Republican State Ticket For Judge of the Supreme Court, ALEXANDER W. MULENS.

For Railroad Commissioner, JAMES K. MERRIFIELD.

For Superintendent of schools, FRANKLIN P. SEVER.

FOR CONGRESS--ELEVENTH DISTRICT.

JOHN L. ERWIN.

(Of Callaway.)

For State Senator, ANDREW B. COLE.

(Of Cooper County.)

The Schumate Chappel picnic was a great success.

PRESIDENT HARRISON has been received with ovations wherever he visited.

If you wanted a man to handle your $10,000 of cash would you select T. B. Mahan or W. W. Wagner.

T. B. MAHAN may be able to manage the office of sheriff, but has he the ability to keep the collectors books? The people of Cole county should take no chances on deputies.

In the selection of the man who is to handle Cole county's $10,000 of taxes, the tax-payer is to decide between Wm. W. Wagner and T. B. Mahan.

Wm. W. WAGNER's business experience qualifies him in every respect for the office of collector. He will give the office his personal attention. The name of Wagner, like the name of Dulle, is a guarantee that the $10,000 is in good and responsible hands.

The Volksfreund, in reviewing the merits of the candidates on both tickets, comments on the candidates for sheriff as follows: "We do not know Mr. Spurr. We know Mr. Fromme." Joe has been trying to figure out whether he has any friends in that office, and if so, to what extent.

Two years ago you could hear from all quarters such democratic talk as this: "If old Mack had not been sick all winter that capital bill would never have gone through." They repudiated him and nominated Silver. Now they are asking the republicans to reward the General for noble services rendered.

A few weeks ago a colored citizen of Cole county was murdered in Maries county. Not one move has been made to discover the criminal. It is usual for the governor to offer a reward, but not even that has been done. It reminds one of the recent court record in a Florida town when "Jim Burk, a negro, was given two years in the penitentiary for stealing a hog, and Col. Stringfellow fined $200 for killing a nigger."

The champions of European monopolies insist that a tariff duty is a tax. Now, spool cotton formerly sold for 10 cents a spool, with tariff duty of 25 per cent, it retails now for 5 cents a spool; it cannot be claimed that it is caused by improved machinery, for the same kind is in use now that was used 25 years ago; but the tariff duty has compelled the Coats to establish factories in the United States to meet competition and employ American labor.

Mr. Taylor Goodall is the democratic candidate for constable of Jefferson City. He is a farmer and a good, honest man.--Tribune.

Ha! ha! The democrats have discovered a farmer on their ticket. The joy on this discovery must have been very great. A farmer to get the big office of constable--but listen to my tale of woe. He has got to overcome a big republican vote. What generosity toward the farmers.

The people are being asked to elect Mr. Mahan to the important office of collector because he needs the office. If that is the only qualification a man requires when he asks to handle $10,000 of the tax-payers hard earned money, we know lots of men who would like to have it and need it just as badly. The republican party did not nominate Bill Wagner because he needed it. He was nominated because he was responsible and competent, and worthy.

The democrats are asking republicans to vote for Gen. McIntyre because he did his duty in the legislature four years ago. Two years ago when Mr. Silver was a candidate against Gen. McIntyre for the nomination the friends of the General asked for the nomination at the hands of the democrats as an endorsement, and the opposition insisted that the capitol improvement bill went through in spite of the General and not through his efforts. They defeated him and nominated Mr. Silver. Now they come and ask the republicans to vote against their own candidate in favor of their candidate, upon grounds that they themselves repudiated two years ago. That is democratic consistency, democratic honesty.

We believe in treating our fellow citizens with equal and exact justice. In our advocacy of the extension of the limits of our city we did so in the belief that it would be right and just to all to do so. We have no reason to change that opinion. The present limits of the city have been the same for 10 years, since which time the increase in the population of the city certainly justifies the extension of the limits. The people living within the present corporate limits of the city having born the burden of taxation for 40 years, and those living just beyond have shared the benefits in equal proportion with them. They have waited 40 years, and still those on the outside say they have not waited long enough. The gentlemen who are brought into the city under the extension should be fair and reasonable. They all do business in the city and should not object to paying their pro rata share of the expense of operating the municipal government. They insist that the increase of taxation will be very small, while the expense of keeping the streets, etc., in repair will exceed the income. This is a strange argument for the men who are kicking to make, and all we have to say on that point is, if the insiders are willing to risk that the outsider should not object.

The Vindicator, Cameron, Mo., is tired of feeding bull-frogs and tree-toads to quirk up at Washington, and proposes that a change be made: If the people of Missouri delight to revel in the gloom of retrogression or sit in the shadows of disappointment no happier course can be found than that which retains Geo. G. Vest in the United States senate. He is the embodiment of every principle that antagonizes enterprise and advancement. Like a great alligator lying in a pool he snaps at every passer-by along the road to progress. With the ideas that dominated the confederacy a quarter of a century ago, he is thoroughly imbued. Never does he let an opportunity pass to show his antipathy for the stars and stripes. Only by virtue of the fact that some heeler always raises the yell thereby setting in motion a chorus of demagogical lows at the democratic state conventions does he receive an endorsement. Immediately with his defeat and those of his satellites the price of real estate would advance at least ten per cent. all over the state. And the excuse cannot be urged that there are no available men of ability within the party. Either Francis or Dockery would be as great an improvement over him as noon is of midnight. Let it be repeated Missouri must and will not only pull down her Vest but take it off and throw it aside.

Reduced Rates to New York. Attention is called to the fact that rates to New York City via St. Louis and the Ohio & Mississippi railway are two dollars less than via other routes running through cars, while at the same time the high character and efficiency of our train service is fully maintained.

We are therefore able to offer lower rates, combined with a first-class through car service from St. Louis to New York via Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia; a combination of advantages possessed by no other line. These reductions apply on both first and second class tickets sold at all western points via this line and its principal connections to New York, and holders are entitled to all the privileges usually accorded on tickets of the class purchased; there being no extra charge whatever for passage on limited express trains except for Pullman car accommodations. Daily lines of Pullman Vestibule Sleepers are run by this company from St. Louis to Cincinnati, Louisville, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York without change. Solid vestibule day express with Pullman Buffet Parlor cars to Cincinnati and Louisville. No change of cars on any train for either passengers or baggage. When purchasing ask for tickets via the Ohio & Mississippi railway, for sale by agents of connecting lines throughout the entire west, northwest and southwest. For further information inquire of agents as above, or address A. J. LITTLE, General Western Passenger Agent, 105 N. Broadway, St. Louis, Mo. J. F. BARNARD, W. B. SHATTUCK, Pres't & Gen. Mgr. Gen. P. A.

The Passenger Department of the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis R. R. Co., has secured the original plates of the New York Herald of April 13, 1865, and has reproduced that number of the Herald for circulation. The paper gives telegraphic information of the assassination of Lincoln and all details in connection therewith, evacuation of Richmond, Jeff Davis' proclamation, Surrender of Lee's Army, Sherman's address to his army, extracts from southern papers, etc. The paper is of absorbing interest and historic value. A copy will be mailed to any address upon receipt of six cents in postage stamps. Address J. E. LOCKWOOD, KANSAS CITY, MO.

Notice! Know all Men by these Presents: That, Whereas the County court of the county of Cole and State of Missouri, did, at its August term, 1889, and on the 4th day of October, 1889, in pursuance of the petition of one hundred and ninety-two citizens of Cole county, Missouri, for that purpose, order, that at the next general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1890, in this state, there shall be submitted to the legal voters of Cole county, Missouri, the question of enforcing against cattle one year of age and under, sheep and hogs, the provisions of an act of the general assembly of the State of Missouri, entitled, "An Act to restrain domestic animals from running at large." Approved March 27, 1883, and contained in the R. S. of 1889.

Now, Therefore, take notice that in pursuance of said petition of said householders, and in pursuance of said order of said court, that, at the next general election, to be held as above stated, there will be submitted to the legal voters of Cole county, Missouri, the question of enforcing in said county against cattle one year of age and under, sheep and hogs, the provisions of said act above described.
