Church Notes

The Christian Ladies Aid Society cleared $190 at their bazar Saturday.

Dr. Black preached at the Westport Presbyterian church in Kansas City Sunday.

Rev. Clarence E. Hodge, of McLeansboro, Ill., was tendered a call by the First Baptist church last Wednesday evening. Rev. Hodge is very highly spoken of as an able and earnest man and it is sincerely hoped he will accept.

The revival meetings of the Cumberland Presbyterian church are attracting unusual interest and the singing by the quartette is being highly complimented. Rev. C. M. Zwingle, the evangelist, is giving some inspiring sermons. On Friday evening at 2.30 his address will be especially to the mothers but everyone is invited. Next Sunday at 2 p. m. a men's meeting will be addressed by him at the First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Moses Breeze field man of the Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian church, conducted a conference for Marshall and vicinity on Church Methods at the Odell Ave. Presbyterian church Monday afternoon and also made a fine talk in the evening. Dr Breeze's visit was a big treat to those who had the good luck to hear him.

Chas. Niemeier Thursday met with a painful accident at his home on Capitol Hill. His horse threw him against a barb wire fence and he received several bad cuts on his left wrist and hand and he is carrying his arm in a bandage.

TRUSTEES' CASE

Whereas, David O'Howell and Lizale O'Howell, his wife, by their certain deed of trust dated the ninth day of November, 1910, and filed for record on the same day in the office of the Recorder of Deeds, Saline County, Missouri, and then recorded in Book No. 142 at page 493 conveyed to R. H. Duggins, as trustee, all the right, title, interest and estate of, in and to the following described real estate: situated in the County of Saline, State of Missouri, to-wit:

The east one third of the northeast quarter of Section thirty, Township forty-nine, Range twenty, containing fifty-five acres, more or less, and being the same land conveyed by deed of date July twenty-eight, 1899, from Jacob Van Dyke, trustee, to the said David O'Howell, and recorded in Book 101 at page 45 recorders office for Saline County, Missouri.

Whereas default has been made in payment of the interest of the debt secured by said deed.

Now, therefore I, R. H. Duggins, by virtue of the authority of said deed of trust vested in me and at the request of the holder of said note, will on between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day at the south front door of the court house, in the City of Marshall, Saline County, Missouri, proceed to sell the above described real estate at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said note and interest and pay costs of executing this trust.

R. H. DUGGINS,
Trustee.
