

EXECUTRIX'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that letters testamentary upon the estate of Joseph Koehler, deceased, have been granted to the undersigned by the Judge of the Probate Court of Cape Girardeau County, Missouri, in Washington, Missouri, this 25th day of May, 1904.

All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the 15th day of June next, or they may be barred from any benefit of such estate and if such claim is not so exhibited within two years from the date of the probate of this notice, they will be forever barred.

Old Folks' Service at Rock Hill.

There will be an Old Folks' Service, Love Feast and Sermon at 10:30 a. m., June 26, at Rock Hill. At 2 p. m. there will be an address by Rev. A. T. Osborn, followed by a short talk by R. M. McCombs on the Home Department Work, and Benedictees of the Sunday School by Mr. Ed Howard. Rev. A. M. Dixon of Fruitland is expected to be present.

If you want a spiritual up-lift fill your basket and come to spend the day. The choir from Jackson M. E. Church South will furnish the music in the afternoon service.

On June 15th Mart Vowell was hung at Paragould, Ark., for the murder of Bill Lovejoy about one year ago. Vowell met his death bravely and claimed that he killed Lovejoy in self defense. He was not afraid to die and made a speech twenty-three minutes long, telling of his readiness to go and thanking the people for their kindness to him. A hard effort was made to have Governor DAVIS of Arkansas to commute his sentence, but all to no avail. Vowell was buried near Hotter, Ark. He had the largest funeral procession that Arkansas ever witnessed. The sympathy of the people seemed to have been well.

At a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee held in the City of Jackson, Mo., on the 4th day of June, 1904, upon motion of Edward Schneider, a member from Cape Girardeau Township, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft suitable and appropriate resolutions upon the death of Judge Joseph Koehler and they hereby beg to report the following: The subject of these resolutions was an excellent citizen, a congenial companion, a friend to the friendless and helper to the helpless.

Resolutions.

At a meeting of the Republican County Central Committee held in the City of Jackson, Mo., on the 4th day of June, 1904, upon motion of Edward Schneider, a member from Cape Girardeau Township, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft suitable and appropriate resolutions upon the death of Judge Joseph Koehler and they hereby beg to report the following:

The subject of these resolutions was an excellent citizen, a congenial companion, a friend to the friendless and helper to the helpless.

His many qualities of heart and mind made him constant and devoted friends on every side. And it has been truly said of him that he had probably more steadfast and loyal friends than any other public man in this county.

Judge Koehler may have had his faults: Who has not? But his good deeds were so numerous and stood out so prominently in his life work that little else could be observed except by those who may have been seeking an opportunity to criticize and find fault.

In public office, as a servant of the people, Judge Koehler was ever pleasant, courteous and obliging qualities passed by few and needed by all who could serve the people as he did for a period of time covering some twenty-five years.

And we, Republican County Central Committee, deeply deplore his untimely death, but express the hope that our loss is his eternal gain and that those near and dear to him will be again reunited with him in that undiscovered country from which borne no traveler returns.
