See Wheat's window for fresh fruits—new every day.

The editor of this paper has nibbled his rabbit's foot and has run into a streak of hard luck in consequence. We just got settled in the Raymond house on North Main street when we were notified that the house had been sold and the buyer, Mr. Crawford, wants to occupy his newly acquired property. Who has a six-room house to lease for a year? This thing of moving every 30 days gets on one's nerves.

Best Ward made a flying trip to some point north of here Sunday. He said he was going to Kansas City, and it he went that far he didn't like the looks of it. He was back on his job Monday.

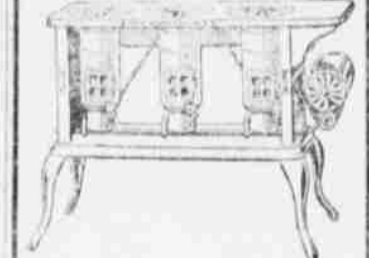

Dr. W. O. Thompson returned from the annual conference at Kansas City Tuesday. His many friends in Jasper and vicinity will be glad to learn that the conference returned him to the Jasper charge for another year.

Providence in Human Affairs.
If a great change is to be made in human affairs, the minds of men will be fitted to it, the general opinions and feelings will draw that way. Every fear, every hope, will forward it; and then they who persist in opposing this mighty current in human affairs will appear rather to resist the decrees of Providence itself than the decrees of men.—Edmund Burke.

One Thing Worth Having.
In this world the one thing worth having is the opportunity, coupled with the capacity, to do well and worthily a piece of work the doing of which is of vital consequence to the welfare of mankind.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Strange Sight.
"When we were on Lake Michigan last summer," says Mrs. Maxigram, "we saw a beautiful sight one afternoon. We were away out in the middle of the lake, and we steamed past a schooner with a woman on it full of brick and lumber."—Judge.

Easily Explained.
The Schoolmaster—Now, how was it that this great discovery made by Columbus was not fully appreciated until many years after his death? The Up-to-Date Scholar—Because he didn't advertise, sir.—Sketch.

Big Salary Explained.
"And how is your excellent son, the divinity student? He graduated from the theological academy about a year ago, I believe?" "Yes, just a year ago. And he's doing so well! They pay him a wonderfully large salary and next year he's to get more." "Indeed! That's very unusual. Perhaps it is his excellent delivery that nets him the large emolument." "Yes, that's it. He's one of the pitchers in the big league."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
