

CLEARANCE SALE,

HARD rain and dark weather cause men to delay the buying of Spring Suits. As an incentive to quicken and encourage prompt Purchases, and in order to clear our tables of the enormous stock of Spring and Summer Suits and Trousers they now contain; we have decided to offer for a Short Time only,

*Our Entire Stock of Spring and Summer Suits,
Coats and Vests and
Single Coats and Trousers,
For Men, Boys and Children.*

To Make 'Em Go

At Such greatly Reduced prices as to Make Them Go! They Must Go! We are determined to force them out. We also offer our entire line of Soft and Stiff Hats, Straw and Crash Goods, all the new and late shapes and styles included. Now the best way in the world to test the genuineness of this sale is to just call in and get prices. This sale won't last long, but we will make it interesting while it does last. Come right along.

Very Respectfully,

East Sid Square, Marshall, Mo.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas W. H. Keyton and Edna A. Keyton, his wife, by their certain deed of trust, dated the Twenty-sixth day of March, 1895 and recorded in Book 3 at Page 83, et seq. in the office of the Recorder of Deeds within and for Saline County, Missouri, conveyed to J. H. Owens in trust to secure the payment of their certain promissory note in said deed of trust described, the following described property, lying and being in the County of Saline, State of Missouri, to-wit:

All of lot No. Four, 4, in Block No. Fifteen 15, in the North Extension to the Town of Slater, as shown on the recorded plat thereof.

And Whereas, the said deed of trust provided that in case the said J. H. Owens should fail or refuse to act, or be disqualified from acting thereunder, The Phoenix Loan Association, of St. Joseph, Missouri, party of the third part mentioned in said deed of trust, should have the power and authority to appoint a substitute trustee in writing, who should be vested with all the powers that the said J. H. Owens as trustee was originally vested by virtue of said deed of trust and the law governing the same, and

Whereas, the said J. H. Owens, has refused in writing to act as trustee in said deed of trust, and Whereas, the said The Phoenix Loan Association, of St. Joseph, Missouri, has by its instrument in writing, bearing date the 7th day of June, 1899, duly appointed the undersigned to act as trustee under said deed of trust in lieu of the said J. H. Owens, and

Whereas, default has been made in the payment of the notes, mentioned in said deed of trust, and the interest and other charges therein provided for.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power in me vested by said deed of trust and the said instrument executed by the said The Phoenix Loan Association, of St. Joseph, Missouri, appointing me as trustee, and at the request of the legal holder of said note, I, the undersigned trustee, will on Saturday, the 8th day of July, 1899, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the front door of the Court house, where the circuit court is held, in the City of Marshall, Saline County, Missouri, and where sales of like character are usually made, sell said property to the highest bidder for cash, for the purpose of satisfying said note, interest and other amounts secured thereby, and the cost of executing this trust.

Dated June 7th, 1899.
