Mr. Henry Bockrath returned from Colorado this week. He says Missouri's climate suits him far better than that of Colorado.

The republican party of this state elected a state committee in 1888. Where is that committee now?—Boonville Republican.

Mr. Henry Wagner returned from a pleasant visit through Colorado a few days since. During his stay he visited his landed interest in Akron, a new town east of Denver.

Mr. A. J. Davis left at our office a few days since a box of his choice strawberries. The berries averaged three inches in circumference and were as delicious as they were large.

Mr. F. G. Schoenen, one of the pioneer merchants of Osage City, was in the city this week. He is preparing for an extensive forwarding and commission business this season.

Mr. H. M. Boroughs, the traveling representative of the Hall Safe & Lock Co., of Cincinnati, has spent this week in our city in the interest of his company. His house is one of the oldest and most reliable in this country.

A call ought to be issued for the republican state convention so that the county conventions which are being held can elect their delegates. The state committee ought to wake up.—Boonville Republican.

Missouri has a heavy burden in carrying the democratic congressmen who systematically slander her and work against her interests. She will unload some of them, however, in the coming election.—Globe-Democrat.

The president appointed George H. Wallace, formerly of Howard county, this state, as consul to Melbourne, Australia, last Tuesday.

Mr. Wallace has been president of the Missouri Wool Growers association for a number of years, and was the republican candidate for lieutenant governor two years ago.

Abiel Leonard, the farmer candidate for the democratic nomination for representative of Saline county, was laid in the shade at the democratic primaries at that county last Saturday. Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Leonard is a leading member of the F. & L. U. and well posted as to the needs of the farmers, withal an able man, yet the machine had no use for him. Such is democracy's attitude toward the farmers.—California Herald.

At a meeting of the school board Thursday of last week the same teachers were chosen for another term, with the exception of Miss Ida Duppe to take the place of Miss Dorton of the colored school. The following are the teachers and their salaries:

R. E. Oldham, superintendent, $150 per month; E. H. Kochitzky, principal of the high school, $75; Miss Mollie Chambliss, $40; Mary Bauer, $45; Annie Murray, $40; Jennie Pedigo, $40; Julia Eppes, $40; Hatte Bright, $40; Lizzie Tichenor, $40; Jennie Curry, $40; Lallah Murphy, $45; Mrs. H. M. Holmes, $55; Zue Gordon, $30; Edith Rhodes, $30, and Mary Kouns, $30. Colored schools, E. L. Anthony, principal, $50; Miss Duppe, $30; Miss Ramsey, $35.

We see that Uriel S. Hall is a delegate from Randolph county to the democratic state convention at St. Joseph. This is the same U. S. Hall that is writing such non-partisan, anti tariff articles in the Standard. How can a democratic free trader write non-partisan articles? His way is paid; he is simply an emissary of the Cobden club, working in the interest of democracy without regard to the welfare of his country. We are reliably informed that this U. S. Hall showed his loyalty to rebellion from 1860 to 1865, and still advocates this twin-sister of slavery of labor and secession, known as free trade.—Milan Republican.

The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this state at their meeting in St. Louis last week decided to enforce the rule excluding saloon keepers from membership in the order. If the enforcement of this rule means the expulsion of those saloon keepers who are already members of the order it is very unjust. Any organization has a right to say who may and who may not become members of it, but after men have been admitted, have complied with all its laws, have discharged all the duties imposed, and have done their part in supporting the organization, it has no right to expel them, even if it has the power to do so. It is not believed that the Sovereign Grand Lodge will sustain the Grand Lodge of this state in this action.—Boonville Republican.

W. C. T. U. Column.

Mrs. Ada M. Bittenbender, attorney for the National W. C. T. U., recently appeared before the supreme court of the United States and made the motion for the admission to practice as an attorney Miss Emma M. Gillett of Washington, D. C. This is the first time in history that one woman has moved the admission of another to the highest court of the land.

A recent meeting in New York City of the Alumnae association of Rutgers Female college was addressed by Dr. Jessie B. Woodside, who for three years has been at Putteburgh, India, working for the establishment of hospitals and dispensaries for Indian women. Dr. Woodside says that most women in India are entirely without medical assistance, since no high caste woman, however ill, can be treated by a male physician. Once a low-caste woman who had been bitten and badly lacerated by a mad jackal, walked sixteen miles, carrying her children to the Allahabad hospital. Upon her recovery, the fame of the women doctors spread abroad so that during the year they treated 3,300 patients and recorded 13,000 visits.

A man was recently arrested in Chicago for thrashing one of his fellow passengers in a street car because he would not cease smoking when requested to do so. The police justice before whom he was brought for trial discharged him without punishment, in commenting upon which a leading Chicago journal makes the following remarks, with which we quite agree: "It is therefore settled, so far as a police court decision can settle anything, that a man who persists in smoking on a car where there is a woman, may be thrashed by her escort, if he is strong enough and can expect no redress. This kind of law may shock the supreme court, but there is considerable horse sense in it. No man has a right to make a nuisance of himself in a public conveyance, and a company should not tolerate it."

Senator Blair says, in the "Temperance Movement": "There are used in making one gallon of beer 83.2 ounces of barley of which 70 ounces are lost in 'malting,' in 'mashing,' 'fermenting' and 'fining,' leaving 13.2 ounces of nutritious (?) substance. Consumed by the glass at 5 cents each this would cost 80 cents, or about two-thirds of a day's labor at 80 cents per bushel for barley the same amount of nutriment in the form of bread, allowing about 60 per cent. for waste and making would cost 2 cents. In other words if A drinks daily 4 quarts of lager beer he will, in about 12 months succeed in taking into his stomach in that form the nutriment contained in a five-pound loaf of bread."

Mr. John Englebrecht of Osage Bluff, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. S. W. Cox, through his agency, has made several real estate deals of importance during the past week.

The ice cream and strawberry festival, given by the ladies of the M. E. church in the courthouse park Monday evening was a success and enjoyed by a great many of our people.

The young ladies Christian association of the Evangelical church will give an ice cream and strawberry festival in the yard of the parsonage this evening for the benefit of the church. All are invited. The cause is a good one and the attendance should be generous.

If the dispatch sent out from Jefferson City is authoritative no other democrat than "Dick" Bland will be permitted to compete for the congressional nomination. Giving such a notice to other gentlemen who may aspire for the nomination that only Mr. Bland's name will be considered is rather a bold declaration, and means that the Brotherhood of Political Buccaneers intend to dictate to other gentlemen what they shall or shall not do. How does Nick Thurmond of Callaway like it?—Laclede Republican.

Example is stronger than precept, and so Kansas City's treasurer, Mr. Peake, has followed the illustrious example of his brother Noland (whose deficiency has not yet been made good) and others of the guild, and has become irregular to the tune of about $20,000. In the language of the democratic national platform, "a change is necessary," and the best change is to put in republicans, who do not do such things.—Webster Standard.

Judge Elston moved into his new residence yesterday.

The democracy of Elston met Saturday in Collets hall and elected delegates to the senatorial convention. Mr. J. E. Garman and Samuel White were chosen, and are sent un instructed.

It seems that all our great tariff reform democracy all voted against tariff reduction. They are opposed to having sugar on the free list, something that everybody uses, but they must be consistent and oppose everything that is of interest to farmers, laborers and disabled soldiers.

The following seems to be an understood law among the democracy in and around Elston:

1. No Simon pure democrat can belong to the G. A. R.

2. No Simon pure democrat has a right to act as deputy postmaster for his mother-in-law under a republican administration.

3. All democrats who join the F. & L. Union must vote for democrats who are in favor of George Vest for United States senator and R. P. Bland for congress, Hazel for state senate.

4. All Simon pure democrats will read and believe and do as the republic directs.

5. All democratic farmers and laborers must believe in free trade, and reform, and educate republicans to vote democratic.
