

Clothing, Clothing, Clothing,

To the trade, did you know that we own at least one half our Clothing Stock
At Less Than Half Price.

We have recently made some good trades in this line and we find that we are over-stocked, and in order to unload, we propose for a short time to make prices at a price that will move the goods. Now

If You Want to Save Money

come and see what we have to offer you. Lots of our Clothing will be offered at less than half former prices.

Yours to Please

M. K. FARMER.

Northeast Corner Square, Marshall, Mo.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Fine handmade harness is a specialty with C. N. Kreibitz.

Farmers—see W. K. Mahard & Son's hog fences before buying.

W. C. Gower spent Saturday at Blackwater on legal business.

Louise Almond has returned from a visit to relatives at Cambridge.

Everett Fulton, of Malta Bend, was a visitor to our city on Friday.

A. B. Stewart arrived Tuesday for a short vacation with his family.

Rev. Joshua Harboe left Monday morning for his home at Excelsior.

Beautiful home grown strawberries, fresh every day, on sale at Louisa's.

When your bike needs fixing, go to Emory H. Brown, 167 South Lafayette.

Mrs. G. N. Ovar has returned from a visit to St. Louis and Jefferson City.

Mrs. T. B. Morris and daughter, of Arrow Rock, were up shopping on Saturday.

See that your photographs are over Hutchings' signature. It is a guarantee of excellence.

For the most beautiful designs in wall paper, all strictly up to date, to be found at Lindsey's.

Mrs. M. M. Marmaduke left Friday for Boonville, where she will spend a week with Mrs. E. V. Harvey.

For upholstering all kinds of furniture and making over hair mattresses, go to see Kreibitz, south of square.

Capt. Wilson and W. C. Gower spent Friday at Miami. They raised five hundred dollars for the good people of Miami for the State Fair.

Dr. B. M. Spotts and little daughter, Jean, from Blackburn, came down and spent Monday in the city, the guests of Robert Campbell and wife.

Mrs. J. N. Robertson visited her son, J. A. Robertson, at Slater this week.

Miss Louisa Striker made a visit to her sister, Mrs. Wm. Neuk, at Slater this week.

Theodore Mayer combined pleasure with business in his trip to Jefferson City Saturday.

The many friends of Mrs. T. L. Hunter were glad to see her out, after her recent illness.

Miss Sophia Jordan accompanied by Miss Rosie Flynn visited relatives at Cambridge this week.

Gov. Murrell returned Monday from Lexington, where he attended a meeting of the board of Central College.

Mrs. B. M. Spencer and granddaughters, Agnes Louise and Mary, returned Saturday from a visit at Salisbury.

Dr. Wm. Harrison is in Columbus, Ohio, attending the American Medical Association which meets there this week.

Have you seen those beautiful shirt waists at Wright's? An endless variety of styles and colors from 50 cts. to $2.00.

Miss Elizabeth Hinesock arrived Saturday from Mt. Leonard for a short visit to her sister, Mrs. J. W. Sparks.

WANTED: ladies to do mangleing work, pleasant and permanent, good wages; call for particulars or address REPUBLICAN Office.

Judge A. T. Gunnell and wife of Colorado Springs, spent several days with J. W. Sparks and wife this week at their home on North St.

Misses Agnes Spencer and May Northern spent Sunday with the Misses Harris at their country home east of town, returning Monday.

Misses May Brandon, Annie Sudley and Miss Sadie Buckland were elegantly entertained at dinner, on Sunday by Mrs. C. W. Parent at her home on Brunswick.

Mrs. J. W. Goodwin has returned to her home in Alma, after a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. R. E. L. Smith.

Wm. Woodson of St. Joseph, who was formerly post master of this city, spent Sunday in Marshall visiting relatives.

Rev. W. H. Dobyens returned Monday from Okleson, where he preached the Baccalaureate sermon for the Okleson College.

Miss Annie McKown, an accomplished saleslady of the New York Store, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at Malta Bend.

Mrs. L. McCall and 10th daughter, Mabel, the guests of the Misses Dean on North St, for some days, left Tuesday for their home in Hannibal.

Mrs. G. W. Gentry who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Allhouse, left Saturday morning for her home in Columbus.

Saddles, whips, harness and bug robes and all goods kept in a first-class saddlery establishment, to be secured at most reasonable prices at Kreibitz.

Messrs. Williams, of Boonville, and Young Haven, of Texas, arrived Saturday for a visit to Charles Chapline, the bookkeeper at the Farmers' Savings Bank.

Mrs. J. P. Huston, who has made quite an extended visit with relatives in Kansas City, and in whose honor several receptions were given, returned home Monday.

We have now the cheapest money and on the most favorable terms ever offered in Saline Co. We pass on security and titles.

NEWTON & BRYANT.

Rev. E. F. Lyon formerly of Saline Co., but now of Norwood, La., graduated recently from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky., taking the degree of "Master in Theology."

Willbur Johnson, wife and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Moore will visit Mr. and Mrs. Abel Leonard this week at their pleasant home on North St.

A beautiful line of fabrics in the very latest patterns and newest shades. The handsomest thing on the market for a summer gown to be found at Wright's.

Mrs. W. L. Daves left Monday for Louisiana, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Lamott. Mr. Letherman, of Texas, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Daves, will also spend the week in Louisiana.

An informal dance at Misses' parlors on Friday evening complimentary to Miss Edith South of Sweet Springs. Miss Hickman, of K. C. and Miss Marmaduke, of St. Louis, was a pleasant feature of a gay week. Music by Hager and Humberger was much enjoyed.

Dr. E. S. Bailey, of Sweet Springs, Mo., was in this city the latter part of last week visiting his son Dr. C. L. Lankey and wife. The doctor is a genial gentleman and very dignified, bearing his age with the unobtrusive nature of a child. He says he is so old now, that he has come to the conclusion that there is much to learn in this world of art and science. He is one of the leading physicians of Sweet Springs and vicinity.

The interesting young editor of the Higginsville Leader, who accompanied the Board on their recent of 24 days trip to the contest town, has this to say of the Marshall reception: "From St. Louis to Marshall was but a few hours ride, and here they were met by as enthusiastic a body of people as it would be possible to find. Their entertainment was of the royal kind, and back of it they had to offer. I had heard a site for the fair that could not be surpassed in the state. Her people were thoroughly enthused and did everything in their power to impress the board with her splendid offer."