DEATHS

THOMAS M. HORNBECK died at his home in Omaha, Neb., on Oct. 29, 1912, after an illness of twenty seven days. His illness was tubercular trouble, several of his immediate relatives have died from this trouble. Miami was the home of his childhood and youth and it was decided to bring his remains to Miami and place by the side of relatives who have gone before. His father died many years ago and his mother a few years after, a brother about 2 years ago and a baby sister many years since.

Upon the arrival of his body it was taken to the home of Dr. A. A. Wheeler to await the arrival of his four brothers and sister, Mrs. Lydia Wetherford. He was a most successful operator and ticket agent and had lately given up a $150 a month position for one at $250 per month. He was thirty-three years of age. "Tommy" as his friends affectionately called him was a general favorite being always of a kind and sympathetic nature.

His remains were laid beside relatives in the Miami cemetery on a cold, dreary rainy day which helped express more deeply the sorrow of his many friends. Earth now closes over him. Autumn leaves cover him. Well may he rest. Saddy his friends left him there. No more shall pain or care trouble his breast.

WILLIAM THOMAS WILLIAMS died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John F. Miles, six miles south west of town, Friday, November 1, 1912, after a several days' illness of asthma and kidney trouble. He had been ailing a long time but had not seemed worse until he suddenly was taken down in a serious condition.

Mr. Williams had made his home with his daughter and son in law since the death of his wife ten years ago.

He was born in Cooper county, April 23, 1846, professed religion in his early days, joined the Heath Creek Baptist Church and has been a faithful Christian since. He leaves to mourn his death, one daughter, a son-in-law, a little grand-daughter to whom he was greatly devoted, one nephew who was reared in his home as one of the family and now residing in Texas, and many other relatives and friends.

Mr. Williams was one of the kindest and most pleasant of gentlemen. When the editor came to Saline ten years ago and made a trip to the Herndon vicinity in the interest of the Republican we came home wishing to forget all except the kindness shown us by Mr. Williams and he has been a regular and welcome visitor to our office since. He bore a reputation for his many kindly deeds. Always cheerful and smiling even in his days of pain and illness.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. C. Bolton Sunday at 11 a. m. and burial in Hazel Grove cemetery.

MRS. MARY THOMS was born in Texas County, Mo., August 4, 1847, and died at her home in Edgerton, Kansas, November 3, 1912, aged 65 years and three months. She was united in marriage to S. L. Thoms, in Cole county, Missouri, July 3, 1866. To this union were born eleven children, ten of whom survive. The living children are A. J. Thoms, of Miami county, Kansas; Mrs. Sarah Clayton, Saline county; Mrs. Dora Johnson, Saline county; Ella Thoms, who died in infancy; Mrs. Maggie Hall, and Mrs. Cora Clayton, of Johnson county Kansas; Alexander and Mr. Frank Thoms, of Saline county; Mrs. Nellie Dickerson, of Miami county, Kansas; Mrs. Edna Cox, of Mont Vista, Colo.; and James, of Edgerton, Kansas. Mrs. Thoms united with the Christian church in 1873 and lived a consistent Christian life. There are 25 grand children and two great-grandchildren. Her funeral and burial occurred at her home in Edgerton, Kansas, Tuesday, Nov. 5th, at 11 a. m.

THOMAS M. HORNBECK, thirty three years old, died Tuesday at Omaha, Neb., of cerebral meningitis. The body was sent here for burial and arrived Thursday morning.

At a late hour Thursday afternoon the time of the funeral had not been decided upon, as the body is being held for the arrival of Dr. Hugh and Dr. Russell Hornbeck of Kingston, Okla., who telegraphed that they started at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Hornbeck came with the body. It is probable that the funeral will take place today at the Methodist church and burial will follow in Miami cemetery.

He was born on a farm in the bottom below Miami. Upon the death of his father the family moved to this place and Mrs. Hornbeck and the younger children made this place their home until about six years ago, when they broke housekeeping and Mrs. Hornbeck went to Nebraska to make her home with her children.—Miami News.

WILLIAM B. DIGGS, one of Saline's oldest citizens, passed away at his home in Arrow Rock Saturday morning, Nov. 2d, 1912, after a long illness, aged 81 years. He is survived by his wife and seven children—William T. of Lamar; I. O. of Stillwell, Okla.; Walsom, Bascom, Seth and Miss Nora at home, and Mrs. E. V. Davidson of Marshall.

Dr. Mitchell Dead

Rev. J. W. Mitchell of this city, received the sad news last week of the death of his brother, Dr. J. T. Mitchell, in Kansas City. He was a prominent physician of Kansas City and was taken down with pneumonia Sunday week, dying on the ninth day. He was 65 years old, a faithful and life-long Presbyterian and a well-versed Mason. He was here recently visiting and took part in the Masonic exercises. Rev. Mitchell attended the funeral which occurred in Kansas City Sunday afternoon.

The Single Tax amendments received so few votes that they were "hardly worth counting" and many precincts reported none whatever. The cause of this big defeat to the Republicans began with the dissent of the American people over the high cost of living. In order to overcome this, President Taft advocated Canadian reciprocity, knowing its effect, and saying that it would hurt for awhile. The farmers and farm papers quickly took up the fight in their interest, resulting in thoroughly discrediting the President with the farmers. This led to the demand for a new candidate and the final disruption of the party. We judged the situation correct when we said that President Taft could not be re-elected and we believe he would not have been re-elected if he had a clean nomination and no split, because of the restlessness of the American people. Will they be satisfied now? Not long. We dislike to portray what in our opinion is ahead of us, although not necessarily a panic. As Joseph Wronker told us of a man in 1893, who said it had cost him $25 to help elect Cleveland, $5 to celebrate and he had $1 more to buy a rope, so we believe many Democrats will feel soon. There cannot possibly be cheap living and good prices for farm products at the same time, so there is bound to be much dissatisfaction which ever way prices trend. Republicans nor Progressives should be censured for their way of voting. Republicans honestly believed Taft could and should be re-elected. Progressives believe he could not, nor should not, be re-elected in the name of good government. Let us only hope that whatever comes, no panic may visit us that will bring ruin or despair.

Church Notes

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Beattie Tegler Tuesday afternoon.
 The Baptist Sunday School will have what they call Joy Day next Sunday morning. There will be a fine program, with 50 singers on the stage and a twenty-piece orchestra to assist. Among the Sick Editor J. J. Witt was home sick several days this week.

Miss Florence Crockett underwent successfully a severe operation at the Osteopathic hospital at Kirksville Saturday morning. She was accompanied over by her mother, Mrs. E. R. Crockett, and Dr. G. T. Nuckles. Her many friends will be pleased to learn of her improvement.

Rufus Holloway, who has been very sick for a month or so at his home here is getting better and will be out soon.

Election Prediction
 Last summer L. W. Schanz, of near Koping, called in to renew and a political argument ensued. We then made a note on our calendar as follows and agreed to print it the week after election: "L. W. Schanz says Taft will be elected. J. J. Witt says he will not carry more than three states." We leave it to our readers as to who made the best guess.
 L. O. Nye was here from Malta Bend yesterday.

MISS FELICE LYNE VISITS MARSHALL

Famous Singer at Stewart Chapel Tonight

The announcement of Miss Felice Lyne's appearance in Marshall tonight came as a startling surprise to our people. To her it is a visit "back home" as she was born and partly reared in Slater, and it is through the efforts of her uncle, Dr. F. A. Howard, that we will be permitted to hear her. Miss Lyne is now one of the world's most famous opera singers, being at present connected with a London opera house. At her recent appearance in the Coliseum in Kansas City the proceeds netted over $10,000 for the one night. When the tickets were placed on sale at Hunter's drug store Monday morning a large number had formed in advance and had not vanished until after about four hours. We are unable to say whether more tickets or admissions can be secured.

She will be accompanied by a prominent musician from Kansas City. They gave a concert at Slater Wednesday night. The town gave her a royal welcome.

Postoffice Robbed

A determined effort was made Sunday night to rob the Marshall postoffice. The burglar or burglars, first broke into Sadewhite's second-hand furniture store adjoining the postoffice and then dug a hole through the thick wall into the postoffice building. As the idea seemed to be to get into the vault and the first hole came out in the rear of the vault, another hole was made about 15 feet farther to the front. This came out right to suit the burglars and they entered the vault and became busy.

Postmaster VanDyke informed us that they secured about $35 in stamps and change in the vault. They next tackled the safe. After knocking off the combination knob without getting in they drilled several holes, but never made a blast as they must have been scared away early in the morning as a candle was still found burning and their dynamite cartridge and fuse was also left behind unused. There were between $100 and $500 in the safe and when opened by locksmith Emery Brown, were found intact.

The safe was the old Cordell Bank safe and was a good one, otherwise it would have been an easy matter to get into it. The men earned about all they got, but may get all they earned and deserve if caught.

A Bootlegger Caught

Harry Barnett, of Saline county, was tried on two charges of bootlegging last Friday in Square Riggs' court and found guilty in each case. He was fined $300 in one and given six months in jail on the other. Not having the money to pay his fine he will be a guest at the county jail for some time to come.—Higginsville Advance.

The West Side Literary Society has resumed its regular meetings. The first meeting was held two weeks ago at the home of Ed and Dick Munford. At last Friday evening meeting new officers were elected. Tonight's will be at Mr. Becker's.
