

Foxes and Their Burrows.
For the statement that foxes have holes there is not only the authority of natural history but of Gospel. The typical habitation of the fox is a hole in the ground. "Running to earth" and "digging out" are well known incidents of the English sport. The fox is a wise beast in all things, wise enough to rent the burrow of any animal; but in default of such abodes he is quite capable of dining for himself, and that with remarkable speed.

Good Proof of Guilt.
When William M. Everts was a young man he defended in court a man named Edwards who was charged with forgery. The trial was an interesting one, and Mr. Everts by brilliant work secured his client's acquittal. He had a strong belief that the man was innocent until the trial was all over. Then he changed his opinion. Edwards paid Mr. Everts his fee with a forged check.

English Tavern Signs.
A tavern sign seen in various parts of England is "The Dog's Head in a Pot," accompanying the painting of a dog eating out of a three-legged pot, which may seem to mean that the host is kind and his vands good. Another significant sign is "Five Miles from Anywhere, No Hurry," seen in Hampshire, a pleasant reminder that it is an agreeable place to linger.

Nourishment in Skim Milk.
In skimming milk the cream removed lessens the fat percentage, and for older people or fat children the skim milk is equally desirable, in some cases better. In eating apples the skin, too, should be eaten. Pared apples are not so nutritious, as the ash contents of the apple skin are valuable to the human system.

Peculiar Order to Trainmen.
The following notice was observed posted in the engine dispatcher's office at the roundhouse in a neighboring town on one of the railroad lines running out of Albany: "Trainmen on passenger trains must not go through the coaches with overalls on, without first taking them off."—Albany Journal.

Victims of Official Pleasure.
The viceroys of the Two Kwang provinces, China, recently put out a proclamation that no pawnshop was to take arms in pawn. Being later himself in need of funds, he sent his own agents with arms to pledge. Five shops accepted them; and these afterward paid fines in the amount of $7,250 each.

Needless Pother.
It is a reflection on our intelligence that we spend so much time on our food, and so much more time in talking about it. We must eat, of course, but what a needless pother there is about the dishes, and the cookery, and the garnish!—Illustrated London News.

Poets and Irresponsibility.
Poets are wayward creatures, largely irresponsible for their actions, or, at all events, provided with such a curiously sensitive and inflammable organization that we feel it would be unjust to judge them by ordinary standards.—London Telegraph.

Frailty Common to Mankind.
All men have their frailties, and whoever looks for a friend without imperfection will never find what he seeks. We love ourselves notwithstanding our faults and we ought to love our friends in like manner.—Cyrus.

Norway Loans to Farmers.
Farmers can borrow money from the government in Norway at 3 per cent interest, and still the Norse rush to other lands. The reason is that the collateral on which to borrow is rather difficult to get in Norway.

Cigarette Case Saves Life.
Returning to his house at Argenteuil, in France, Mr. Hugh Gooding was shot at by a discharged employe, the bullet flattening itself against a silver cigarette case, which he carried just over his heart.

The Only Religious Test.
No religious test has been devised, short of burning a man at the stake—the ultimate and only satisfactory test—which will operate as a trustworthy criterion of sincere belief.—Mr. Asquith.

Don't Forget That—
Self-pity is one of the states that interferes most effectually with making the right use of circumstances. To pity one's self is destruction to all possible freedom.—Exchange.
You can always see good bargains when you are broke.

Wanted His Money's Worth.
A southern congressman tells a story of an old negro in Alabama who, in his bargaining, is always afraid that he may get "the worst of it." On one occasion, it appears, this aged darkey went after a calf that he had pastured all summer, and asked what he owned for the pasturing: "I have a bill of $10 against you," said the farmer who had undertaken the care of the animal, "but, if you are willing, I'll take the calf and call it settled."
"No sah!" promptly exclaimed the negro, "I'll do nothing like dat. But," he added, after a pause, "I'll tell you what I will do—you keep the calf two weeks longer and you can have it."—Harper's Weekly.

CURL-I-CURE
A CURE FOR CURLS
You owe it to yourself, as well as to others who are interested in you, to make yourself as attractive as possible. Attractiveness will contribute much to your success—both socially and commercially. Positively nothing detracts so much from your appearance as short, matted unattractive curly hair.
TAKEN FROM LIFE AFTER TWO WEEKS' USE OF CURL-I-CURE
When you meet a person your first impression is governed largely by his or her appearance.
The same applies to you.
Nothing adds to or detracts from a lady's or gentleman's appearance so much as the hair. Nothing indicates their character, their gentility, good breeding, their taste, so much as the hair.
We all know how much care is taken of the hair by all the leading society ladies in all the large cities.
We know how much pride a successful man takes in his personal appearance.
If you have no individuality you enjoy no advantages. There is one way and only one way in which you can overcome this great handicap and make your hair as beautiful, rich and attractive as the finest head of hair you have ever wished for.
Curl-I-Cure, a cure for curls, will do it.
It is different from anything you have ever heard of or seen. It is new to you but old in itself.
Curl-I-Cure is not another name for one of the greatest and most wonderful preparations which has ever been discovered. It has been used by the leading doctors all over the world, every nation for many years as a private formula for hair and scalp defects and always brings perfect results.
Remember, the more you brush the hair with a stiff hair brush, the sooner you will obtain the desired results.
This is the only preparation that will ABSOLUTELY STRAIGHTEN hair.
DIRECTIONS FOR USE: Wash the hair with soap and water and let it become dry and brittle. Then apply Curl-I-Cure twice a day for a week or ten days, rubbing it into the hair and scalp. Then brush the hair for five or ten minutes with ordinary hair brush. The more you brush the hair the earlier the desired result. After the hair is straightened apply twice a week to keep in perfect condition.
Caution: Rubbing always downwards and straight hair is absolutely straight.
Curl-I-Cure is an ideal, safe preparation and makes kinky, curly hair straight. We guarantee it absolutely.
It is a scalp tonic, cleans and softens the many fibers of the hair, making them soft, silky, pliable and easily managed. Positively prevents the hair from becoming dry, harsh, brittle and keeps it from breaking off.
No matter what you have tried, no matter what you want, you are doing yourself an injustice if you do not try Curl-I-Cure.
We guarantee it positively to do the work better, quicker and with less effort than any other preparation of the kind in the world. Regular retail price, 50 cents per jar.
Curl-I-Cure is manufactured only by the Lincoln Chemical Works, Aurora, Illinois. Our reputation is a guarantee that our preparation is absolutely pure and harmless and will straighten the hair without the use of hot irons or hair pliers and will not cause it to break off and become dry and brittle. Price, 50 cents. We pay all express charges. Send post office or express money order, as we do not ship goods C. O. D. Write name and address plainly to:
