Boys' and Children's Suits and Overcoats have been reduced in same proportion. These Garments are all of the celebrated "Sterling" make, which has stood the Test for thirty years and for which we are the Sole Distributor for this county.

ONE WAY.—Oysters are taken from the shell, held for an instant under running water, packed closely in a clean, white enameled case, sealed, imbedded in ice in a sealshipt oyster carrier and sent directly to the dealer. They are not opened till they reach the market. The result is firm, fresh, grey oysters—the justly-famed.

Laid To Rest.

The last rites were performed over the remains of Samuel Tilden Howe and Adam Walk, Sr. Sunday. At 11 o'clock, the body of Samuel Howe was laid to rest in Machpelah cemetery. The funeral services, conducted by Dr. E. C. Gordon, were held from the Presbyterian church. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. C. L. Glasscock, G. C. Marquis, Thomas A. Walker, S. N. Wilson, J. G. Crenshaw and James Kinkead. The Masons had charge of the interment.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the funeral of Adam Walk Sr., was held at the Baptist church. After the services in the church by Rev. Mansfield, the remains were conveyed to their last resting place. The six sons of the dead man acted as pall-bearers. The services at the grave were in charge of the Masons and Odd Fellows, the members of which lodges accompanied the funeral procession in a body.

The popularity of both men was evidenced by the abundance of flowers and the great number of friends who gathered to pay their last respects to the memory of the deceased Dr. Gordon and Rev. Mansfield in their sermons both paid touching tributes to the character and lives of the men.

The Meanest Man in Town

Is the one who always wears a frown is cross and disagreeable, and is short and sharp in his answers. Nine cases out of ten it's not the poor fellow's fault, it's his liver and digestion that make him feel so miserable, he can't help being disagreeable. Are you in danger of getting into that condition? Then start at once taking Ballard's Herbinae for your liver—the safe, sure and reliable vegetable regulator.—Sold by Crenshaw & Young.

Circuit Court.

The case of John Kueck vs. Mary Kueck et al Friday occupied most of the time of the court. W. H. Childs was appointed guardian ad litem for Bernard Kueck. The evidence was heard and the court gave judgement mostly in favor of the plaintiff, but partially a compromise. The matter in question was the opening of a new road.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Robert L. Huffman vs. S. J. Huston was overruled and the defendant excepted.

Mrs. D. V. Kennedy and Mrs. J. G. Rogers returned to their home in Kansas City Saturday morning after a visit with relatives in this city.
