TO REQUEST HIGHER PROPERTY VALUATION

Increased Taxation Means Better Schools, Local Teachers Say. TO HAVE PETITIONS Association to Ask Board of Equalization to Take Action.

Two branches of the State Teachers' Association have been organized in Columbia to carry on their part of a state-wide campaign for better paid teachers in better schools.

The petition, it is believed, will show that the people of Columbia and in the state are overwhelmingly in favor of obtaining more competent teachers by increasing the salaries...

A canvass is already being made of business firms in Kansas City. It is planned to have 150,000 signatures of the petitions there.

Since Columbia is the educational center of the state, its citizens ought to indorse unanimously the movement, the leaders here believe.
