

BEATEN UP BY A THUG

TOOL OF THE GANG ASSAULTS WALLACE MILLER IN JAIL. BILL ADLER'S LATEST CRIME.

A HELPLESS PRISONER AT THE MERCY OF A DRUNKEN BRUTE. Hating Miller bitterly for his confession, the desperado North End Election Thieves Sent Tools Into Jail to Do Him Up.

Wallace G. Miller was subjected to a cruel and unprovoked assault at the bar of Bill Adler in the corridor of the bar...

Adler, who has just finished a ten months' sentence in the county jail, imposed upon him by Judge Wofford for the killing of McClure, called at the jail yesterday, as he has been doing every day since his release, and was admitted under the pretense of visiting with the other prisoners in the corridor.

After talking to their friends some little time, Adler and Moran passed from the third to the second floor, where Miller, who is a small man and entirely unobtrusive in his nature, was reading a book. It is his custom to read a book to pass the time on the second floor and read while he waits for the supreme court to pass on his sentence of two years in the penitentiary.

Then Adler, whose brute nature seemed to swell with him, turned to Miller and began to speak to him in a vulgar and abusive manner.

Miller's face is swollen from the force of Adler's blows, but he is not in any danger from the assault, as he is surrounded by a number of men.

GENERAL EWING DEAD

KANSAS FIRST CHIEF JUSTICE A NEW YORK CABLE CAR VICTIM. HIS PART IN KANSAS HISTORY.

CAME WEST IN 1830 AND WAS PROMINENT IN THE FREE SOIL STRUGGLE. Member of the Leavenworth Conventions and for Two Years Chief Justice—Led the Eleventh Kansas Regiment to the War—His "Order No. 11."

New York, Jan. 21.—General Thomas M. Ewing, Jr., ex-member of congress from Ohio, and the first chief justice of Kansas, is dead.

General Ewing's death was the result of injuries received accidentally yesterday. He had left his home intending to go downtown by the elevated road, as he recalled Third avenue, a cable car passed and he stepped across the tracks, not thinking that one from the opposite direction was right upon him. The corner of the car struck him and threw him back, everting him.

General Ewing, who was a member of the law firm of Ewing, Whitman & Ewing, of this city, was born in Lancaster, O., in 1824.

He was admitted to the bar in Cincinnati in 1846 and went to Kansas during the free soil struggle.
