T. H. Harrod, of Camden, N. J., gave a dinner to Walt Whitman recently. "I publish my own books," says the venerable poet, "and have done so ever since my first little volume, entitled 'Leaves of Grass,' was returned to me unnoticed by every leading newspaper in the country save one. Things have changed since then, and scarcely a day passes in which I do not receive a request with satisfactory honorarium to write for some leading newspaper or magazine. But I have to go slow, and only work on the days when the spirit moves me; for you know I am half a Quaker, and go a little on the light within."

WHAT CURES?

Editorial Differences of Opinion on an Important Subject.
What is the force that causes disease, and which is the most convenient apparatus for applying it? How far is the regular physician useful to us because we believe in him, and how far are his pills and powders and tonics the matter of representation of his personal influence on our health?

The regular doctors cure; the homeopathic doctors cure; the Hahnemannian cure; and so do the faith cures and the mind cures, and the spiritualists, and the four-dollar and a-half advertising itinerants, and the patent medicine men. They all hit, and they all miss, and the great difference—one great difference—in the result is that while the regular doctors lose patient no one grieves, and when the irregular doctors lose one the community stands on end and howls—Rochester Union and Advertiser.

Love is a reality which is born in the fairy region of romance—Talleyrand.
Weak Men and Weak Women.
Men and women both suffer from weakness in a large measure. Men, however, suffer more than women. Men don't have those boring pains, the base of a weak woman's existence. Both, however, have those dizzy spells, those tremors, those loss of appetite, their lack of energy, that feeling of weariness and constant fatigue.

The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which the ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, and in all seasons, is the object of the following advertisement. It is a pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effective in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

A Poverty-stricken Millionaire!
This seems a paradox, but it is explained by one of New York's richest men. "I don't count my wealth in dollars," he said. "What are all my possessions to me, since I am a victim of consumption? My doctor tells me that I have but a few months to live, for the disease is incurable. I am poorer than that beggar yonder."

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.
EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST.
"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the first principles of well-cooked Cocoa, Mr. Epps has prepared this delicious, health-giving, and stomachic food, which will do more to break down the system of indigestion than any other food."

Prickly Ash Bitters!
A name every one can remember, and to the present day nothing has been discovered that is so beneficial for the BLOOD, for the LIVER, for the KIDNEYS and for the STOMACH. This remedy is now so well and favorably known by all who have used it that arguments as to its merits are useless, and if others who require a corrective to the system would give it a trial the health of this country would be vastly improved. Remember the name—PRICKLY ASH BITTERS. Ask your druggist for it.

Consequently He Thinks Good of Him—Uphill—"I am afraid Crosswalk has been speaking ill of me," Uphill says, "I think you are wrong, Uphill. Why, Crosswalk doesn't know you at all."—Yankee Blade.

"The Holy Carpet," which is now being brought back to Cairo, where it will be submitted to the indignity of quarantine for fifteen days, is one of those which are periodically taken to Mecca, there to be sanctified, and is made of a thick sort of silk, embroidered with letters of gold, each letter being two feet in length and two inches broad. It covers what is known as the "Haram" or inner sanctuary of the temple.
