THE MORMON EMIGRATION.

Arrival of Four Shiploads of the Faithful.

From the New York Evening Post.

The Mormon emigration movement from Europe to Utah is now in full progress, and within a month or more past four vessels ladened with the "Saints" have arrived at this port. They were all sailing vessels, as follows: The John Bright, from Liverpool, with seven hundred and fifty-three Mormons; the Caroline, from London, with three hundred and eighty-two on board; the American Congress, from London, with three hundred and fifty-four, and the Arkwright, from Liverpool, with four hundred and fifty-four—nearly two thousand in all.

The American Congress landed her passengers on Thursday at Castle Garden, and the Mormons on the Arkwright were taken ashore at 6 o'clock last evening, but embarked again, and at 11 o'clock last night they went on their way to Utah on the New Haven boat. They make the curious movement of going eastward to Connecticut and Vermont, and northward to Canada, for the purpose of travelling westward. The route is by the Grand Trunk and Michigan Central Railroads to St. Joseph, and thence by steamer to Wyoming, Nebraska, where wagons from Salt Lake City are in readiness to convey them across the plains to the promised land.

BRIGHAM YOUNG, JR.

The vessels in which these Mormons have come were chartered by Brigham Young, Jr., "licensed passage broker."—He is the son of Brigham Young, Sr., of Utah. This is the title the chief representative of Europe of the polygamists in this country has purchased and assumed for the purpose of sending hither, with facility, the converts as they are gathered. At the same time he holds the office of President of the European Mission of the Mormons, and as such wields the amplest powers among the faithful in every part of the world except America. His realms extends over both oceans.

Brigham Young, Jr., in his capacity as "licensed passage broker," has an office at 42 Islington, Liverpool, and 30 Florence street, Islington, London. These numbers are printed on the passage tickets he issues at "£1 12s" good for the trip to New York, or "£7 11s," for the journey from Europe to the plains. The tickets are in the usual form of such papers printed in England; there is a picture of the crown on one end, and many regulations are included.

Brigham's engagements with the believers has a peculiarly business like sound, as follows:

"I engage that the person named in the margin hereof shall be provided with a steerage passage to and shall be landed at the port of New York, in North America, in the ship American Congress, with not less than ten cubic feet of luggage for each statue adult, and shall be victualed during the voyage and the time of detention at any place before its termination, according to the subjoined scale, for the sum of £4 12s, including Government dues before the embarkation, and head money, if any, at the place of landing, and every other charge except for freight and excess of luggage beyond the quantity above specified, and I hereby acknowledge to have received the sum of £4 12s in full payment.

The supplies, etc., given by Brigham, are as follows for adults: Three quarts of water daily, besides that used for cooking; and provisions for a week are three and a half pounds of bread or biscuit, one pound of flour, one and a half of oatmeal, one and a half of rice, two of potatoes, one of beef, one of pork, one of peas, one of sugar, one half ounce of mustard, one quarter ounce of pepper, two ounces salt, and one gill of vinegar. The ticket has at the close: "Signature in full, Brigham Young, Jr.," and at the side of it "Brigham Young, Jr., passage broker." The name written by Young looks like the writing of a schoolboy, not at all like that of a business man. He is thirty years of age, stout and robust in appearance, and is assisted in the mission work by several persons.

THE EMIGRANTS.

The Mormon emigrants this year are like those of previous years—hard-working people of the lower classes. They come from various European countries, but principally from England, though there are a few Scotch, and more comparatively of the Welsh. Ireland is found a very unpromising and unprofitable field for the operations of the Mormon missionaries, the people there treating them with marked contempt, and in many cases not tolerating them at all.—Of Swedes, Swiss and Danes there are considerable numbers among the emigrants; a few persons from Australia joined them; and this season or next there will be a company from India and another from Africa. These will not, however, be of native Indians and Africans, but of persons of European descent.

We understand that a mad dog was killed near town yesterday, after biting several valuable animals. Public safety demands that stringent measures shall be taken immediately to diminish the number of worthless and dangerous curs with which our town is infested. The dog law cannot be enforced too soon.—Atchison Champion.

On the railway train from Xenia to Dayton, a few days ago, there was a newly-wedded pair, the bride-groom being as black as soot and the bride fair as a lily

GO IT.

This is the motto and platform of the Missouri Rads. "Go it while you are young"—is the maxim paternally inculcated in the minds of American youth.—"Go it till November"—is the order of the Rads.

And the rascals are going, in the liveliest style. They are scarcely two years old as a party, but they have all the matured vices of octogenarian roues. They squander $500,000 in two long sessions of the Legislature, and are now talking about a third. They plunder the gaunt treasury of the poor State with extra mileage; they adjourn for nineteen days to go home and spend the holidays, and then pass a resolution to draw their per diem for the internain. They create five hundred new offices, and raise the salaries of the old ones.

They expel eight hundred faithful and loyal incumbents from office, and tumble into the vacant places themselves. They throw out the vote of the people against the New Constitution, and make their Secretary of State falsely declare it adopted. They make the State of Missouri a grand royal park, for hunting preachers and Sisters of Charity. They fill the commonwealth with commissioned "secret agents" to collect "information."—They organize a standing army of white Radicals and black Radicals in the interior counties to "protect the purity of the ballot box"—the virtuous Fellows.—And they swindle the people out of $700,000 in one railroad operation.

All this is but the beginning. What climax of devilement the festive rascals will reach by November, we will not attempt to conjecture. If they keep on robbing and fleecing us at the present rate, there will be precious little left of us, by November.—Dispatch.

Niggerism.

A Washington Dispatch in the Democrat speaks of "the desertion of the President by all the Union members of his Cabinett." This refers to DENNISON, SPEED, HARLAN and STANTON, and implies that SEWARD, WELLES, McCULLOCH and the President himself are not Union men. In Radical parlance no man can be loyal unless he goes for keeping eleven States out of the Union, and is in favor of all the ramifications of niggerism, including suffrage and perfect equality, social as well as political, of the blacks with the whites.—S. Louis Republican.

THE CROPS.—From conversation with farmers from various parts of this county, we learn that the wheat harvest in some localities is nearly finished. It has done well, and is more than an average yield. Oats and grass look well. Corn is rather backward, and more rain would benefit crops of all descriptions.—Warsaw Times.

A negro has formally petitioned the Probate Court of Tallahatchie county, Alabama, to be allowed to sell himself into slavery. He says there are too many responsibilities surrounding him, and that he is dissatisfied with his present condition. The Probate court having no jurisdiction in the premises, has forwarded his petition to Thad Stevens

"THE KISS OF CHARITY."—At a meeting of Delegates from the Churches of Dunkards throughout the United States, it was decided that colored persons should be received into the Church, that all the brethren should be left to their own choice and taste as to saluting them with the holy kiss, and that those who withheld it should be regarded as weak.—Religious Herald.

At Atlanta, a few days ago, a white man went into a barber shop kept by a negro, and took his seat in the chair.—The negro approached, and seizing the customer, called him a d—d rebel scoundrel. Thereupon the white man drew a knife and cut the throat of his sable assailant. The negro's recovery is considered doubtful.

It is estimated that forty thousand soldiers are buried at Corinth, Miss. within a radius of 20 miles, A large proportion perished from sickness during General Hallecks term of command after the battle of Shiloh.

Two hundred and twenty wagons, and two hundred and sixty eight men passed Kearney in three days preceding the 3rd inst. One train was bound for Salt Lake, the balance for Denver.

"Darn the dog he's always after puppies," said the boy.

Judge Lovelace, of the Supreme Court died at his residence in Montgomery county on the 6th inst.

A northern radical paper says that a negro in Arkansas insists that an ass spoke to him. Somebody of the Freedmen's Bureau most likely.

The Ohio Farmer estimates the loss of sheep in Ohio by the cold storm of June 17th and 18th, at 100,000 head.

The contract for building the Iowa State Agricultural College building was awarded to Jacob Richards, of Marion, Iowa, for $73,767.

A Mr. Ryan, of Waterloo, Mich., lost sixty-five sheep by lightning during a recent storm.

Sixteen trains, bound West, with 190 ox wagons, passed Fort Kearney from the 14th and 18th of June inclusive.—This would give an aggregate of 5,988 head of stock within the week. The travel West to Colorado, Utah and other territories is immense.
