

Club Meeting.

The T. Q. Club had a delightful meeting on Thursday afternoon with Miss Pet Parrish, at her home on Capitol Hill. hours from 3 to 6. The object of this club of young ladies is to have pleasure and from the way they have started in, we think they will succeed.

Quite a musical program was rendered upon this afternoon. Misses Martha Rea, Fannie Kincaid, Emily Black and Frances Francisco, being the musicians.

A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess at four o'clock, consisting of chicken salad, ham, Roman punch, olives, celery and cheese straws.

This Club has just twelve members and our private opinion is, that it is the handsomest club in the city, not a plain looking girl in it. The following are the members: Miss Agnes Langan, President; Misses Emily and Ellen Black, Uela King, Estelle Dawes, Louise Bryant, Larce Campbell, Martha Rea, Pet Parrish, Frances Francisco, Fannie Kincaid and Bessie Orear.

T. Q. Club.

The T. Q. Club which has a membership of twelve, is composed of some of Marshall's most interesting young ladies and was organized at the home of Miss Agnes Langan on Tuesday afternoon.

This club had its first regular meeting with the Misses Black at their home on Highland, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 16th.

The object of the club is to have a good time and they certainly enjoyed themselves immensely upon this occasion.

The Misses Black make charming hostesses and certainly did everything to make the first meeting of the club a most pleasant one. A lovely luncheon of ham, hot biscuit, chicken salad, celery, olives and cake was served.

The next meeting of the T. Q. C's will be with Miss Pet Parrish on Capitol Hill.

Dining on North Street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Francisco entertained the Presbyterian ministers and others at an elegant dinner on Tuesday evening, at their home on North St.

The hostess is one of those thrifty housewives, who is not only thoroughly up to date in the culinary department, but in everything pertaining to the managing and keeping of a house; and a more genial and hospitable host and hostess could not have been found. The evening at their pleasant fireside, will long be remembered by this little company of friends, some of whom will soon leave Marshall to take up their abode in a strange city.

Those present were: Dr. McAlister of Columbia; Rev. W. R. Dobyms and wife, Dr. H. H. Wells, Dr. J. E. Harris and wife.

Spencer-Hickman

Miss Ollie Hickman, daughter of R. W. Hickman and Russell Spencer, both of Orearville, were quietly married on Sunday, afternoon, Nov. 19, 1899, at two o'clock at the Methodist parsonage on East Arrow St., Rev. Mr. Howell officiating. The bride is highly accomplished and very popular with all who know her. The groom is a substantial young farmer, both well and favorably known. The young couple will reside with the groom's father east of Orearville.

The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations.

A Reunion.

A pleasant time was had at the home of J. W. Sparks on Sunday, when a family reunion was held. Mrs. W. L. Hancock, the mother of Mrs. Sparks has been very ill for some two weeks or more, at the home of her daughter and on Sunday, the mother being so much better, there was occasion for rejoicing and the children came down and spent the day, which will no doubt be long remembered by the dear mother.

There were Misses Elizabeth and Leta, Larkin M., Will, Archie, David Hancock and David Jr. and Mrs. Daniels, a very dear relative, who makes her home with the family, and we must not leave little Leta Elizabeth Sparks out of the company, for she was there with her many cute ways.

Home Missions.

The open session of the Home Mission Society of the M. E. Church South, on Sunday evening, was largely attended and a most interesting programme was rendered. The meeting was opened with prayer and a reading of the Word, by Rev. J. W. Howell, the pastor. Mrs. J. P. Huston led the meeting; the address by Mrs. N. P. Norfleet on the "Work of Home Mission Societies" was listened to with more than usual interest.

Colonel Horace A. Huchison, of Booneville, who is Probate Judge of Cooper county, recited an original poem entitled "Found in the Street," that was highly appreciated.

Excellent music by the choir, and a reading, "Rescue the Perishing" by Mrs. Howell, finished the programme for an evening pleasantly and most profitably spent.

Teacher's Meeting.

The following is the program for the teacher's and directors meeting to be held in the Circuit Court room, Marshall, Mo., Dec. 9, '99, beginning at 1:30 o'clock p. m.

Entertained.

An elegant six o'clock dinner was given on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Smith, at their home on East Arrow St., when the following persons were entertained: Rev. W. R. Dobyms and wife, Dr. H. H. Wells, Dr. J. E. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Woodbridge, P. H. Franklin and wife, and Mrs. A. A. McGeachy.

A Bad Sprain.

On last Thursday morning Capt. H. C. Hall fell from the roof of Robert Rea's house, where he was doing some repairing, and sprained his wrist very badly and the gentleman remaining unconscious for some two hours, it was thought at first that he was seriously injured. We join with the gentleman in the wish that he may soon be out again.

Mrs. Pinkham's Medicine Made a New Woman of Mrs. Kuhn.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 6624]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I think it is my duty to write to you expressing my sincere gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried different doctors, also different kinds of medicine. I would feel better at times, then would be as bad as ever.

"For eight years I was a great sufferer. I had falling of the womb and was in such misery at my monthly periods I could not work but a little before I would have to lie down. Your medicine has made a new woman of me. I can now work all day and not get tired. I thank you for what you have done for me. I shall always praise your medicine to all suffering women."
—MRS. E. E. KUHN, GERMANO, OHIO.

"I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of your Sanative Wash, also some of the Liver Pills, and I can say that your remedies will do all that you claim for them. Before taking your remedies I was very bad with womb trouble, was nervous, had no ambition, could not sleep, and my food seemed to do me no good. Now I am well, and your medicine has cured me. I will gladly recommend your medicine to every one wherever I go."
—MRS. N. L. SHEARS, GUN MANSFIELD, MISS.
