Learning From the Fish.

"That's the tenth can of sardines you have ordered," said the railway magnate. "Aren't you afraid you will make yourself sick?" "I'm not eating them," replied the employee with inventive genius. "I think I'm on the track of a way to get more people into a street car."

Eat Albatross Eggs.

The natives of Hawaii are large consumers of albatross eggs, which are secured principally from the island of Laysan, the Hawaiian group. These eggs are so plentiful on this island that they are gathered in wheelbarrows and carried to the shore in boxes and loaded on a small industrial railroad.

Business College Notes.

There will be no school on Friday following Thanksgiving, students having voted same a holiday.

Emmett Counts, who has been absent from school a month, owing to illness, has taken up the work again this week.

Miss Mary Young has written President Moothart that she has a specially pleasant position as stenographer in the Study of Rev. Mr. Abbott, pastor of the Union Avenue Christian Church, St. Louis.

Miss Izella McMullin successfully passed her third shorthand and typewriting test last Friday, and after a rest of some ten days or two weeks will probably go to St. Louis to secure a position.

Elmo McClintock of Cape Girardeau came over to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Gladys. Elmo informs us that he is well pleased with his position, having recently received a good increase of salary.

Prof. Moothart divided the school into sections One and Two in order to have an arithmetical contest. The students took a special interest in this work, and both sections hotly contested for the honors. Miss Blanche Huff and Warden Moothart were the last to represent their respective sides, and the latter was declared the winner, giving the first honor to section 2. Another class contest was given in the penmanship drill last week, first and second prizes being offered for the best set of plain business capital letters. A committee of students, Messrs. Haunert, Hamilton and Eaton, awarded first prize to Charles Bundy of Farmington, second, First prize consisted of a set of ornamental capital letters, and the second a fancy shaded set of business letters, both from the pen of Prof. Moothart.

Is your husband cross? An irritable, fault finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach trouble by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers. [Advertisement.]

The Use of Lemons.

It is well for people to know before typhoid fever comes walking into their homes that Dr. Asa Ferguson of London, England, has discovered that lemon juice is a deadly foe of typhoid bacilli, and will cause the germs to shrivel up and die almost immediately.

A few drops of lemon juice in a glass of drinking water will kill any typhoid germs that may be in the water, and make the drinker immune from typhoid fever.

There are a great many things that lemons are good for besides making the refreshing lemonade.

Most everyone knows that to take hot lemonade when going to bed is good to break up a cold. Not so many may know that the juice of half a lemon in a cup of black coffee, without any sugar, will cure such headache.

To take a strong, unsweetened lemonade before breakfast will also prevent and cure a bilious attack.

To take lemon juice mixed very thick with sugar will relieve that annoying, tickling cough.

If you drink a glass of water with lemon juice squeezed in it every morning it will keep your stomach in good order and prevent you from having dyspepsia.

When you have a bad headache rub slices of lemon along the temple, and it will soon give relief.

It is good if a bee or insect sting you to put a few drops of lemon juice on the spot.

To saturate a cloth with lemon juice and bind on a cut or wound will stop the bleeding.

If your fruit juices, such as cherry, strawberry, etc., do not jelly readily, add lemon juice to them, and it will cause them to jelly.

Lemon juice and salt is good to remove iron rust.

If you have a corn that bothers you rub it with a lemon after taking a hot bath, and cut away the corn.

Now, if you want to have a beautiful complexion squeeze lemon juice into a quart of milk and rub it on your face night and morning.

There are many useful things that lemons will do for you if you only know what they are and try them. They should be used more freely than they are in most homes and they might save you doctor bills.—Philadelphia Record.

One Killed—Eight Injured.

A Poplar Bluff dispatch of the 23d says that one man was killed and eight others injured, two probably fatally, when eighty-five sticks of dynamite exploded in Frank Kirtledge's store, five miles south of Poplar Bluff.

The victims of the explosion were employes of the Paul Lumber Company mill and lived at a boarding house near the store. They were awakened by the mill whistle when the fire started, had formed a bucket brigade, and were attempting to save the boarding house when the explosion occurred.

Three of the men were knocked from the roof of the house and five hurled from ladders by the force of the blast. The store building was completely wrecked, and the boarding house badly damaged.

Charles Coonce was crushed under wall and killed. The injured were: Fred Sharp, right arm broken, face and limbs cut and bruised. John A. Mahandro, nose blown off, face and body bruised; probably will die. Walter Lane, badly cut and burned. Arthur Hamilton, bruised and burned. Fred Allison, body crushed; probably will die.

T. J. Chaney, aged 80 years, committed suicide on the 12th. He lived with his son, Draw Chaney, near Curdton, Stoddard county. The Bloomfield Vindicator says he left the supper table Wednesday evening, went out into the yard and lying down, shot himself in the back of the head with a revolver.

Market for Broken Glass.

Broken glass has a market. Some of it is ground in fine, powder-like particles and used for various purposes. At other times it is melted and made into new glass objects.
