Trade at the JACKSON STORE COMPANY, the place where your dollar goes farthest

YOU WILL FIND IT AT THE JACKSON STORE COMPANY, THE PLACE WHERE YOUR DOLLAR GOES FARTHEST.

On the night of Thursday, June 30, 1904, our Egg Contest will close, and all guesses must be made by that time. On Friday following, the judges, Mr. Boss and Mr. McFarland, will select the winning numbers, and on Saturday, July 2, we will post in our store in large figures the guesses that will receive prizes.

Remember you must bring a stub and number to match the one we hold, and all rules published at the beginning of this contest will be carried out. Come and see if you won a prize and we will make Saturday, July 2, a profitable day for you by making some unheard of prices.

We sell you good prizes, quality guaranteed... 5c lb | J. & P. Coats' 200 yd Thread, same as others sell at 5c... 4c | Best brands of calico, all colors 5cyd | Layton's Baking powder guaranteed fresh and good, three cans for... 25c
Canned corn ..... 10c can | Good rolled oats, three boxes for... 25c

On Saturday, July 2, we will throw one hundred pairs of shoes on our bargain counter: Gentlemen's and ladies' shoes ranging in price from $1.50 to $4.25 a pair, choice 45c; children's shoes ranging from 75c to $1.50, choice 15c pair. Sale from 8 a. m. until all are gone.

We continue to lead in selling the most sugar for a dollar. We have just received 900 pairs of shoes and Oxfords for our summer trade. Do you need any? Come in and see if you won a prize. Your time will be well spent. We lead in prices and quality of furniture. See our display on second floor.

On Saturday, July 2, we will sell 31 suits of clothes for men, sizes 35 to 44 coats, and ranging in prices from $9.00 to $15.00, choice $3.85 per suit. We hope you will be present and bring along your produce, for you surely will be welcomed by the
