Mr. Bowers has filled that position to the satisfaction of the people and is well qualified for the place. The Republicans will make no mistake if they nominate him August 20. He will make an honest, safe man on the county bench.
"On the Farm in Old Missouri" is the title of a song with good words and a very fine air by V. C. Armstrong, grandson of Judge E. V. Wilson of Knox county, Missouri. This song should be in the hands of every Missourian who loves music and be as highly prized as "My Old Kentucky Home" by Kentuckians. Published by Continental Music Co., Broadway and 28th St., New York.
Marriage Licenses.
Alfred Chance and Rosa Shell, Chas. H. Daues and Della W. Harbin, H. S. Elleman and A. C. Phillips, Frederick Tracy and Ella J. Frissell.
Our Strenuous Life.
Foreigners seek in various ways to express their sense of the strenuousness of American life. An educated young Italian, who is a purist in his own language, tried to express the idea with precision the other day. He said slowly and with much care: "Americans—do—everything—rushed."

BLACK-DRAUGHT STOCK and POULTRY MEDICINE

Stock and poultry have few troubles which are not bowel and liver irregularities. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is a bowel and liver remedy for stock. It puts the organs of digestion in a perfect condition. Prominent American breeders and farmers keep their herds and flocks healthy by giving them an occasional dose of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine in their feed. Any stock raiser may buy a 25-cent half-pound airtight can of this medicine from his dealer and keep his stock in vigorous health for weeks. Dealers generally keep Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine. If yours does not, send 25 cents for a sample can to the manufacturers, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
ROCHELLE, Ga., Jan. 30, 1902.
Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine is the best I ever tried. Our stock was looking bad when you sent me the medicine and now they are getting so fine. They are looking 30 per cent. better.
S. P. BROCKINGTON.

Tennessee Mountain Preachers.
The oratorical gift of the preachers of mountain regions of Tennessee is much admired by their "simple parishioners, if somewhat too florid for severer tastes. Residents of that part of the country relate many anecdotes of their eloquence, as well as their absurd interpretations of Scripture. It is the light of every boy's ambition to be a preacher, although it is an affection among the horny-handed portion of the population to pretend to despise those who do not engage in manual labor.

DID NOT WORRY WHISTLER.

His Creditors Were the Ones That Had Difficulties.
About a quarter of a century ago the artist Whistler went through the bankruptcy court—a sequel to the Whistler-Russett trial, which brought him only a trifling damages and a very long bill of costs. The jesters made merry and Whistler with them. It was said that Whistler, the man of "arrangements" in color, was beaten at last—he could not make an arrangement with his creditors. There were comedies enacted in Whistler's home, as when (by a borrowed idea) the bailiff's man, put into evening dress, added to the artist's glories by waiting at dinner. When the bankruptcy affair was over a friend congratulated him on having come through his difficulties. "What difficulties?" asked Whistler. "Oh, difficulties with the creditors." "My difficulties indeed!" exclaimed the artist. "Theirs, you mean—theirs!"

FAVORITE HOME PAPER.

Established for nearly a century and read regularly by more than 500,000 persons in the west and southwest the Twice-a-Week Republic of St. Louis can justly lay claim to that enviable distinction, "Favorite Home Paper." It is great because it has always aimed to inform, instruct and entertain its readers on all matters of public and home interest. In 1904 it will be especially interesting and valuable. Here are some reasons why you should subscribe for it:

This is campaign year and you will want to be informed of the movements of party leaders, reports of the great National and State conventions, the progress of the campaign, reports of the elections, etc.

You will want to know all about the World's fair to be held in St. Louis from April 30 to December 1, 1904.

You will be interested in and kept well informed by the Farm Visitor, a regular supplement of the paper, prepared especially for the farmer and his family.

You will want to know what the world is doing in every field of activity, and through the unsurpassed news and special service of the Twice-a-Week Republic you will not be disappointed.

In short sketches, choice bits of fiction, articles of interest to women, children and the home, fashion hints and helpful household suggestions the Twice-a-Week Republic easily leads among the weeklies of the great west.

If you want the Twice-a-Week Republic sent to your address, order it at once direct from the office at St. Louis, Mo. or through your local newsdealer. It costs only $1 a year.

Missouri State Fair.
The fourth annual exhibition of the Missouri state fair should be the most successful in the history of the institution. The dates selected, August 15 to 19, do not conflict with the live stock exhibit at St. Louis, nor with any of the great state fairs. This should assure a great live stock exhibit and an unrivaled display of agricultural products. Missourians and Missouri exhibitors should be impressed with the importance of the State Fair and remember that it is a permanent institution destined to develop the state's resources, promote its industries, advertise its advantages, its wealth and its grandeur, for all time to come. No unusual occurrence, regardless of its magnitude and its attractions; no entertainment for a season, however brilliant it may be, should detract from an interest in the State Fair, or cause Missourians to swerve in their loyalty to an institution that throughout future generations, is to stand for them, or their progress, and the advancement of their industrial interests.

Notice.
The undersigned enlarges photographs, frames pictures and can sell you almost any variety of pictures at reasonable prices. Call on him at Jackson, Mo. Residence in Shorter property near Volksfreund office.
