

County News

MALTA BEND

G. A. Benick was transacting business in Marshall last Monday. The hunters gave their annual Thanksgiving hunt. H. I. Blosser being captain of one side and Offa Walker captain of the other side. Mr. Blosser being the winner. Their oyster supper was given on Friday evening and was enjoyed by all.

E. G. Guthrey was transacting business in Marshall last Monday.

Mrs. Maiter of Lexington is visiting relatives here several days.

Andy Plattner was transacting business in Marshall Monday.

Mrs. Slater came in last Thursday evening for a visit with friends.

Miss Minnie Franklin came home from Kansas City last Tuesday and is very sick at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Potts came down from Lexington Saturday morning for a visit with relatives.

Miss Irene Houston was shopping in Marshall Friday.

Miss Frazier of Lexington visited her aunt Mrs. Walter Lunbeck and family several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ransberger of Mt. Leonard were Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Fulton.

Mrs. Kinnamon went to Marshall last Wednesday and spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Williams.

Rev. Leatherman filled his regular appointment at Asbury Chapel Sunday evening.

Judge Wallace of Kansas City gave a Temperance Lecture at the M. E. church, South, Saturday afternoon and evening.

Work Will Soon Start

after you take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and you'll quickly enjoy their fine results. Constipation and indigestion vanish and fine appetite returns. They regulate stomach, liver and bowels and impart new strength and energy to the whole system. Try them. Only 25c at P. H. Franklin's.

SALINE POINT

Quite a little snow visited this vicinity Tuesday.

There was a big turkey roast and a party at George Dilley's on Thanksgiving.

L. W. Irvin and sisters, Misses Emma and Gladys and Elbert Moor left Sunday afternoon for Iowa.

Wonder why Wesley was so disappointed Saturday night?

Mike Kiser Friedman and Viola Barnes attended the moving picture show at Miami Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lynn visited Jim Moore and family Saturday night and Sunday.

Ernest Irvin transacted business on Buck eye Saturday.

The teacher of Star School is preparing a programme for Christmas.

Prof. J. A. Burnside was seen in our midst Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hardesty arrived this week for a visit at Wallace Chilcott.

We pay cash for country produce. J. A. Whitt, Mt. Leonard. 4711

Women!

If weak, you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from gentle herbs, acts in a natural manner, and has no bad results, as some of the strong drugs sometimes used. As a medicine—a tonic—for weak, tired, worn-out women, Cardui has been a popular success for over 50 years.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Lula Walden, of Gramila, S. C., followed this advice. Read her letter: "I was so weak, when I first began to take Cardui, that it tired me to walk just a little. Now, I can do all the general housework for a family of 9." Try Cardui for your troubles. It may be the very remedy you need.

JESTER

Mrs. John Noble and children were visiting relatives at Lamine the latter part of last week.

Miss Nannie Nickabaker was visiting the school last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis celebrated their fifth anniversary on Thanksgiving day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sade-white and daughter, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Pit Bell and son, Mrs. J. W. Caldwell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lewis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sade-white and niece, Miss Maudie, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lewis and daughter, Miss Ida. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis received many nice presents and everybody enjoyed the good dinner Mrs. Lewis had prepared.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Pete Dierheimer is able to be up again.

John Sade-white eat Thanksgiving dinner with his best girl.

Miss Julia Desmond spent her Thanksgiving with home folks.

The people are still losing their hogs with the cholera.

J. S. Lewis is still improving.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form and mind and temper. But its hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health beauty and friends. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at P. H. Franklin's.

SALINE VALLEY

Several of our young people attended the Firemans dance at Glasgow Thursday night.

Irven Sheppard of near Gilliam attended church here Wednesday.

Miss Ella Brucks of Glasgow is visiting her sister Miss Katie this week.

Ed Sellmeyer left Wednesday for a visit with friends and relatives near St. Louis.

Several wolves pursued by a pack of hounds passed through here Thursday morning. The wolves were headed toward the big island above Little Rock.

Louis Baringhous sold a bunch of hogs to parties at Glasgow last Tuesday getting $6.10 per cwt.

A 13 hour devotion was held at All Saints Church here Tuesday and Wednesday. Rev. C. Strasburger was assisted by Rev. Ernest of Salisbury, Rev. Shafer of Moberly and Rev. John Walterman of Glasgow. The arrangements, in spite of the bad weather, were well carried out and the services were conducted in a very impressive manner.

SALT POND

We are having very nice weather for December.

W. R. Fitzgerald has been real sick the past week.

Irene and Earl Lee spent Sunday with Nellie and William Fitzgerald.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. VanBuskirk and daughter Adell were shopping in Sweet Springs Saturday.

A number from around here attended the box supper at the Canada school house.

Henry Cook and Louis Lemler and families spent Sunday at Aug. Geahkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ballard and son Harry spent Sunday at Chas. Allen's.

Jeff Fisher took a load of wood to town Monday for August Geahkin.

Christmas will soon be here again.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. I. J. Holden and son spent Sunday at L. C. Dennis at Blue lick.

Mrs. J. M. Dennis was shopping in Marshall Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Williams entertained at Thanksgiving dinner a limited number of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Livingston and daughter Nora were shopping in Marshall Monday.

Carl Kurtz, Roland Livingston and sister Nora, visited Miss Ella Lemler Sunday evening.

Harry Livingston went to see his best girl Sunday.

Miss Ella Lemler visited home-folks last week.

Mrs. Minnie Crawford and mother spent Thursday at Fuller Beards.

We have the finest line of stationery in the city. Scott Bros. Book Store.

See our complete line of toys. Scott Bros. Book Store.

She Is Sure To Be Pleased With a Pretty Hand Bag For a Gift

What woman wouldn't? Especially if it is one from the great assortment of exceptionally smart hand bag styles we are showing in fine leathers, beaded and uniquely worked out fabrics. There are bags of all sorts, shapes and colors.

Besides lending a smart note to any woman's outfit a handbag is a necessity. It is called upon for practical service many times a day; every day in the year and with such variety as we have here you'll find it extremely easy selecting a handbag that will surely meet with a most cordial reception from "her."

You'll Certainly Want a New Suit for the Holidays

Or Perhaps You Will Delight the Heart of Some Dear Friend With the Gift of One.

In either case you would do well to choose it from our assortment, for we have assembled for your selection a truly notable gathering of the most charming suits imaginable.

Every popular model and desirable material is represented, and every color and pattern is also here. The superior workmanship and especially handsome models of these suits, raise them far above those you're used to seeing in Marshall.

Our cut price-range is broad and inclusive, and every price procures a most excellent value.

The Very Handsomest Coats That Money Can Buy.

A Brilliant Holiday Assemblage of Winter Coats that Surpasses all our Previous Displays.

Such a complete and all-embracing exhibition it has never been your pleasure to see in Marshall. From the country's style-centres come these handsome coats, and we have chosen them from the stocks of America's most celebrated manufacturers.

You will certainly want a new coat—either for your personal wear, or as a gift to some dear one—and you cannot do better than to choose it from our assortment. Every coat is perfectly tailored, in the newest models, of splendid materials and every price is guaranteed the very lowest to be had in this district for equal grades.

Surely, you couldn't ask more than that!

See Santa Claus Flying Machine in our Window.

HANDKERCHIEFS

We're showing handkerchiefs in a bountiful profusion, the like of which you've never seen. Prices are quite reasonable, too!

Marshall, Mo.

SILK SCARFS

A beautiful silk scarf would make a suitable gift to any woman of taste. Or why not treat yourself to one with the money you receive as a Christmas remembrance?

GRAND PASS

Miss Georgia Reynolds spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Shipmons and family at Lexington.

Remember the prayer meeting at the Baptist church Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Burrus visited his parents in Carrollton last week.

Miss Natalie Dowden spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Blackburn.

Mrs. B. Garner of Kansas City is visiting her sister Mrs. Ella Reynolds.

Ed McReynolds is quite sick at this writing with rheumatism.

Miss Laura Webb is visiting her sister in Odessa.

Mrs. A. E. Riley spent Saturday and Sunday at Waverly waiting on her sister Mrs. Webb who is quite sick at her cousins' Mrs. Robt. Sims.

R. Kinsolo of Mayview was the guest of Miss Pearl Riley Sunday.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. S. Trent of near Waverly was accidentally choked to death last Thursday by a piece of apple lodging in the windpipe. The little one died before medical aid arrived, although Dr. Kelling made due haste in an auto immediately after receiving the phone message.

The ladies of the Christian church announce their bazar will be held in Odd Fellows Hall, Saturday Dec. 16th. Beautiful and useful articles of all kinds have been prepared. They will serve fresh oysters and other excellent eatables.

Wins Fight for Life

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B. Mershon, of Newark, N. J.; of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak and run down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began, three weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim." For weak sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, lagrippe, asthma, hay-fever or any throat or lung trouble its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by P. H. Franklin.

WOODSON

Rev. W. M. Vardeman filled his regular appointment at Salem Sunday. A large crowd was present.

The community was shocked when hearing of the death of Angelina Katherine Brown, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown. Her death was sudden and a sad one. Her funeral was preached by Rev. Vardeman Wednesday and burial at the Witcher cemetery.

There is a great deal of sickness in this community but most are getting along very nicely.

OREARVILLE

Tom Stivers was a Slater caller Wednesday.

Miss May Irvine of Marshall spent Thanksgiving with Misses Zetta and Dellorise Neff.

Mrs. Robert Gilmer and daughter Tabia attended preaching at Berea Sunday morning.

Misses Dellorise and Zetta Neff spent the day Sunday with Miss Lee Lawless.

Miss Corine Spencer spent the holidays with homefolks.

Misses Ina and Lorine Lawler called on Miss Annie Neans Sunday afternoon.

J. P. Lawler called on Ben Page Sunday afternoon.

Edgar Allen spent the day Sunday with James Neff.

There will be a Christmas tree at the Pottor school house Friday night December 22d. Everybody invited to attend.

BLACKBURN

The ladies of the Missionary society will give a Tom Thumb wedding at the M. E. church south, Friday, December 28th.

Mrs. E. C. Moore from Sedalia who has been visiting her sister Mrs. E. Major, returned to her home Monday.

Misses Freda and Bertha Schmale were visitors to Kansas City Tuesday.

The South M. E. Church closed their meeting Sunday night with 15 new additions to the church.

Miss Rena Jackson from Alms, who visited with her cousin Misses Sadie and Annie Jackson returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. A. Washburn and daughter Miss Nellie were shopping at Marshall Friday.

Miss George spent the holidays with homefolks at Slater.

Miss Sadie Jackson who teaches near Grand Pass visited with home folks.

Miss Natalie Dowden spent the holidays with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Holke entertained at their home Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brunkhorst and daughter Mary Louise, Herman Guenther and daughter, Miss Winnie.

John Reith and G. Haselmier recently moved into one of the Brunkhorst new building.

Willie John was seen in our burg Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Suggett were visitors to Marshall Tuesday.

Lee Suggett was a passenger to Marshall Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John John from near Sweet Springs visited here Sunday.

Mrs. Kline from Higginsville and children who visited her parents several days, returned home Saturday evening.

Wonder who Herman Brunkhorst was calling on Sunday?

J. H. Brunkhorst and G. W. Litter went to Bowling Green Mo., last week and returned with one of the finest jacks that ever came into Saline county for the German Coach Horse Co.

Mrs. Chawell was a passenger to Marshall Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Washburn visited in Marshall Tuesday.

Miss Zelta Masterson was a visitor in Slater Tuesday.

W. Logsdon was a passenger to Marshall Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Wise and daughter, Miss Grace, have gone to Moberly and St. Louis on a visit to relatives and friends.

Be Your Own Chef

With K C Baking Powder any housewife can easily make biscuits, cakes and pastries that surpass the product of the world's greatest chefs. A trial will prove that to your entire satisfaction.

SEND FOR THE K C COOK'S BOOK SEE BELOW

A lifetime of pleasant bake-days if you use

KC BAKING POWDER 25 Ounces for 25 cts.

Complies with the National and State Pure Food Laws. Send for the K C Cook's Book. You can have a copy FREE. The K C Cook's Book, containing 50 tested, easily-made recipes, sent free upon receipt of the colored certificate packed in the 25-oz. can. Send it today. Jacques McE. Co., Chicago