PLUMBAGO SHOTS.

The News rejoices over the completion of an opera house in Hardin.

Mr. "Paws" circus exhibits at St. Joe Aug. 1st.

Don't miss the "Nervous Man" at the Grand Opera House to night.

An excellent stock crossing has been put in at the West crossing of Franklin and College streets.

The Lexington street cars are now running, and the construction of the waterworks goes on steadily.

The trade in antiquities is getting to be lively, but we never hear of any demand for old subscription bills.

Stonewall Jackson, a negro who escaped from the Lexington chain gang, was arrested here Monday and returned to Lexington.

Somebody is going to get into trouble if this business of prowling around pastures and orchards is not discontinued.

John C. J. Hughes has purchased the store room and lot adjoining W. H. Hughes' grocery store, and it is said will erect a nice building.

Eleven wagons passed through town Saturday on the way to Hogard, where the men and teams will engage in railroad work.

"The Nervous Man." At the Grand Opera House to-night. See that your buttons are tight. The play is a rivet.

The rock pile being explored by geological students may bring the county in debt in the long run, but it is a terror to evil doers and should be maintained.

Elit got there. He was a Georgia negro, and in a dispute over fifteen cents he was arrested last week by Governor Crittenden.

The prominent drug goods house of Wear, Boggess & Co., St. Louis, made an assignment Wednesday. Nathan Cole was appointed assignee.

The failure is said to be due to the want of accommodation from the banks. The impression is that the firm will be able to resume business in a short time.

Your attention is called to the advertisement headed "World's Fair at New Orleans," and if you wish to attend this grand fair you cannot travel by a more comfortable and interesting route than by the "Memphis Short Route."

Fifteen years ago they were torturing pianos and crying about "Father, Dear Father, Come Home." Now the new song is "Papa's Home Tonight." It took the old man a long time to get back to his domicile. Must have been painting the world a blood red.

Owing to the president having entered for a forty days' course in the county geological school, the Waterbury Club will be convened at the proper time by the vice-president, at which time a new presiding officer will be chosen and a stirring resolution of condolence will be passed and handed on a melon rind over the northern fence of the public square.

The Farmington Times says its baby premium is attracting considerable attention. If we can borrow that beautiful little angel belonging to Mrs. Stop, there are 100 young mothers ready to lift our hair. For four dollars we'll fill out the blank if we never part our hair again.

Circuit Clerk John R. Green and wife are furnishing their new residence on College street, and before long will be keeping house like old folks. The residence is very handsome and commodious, and the more we see of it the more we envy our friends their cozy home.

A tornado struck Richmond, N. Y., last week, and cut a good many capers, but when we are prepared to give credit to what the reporter says that a codfish was carried half a mile and left in a tree top, we beg leave to discredit the statement. A cyclone is a awful strong, but codfish we draw the line.

As our readers are already aware a very charming young lady, daughter of Mrs. Hays, who is a candidate for Constable of Richmond Township, subject to action of Democratic primary.

We are authorized to announce Wm. B. Hedges for Associate Justice of the County Court from the eastern district, subject to action of Democratic primary.

PERSONALS.

J. S. Campbell, of Henry, called Wednesday to subscribe for the DEMOCRAT.

Geo. Rathbun, of Lexington, took in the circus Monday.

Miss Ada Trolow will teach the Vih-band school the coming season.

A. D. Brashear, Jr., of Orrick, called Tuesday to renew his subscription.

Wade Boggess, of Millville, renewed his subscription Monday.

A. N. Moffett, of Millville, called Monday to renew.

Jno. A. Misener, of Libonville, called Monday to subscribe for the DEMOCRAT.

Johnnie Morton made a flying trip Jefferson City Friday night on business.

Mrs. Sarah Parker, of Knoxville, secured the ducts to renew her subscription.

Ed. Lee, of Lawson, was in the city Saturday. Also Tobe Seacore, of same place.

Albert Geyer, of Lexington, one of the greatest tumblers in America, was over Monday to see the manager.

Geo. Alspaugh, of Georgetown, renewed his father's subscription Monday.

Prof. Boyer left Wednesday for a visit of two or three weeks to his father in Kansas.

Four charming young ladies, the Misses Guitler, of Carrollton, are the guests of Miss Annie Stowell, this week.

Col. Child left this morning to attend the grand rally at Moberly. From there he will go to Warrenton and perhaps one or two other points.

Mr. J. A. Doyle, formerly R. R. agent at this place, but now of St. Joe, was down circulating among his old friends and acquaintances, this week.

Misses Ella Hays, of Martinsburg, Mo., and Lucile Crump, Independence, Mo., were guests of Mrs. M. J. Scholl, this week.

Samuel G. Brown, writes from Selma, Cal., that the whet crop now being threshed is turning out fine. Sorry we can't comply with Mr. Brown's request, but there is not a copy left of the issue of June 26th.

Col. Ethan Allen, of the Lexington Intelligencer, was in town Monday, and while we were out interviewing the measure of the show, the Colonel came over to see the animals and have some fun with the boys.

John A. Petty, of Cooper, Tex., called Friday to renew his subscription. He brought cattle to St. Louis and concluded to come up and spend a few weeks with his parents in this county. He reports good crops in Texas, and cattle in excellent condition.

The Messrs. Smith and Rev. W. H. Kelly, called on us Thursday just before leaving for their homes. They expressed themselves highly pleased with the reception they had met with in Richmond. Speaking of the business that brought them here, they said that they found no material discrepancies between the printed editions of the Book of Mormon and the Whitmer manuscript.

Jack Patton, foreman of the Carrollton depot, was in town Sunday. The boys say Jack followed the circus here and wanted Dorris to give him a position to ride in the procession beside the young lady who rides in the ring in abbreviated skirts. Dorris offered him the position of handling the snakes, but Jack said he had "seen snakes" before and wouldn't take any snakes in his. Much to his regret he couldn't stay over Monday, and before leaving for home he left a dollar for us to bind us to silence. And we are thus silent.

We especially invite a trial by all those sufferers from Kidney and Liver complaints who have failed to obtain relief from other remedies and from doctors. Nature's great remedy, Kidney-Wort, has effected cures in many obstinate cases. It acts on and cleanses the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleansing the system of all the poisonous humors and restoring a healthy condition of those important organs. Do not be discouraged but try it.

Stop that cough! Use Dr. Jackson's Syrup of Lungwort and Wild Cherry, 25, 50, and 81 00 per bottle.

We, the undersigned, witnessed an exhibition of a 10-inch Flying Dutchman on the farm of Wm. H. Wilson, Ray county, Mo., where it was tested in sod against a 12-inch Walking Plow, and hereby certify that the Flying Dutchman's draft was 100 lbs. lighter than the 12-inch Walking Plow.

G. SMITH, WALTER BATES, Wm. F. LEWIS, BENJ. C. HEMPHILL, BENJ. D. LARK, W. H. WILSON, WILSON JOINER.

Ladies attention! In the Diamond Dyes more coloring is given than in any known dyes, and they give faster and more brilliant colors. Do at all druggists. Everybody praises them. Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

Miss Idella Tracey is as charming in her delineations of character as any reader on the rostrum. She will appear next Tuesday evening, at the Grand Opera House in this city, and by request will read her choice selections. Missouri being her native state and home, will make her visit amongst us of much more interest and concern to this community. She is to be assisted by select talent from the Normal Music School, and the entertainment as a whole will be a grand one.

The public will be delighted with the entertainment which the Junior Amateurs present at the Opera House, to-night, and as is for the benefit of the Baptist church, they deserve a crowded house. Let every one see "The Nervous Man," the funniest drama extant. Admission 35c. and 50c. Tickets at Crispin's.

There are fifty registered physicians in Ray county, and about two thousand people who know of a sure cure for rheumatism, etc., etc. also one thousand who can tell a sufferer how to enjoy a large "bite." There is no excuse for a man dying in this section for lack of medical advice.

A friend asks how it is that the Democrat puts up with a Cleveland for president while its contemporary puts up J. Grover Cleveland. In reply to an inquiry from Geo. Crispin's "Nervous Man," Cleveland testified that his name is Grover Cleveland.

Newsworthy Physician—Dr. T. G. Hamner

There is stopping at the Wagon House a number of physicians, of whom we must be considered a public benefactor. We have been permitted to read letters from some of the patients who have undergone treatment at the hands of Dr. Hamner, and these letters show that he can and does cure men of the dread disease of dyspepsia, or alcoholism. Men who have drunk whisky until they have become wrecks of their former selves, write to Dr. Hamner, saying that they have not touched liquor since he treated them and effected a cure where the case was considered hopeless. In some of these letters are touching and breathe the deep gratitude of the writers for their deliverance from what is the worst slavery that man ever experienced. Once a man goes through Dr. Hamner's treatment he loses all taste for liquor—in fact the sight or smell of it is to him a torment. He never occupies from nine to twelve days and within that time there is eradicated from the (obscure) system all the poison that results from a steady course of hard drinking. The treatment is described as somewhat heroic, but the end result is to be a healthy, vigorous man, free from the craving desire for liquor, he feels himself once more a man with something to live for and look forward to. It is useless to present argument to prove that the continued use of liquor becomes a disease, and that the disease will soon be cured by the use of himself. This fact is well established. Dr. Hamner has discovered a cure, and by its use for ten years he has proved beyond the shadow of doubt that the cure never fails. He attends all patients and will not attempt to treat an individual who will not give up drinking and administer his medicine in a scientific basis, watching results and acting accordingly, and at the end of from nine to twelve days he turns out his patient cured. He is now treating two citizens of Richmond and the result of his work will soon be made known to the patients are doing well and will be close of next week they will have completed the course of treatment and will have lost all desire for liquor. Dr. H. remains here about ten days longer, and goes from here to Carrollton for a short time, as he has a number of patients in that place in Buffalo, N. Y.

He is now treating two citizens of Richmond and the result of his work will soon be made known to the patients are doing well and will be close of next week they will have completed the course of treatment and will have lost all desire for liquor. Dr. H. remains here about ten days longer, and goes from here to Carrollton for a short time, as he has a number of patients in that place in Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Hamner has discovered a cure, and by its use for ten years he has proved beyond the shadow of doubt that the cure never fails. He attends all patients and will not attempt to treat an individual who will not give up drinking and administer his medicine in a scientific basis, watching results and acting accordingly, and at the end of from nine to twelve days he turns out his patient
