Sentenne, of Howard county, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. G. Beckett.

Z. T. Lamkin, one of Forest Green's merchants, made a business trip to this place Tuesday.

Mrs. J. T. Spence and Mrs. Ida Alpin went to St. Louis Sunday night for medical treatment.

Miss Rosa Vance, of Salisbury, was the guest of the Misses Warhurst Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Walter Turner left Wednesday for Stillwater, Oklahoma, after a two weeks' visit to relatives here.

Rev. J. B. Rice, of Asbury, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Mr. Maggard, of the Fertile Valley church, last Sunday night.

G. W. Miller, of Sturgeon, Boone county, passed through here this week with a drove of 200 cattle which he will feed near Daltou, on Capt. Henry Bucksath's farm.

Quite a number from this place attended the operetta given by the Salisbury academy pupils last Monday night. We hear the program was rendered very satisfactorily.

B. J. Moore and G. M. Butler went to Forest Green Wednesday as witnesses in a trial concerning a check which a negro had forged upon Dr. Lawhorn and presented to the above named gentlemen to be cashed.

Dr. McEuen was called to Pee Dee last week to attend the funeral services of his sister, Mrs. J. F. Brewer. This is the third time death has entered the doctor's family since his residence here, and his friends sincerely sympathize with him.

The citizens of our town are agitating the question of a flour mill at this place. Any one who will take the trouble to inquire will find this point commands considerable territory and other advantages which makes it a superior location for a good mill.

Shannondale continues to increase in population as a hunting center. Among the visitors this week we noticed Messrs. Allen and LaGrass, of Salisbury, and Dr. G. W. Lawhorn, of Forest Green. We failed to learn the names of the other parties who were also here hunting within the past few days.

Salisbury Scribbings.

BY A. W. JOHNSON.

Mayor Patterson is suffering from a bad attack of la grippe.

Geo. Johnson, of Sugar Valley, Kansas, is here on business.

The meeting at the M. E. Church, South, continues with good interest.

Samuel Osborne, late deceased, had an insurance on his life for $1,900, which goes to the widow.

Stock sold fairly well at the administrator's sale of the property of J. W. Trent, deceased, last Tuesday.

The bond auction sale Saturday was well attended and bonds sold well, No. 1 being knocked off at $980.

J. M. Green, whose leg was broken last week by a horse falling on him, is getting along nicely and will soon be on his crutches.

Sam T. Combs has received his money from the Fidelity and Casualty Ins. Co. The company refused to pay and Combs brought suit.

The upper part of the L'Homme-dieu building will be converted into a city hall and court room, and will be a nice one.

Rev. Squire, of Brunswick, has been employed to preach one Sunday in each month for the Presbyterian church at this place.

Philip Biltz, of Summerfield, Ill., was here last week looking for a location to handle apples. We hope he will find what he is seeking and locate among us.

Eld. J. R. Linville preached two discourses at the Christian church last week, that were well received. He is an old fashioned, gospel preacher, and sticks close to the Bible.

Word comes from Fayette that Miss Guida Gallemore, of that city, and a general favorite here, was married on Tuesday to a Mr. Kimmage, of near Glasgow. We hasten to congratulate.

Thos Dempster met with a painful accident Wednesday morning by which he lost the end of one thumb. It seems that he was tying a horse with a rope, which in some manner got wound around his thumb, when a pull from the horse severed the end of that member.

Last Saturday evening Alex. Pitney, a wood sawyer about town, drew a check on one of our banks, disposed of it at the Salisbury Produce company's store, and on Sunday morning borrowed a wagon from Walker Rogers, put a few beds, etc., therein and pulled out, telling his mother that he was going to Texas county. Pitney is nearly blind and his actions are a surprise to his friends. He told Rogers that he wanted the wagon to haul a load of straw. We don't know what steps, if any, are being made to bring him back.

Guthridge Mills Gossip.

Rev. J. W. Westlake filled his appointments at Pollard school-house last Saturday and Sunday.

Hiram Shrepies, of near Huntsville, stopped over in this neighborhood last Saturday night on his way home from near New Boston, Linx county.

We are glad to learn that the trouble between George Teitjans and Farmer Osterman has been settled. The two got their heads together and compromised like men of good sense.

Lon Richardson, of near New Liberty, is buying some stalk fields and hay and is making a feed of 75 head of cattle in this vicinity. Lon is a whole-souled gentleman and a hustler from away-back.

The dinner at A. C. Eneyart's last Friday was largely attended by friends and old neighbors, and was greatly enjoyed by the sixty-one guests who were present. The sumptuous spread was given by Mrs. Eneyart in honor of her liege lord's 58th birthday.

Another shooting match took place at the Mills last Saturday, which passed off with considerable enthusiasm and some contention. "Babe" Grubbs won a 16-pound gobbler, but some forager appropriated it as if by sleight of hand. "Babe" says he can whip the fellow that got his turkey.
