

Cohesion, Cohesive. Lets us try to build; lets us be more united; lets us do something as a people that will reflect credit upon us.

F. L. Lewis, an attache of the P. O., is the popular president of the Y. P. B. U. of the Pleasant Green Baptist Church.

Oscar Lewis was buried under the auspices of K. P.'s last Sunday from the Pilgrim Baptist church, Rev. Hurst officiating.

Ebernezer chapel, under the leadership of Elder Hawkins, is moving along. The services are well attended by a pleasing audience.

The B. Y. P. U. meets every Sunday evening at 8:30 at the Pleasant Green Baptist church—F. L. Lewis, president, Rev. Wilson, pastor.

Rev. J. C. Caldwell paid our office a pleasant call. He has been carrying on a revival at his church in Independence. e represents eighty converts.

Rev. Hancock called to see us this week. He says he voluntarily resigned from the pastorate of the Christian church.

A few lawyers who run down the unfortunate criminal class through their agents, the court loungers, are to be pitied rather than condemned.

Rev. Father T. G. Harper visited the Ministers' Alliance last week. He is renewing old acquaintance and making many new friends.

Bishop Shaffer of the Fifth Episcopal district, has called a presiding elders' council to meet at Ebernezer chapel, Kansas City, Mo., February 10.

Jesse Williams, the blacksmith, deserves the patronage of our people. He is a good workman and in sympathy with the march of progress.

Tim Roberts, esq., of Kansas City, Kas., an employee of the Kansas legislature, was in our city last Sunday. He was all smiles because he landed.

Rev. Moseby has a very nice little congregation, located at Fifth and Harrison. The Rev. Moseby is an earnest worker and is doing a good work.

Paul Lawrence Dunbar has been giving a series of readings for the past week or ten days under the management of the amiable Dr. Dibble.

FOR RENT.—3 nice unfurnished rooms, hot and cold water, bath, modern except heat.—Mrs. Patton, 1411 Brooklyn Ave.

The third Sunday in this month, February 15th, will be pastors' day at Pleasant Green Baptist church. Rev. Wilson is an earnest worker, a logical speaker, and a splendid organizer.

Capt. L. H. Jordan left for Jefferson City last Monday night. The captain's acquaintance and good fellowship will go along ways with the leaders and politicians. No Jim Crow cars for Missouri.

Our people are anxious for the Son. We hope to merit the confidence and consideration of the people because we expect them to pay for it. The Rising Son is $1.50 per year.

The Colored press of Kansas City, Mo., will give a high class entertainment at Stropes hall February 12 in honor of Lincoln's birthday. See the hand bills for programme.

The Gospel Missionary Band will give a gospel entertainment at Bethel Baptist church Saturday evening, February 7.

This band was organized recently with 75 members by Rev. Geo. P. Moisey. The work is doing nicely.

To all presiding queens of the S. & D. of J: You are requested to see that your shares to the auxiliary are settled at once that we may be able to square our books before the meeting of the grand session.

C. H. LEWIS, Sec.
T. B. J. ROBINSON, Bus. Agt.

Rev. Mosby is engaged in a series of meetings at Bethel church, Fifth and Harrison. They are having a great deal of success and have added quite a number to the church.

Prof. A. O. Coffin, Maj. Warner, Col. George T. Wassom and Miss Anna M. Jones and a chorus of the Lincoln school students, conducted by Miss Cora Yancy will be among the features of the Lincoln Day celebration given by the colored press February 12, at Stropes hall.

The revival meeting at Bethel Baptist church, Fifth and Charlotte, Sunday February 8 at 2 p. m. Rev. Geo. Mosley will preach on the subject of Baptism. Twenty-eight added to the church. Rev. Mosby has done a great work in the ten months he has been there. He has added sixty-eight members to the church.

Promise will not pay our bills. We expect our delinquents to pay up at once, either to the collector when he calls or at this office, because after the 1st of the month we shall put all outstanding bills in the hands of a collection agency.

We would like all our out of town subscribers to remit to this office at once to enable us to clear our books of all delinquents.

Mr. J. Beuchem, who has been an attache of the Hotel Savoy for the past five years, is still at the old stand. Mrs. Minnie Beuchem, his wife, who has been sick for quite awhile, is able to be out again to meet her many friends. They desire to express their appreciation to their many friends for courtesies extended during the sad affliction in the loss of their mother.

The young Republicans have a nice program to be rendered on Lincoln's birthday at the Midland, and the colored people will have an elaborate entertainment at Stropes hall, February 12th, under the auspices of the colored press.

At the Forum at Allen chapel last Sunday the following committee was appointed to go to Jefferson City to appear before the railroad committee to protest against a separate car law: Prof. G. T. Wassom, Dr. O. J. Scott, Silas Arris, N. C. Crews, Duncan Oath, P. J. Campbell, Lewis Woods of the Rising Son, and Rev. Caldwell of Indiana, Mo.

The Lincoln birthday celebration at Stropes hall, February 12, promises to be a grand affair. The Roosevelt Colored Rough Riders will attend in a body. The committee, under the management of Mr. Lewis Woods of the Rising Son, will spare no pains to make this event a glittering success.

On last Tuesday morning about 3:40 Mr. Willis Franklin's lunch wagon was discovered to be on fire by an employee of the Kansas City Journal, who turned in the alarm and was the means of saving the lives of the two girls who was asleep in the lunch car at the time. Mr. Franklin had a very nice trade established at Independence and Cottage Lane. He loses all without any insurance. The gasoline stove was the cause.

CARD OF THANKS.
We extend to all our friends and neighbors our gratitude and heartfelt thanks for their assistance and kindness in our bereavement of our mother, Sister and Sister-in-law.
MR. and MRS. C. H. BIRCH.
JESSIE YOUNG.

OUR BOYS.
The Kansas City Juvenile Band gave a supper at 593 Troost avenue last Saturday night. They reported a nice time. The boys will be prepared to take engagements very soon.
Henry Payne is instructor and president; Harold Sneed, vice president; Lacy Lewis, secretary; Brisco Davis, treasurer.

H. R. Edwards, who for many years has been in the employ of the Homeopathic Drug Co., at 14 W. 12th street, as Ph. D. has resigned. His stay has been agreeable both to employer and employee. His service has been highly appreciated. Mr. Edwards resigns of his own accord. This is to his credit, as he has made many friends and has the confidence of his employers and associates.

The Oxford club held its regular election of officers last Wednesday. Full particulars in our next issue.

Our collector will be around. Please be prepared to meet him with the money. All delinquents are expected to settle by February 1st, after which all outstanding bills will be placed in charge of a collection agency for immediate settlement.
