On Friday evening, Oct. 1st, a number of young people were invited to spend the evening as the guests of Miss Ethel Dunklin. A very pleasant evening was spent and all departed declaring that a similar invitation would be very acceptable at any time. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mayes, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Stearns, Misses Ada Dorris, Letitia McFarland, Hazel Miller, Lora Ellinghouse, Messers L. L. Loeffler, O. L. Hargrove, Lloyd Maccom, and Dr. Creswell.

Elmer Stephens makes the fifth person to renew his subscription for the second whole year. Mr. Stephens has been a citizen of Hayti for nearly 12 years and as a supporter of newspapers he has always been liberal. He is now with the Spot Cash Grocery, which has a thriving business.

Sherman Casey has the honor of bringing the largest load of cotton to Hayti for this season. Its value was $104.65. He expects to bring a larger load before the season is over.

OUR GIRLS.

Last Sunday morning the Stork, in the form of our good friend, Dr. F. A. Mayes, visited our home, and when he departed there was a tiny little girl, with chubby fists and dimpled cheeks, deep blue eyes and dark hair, clinging to its mother's breast. The news of this occurrence reached our brother, C. S. York, at Caruthersville, who consoles us thus:

"And another girl! Well, girls are so much better than boys—don't fight and cuss and chew tobacco; don't prowl at nights, don't steal water melons, nor swim in the rivers—but, after all, the boys get the girls in the final round up. So it is only a few brief years that you can tell 'tother from which,' and it all naturally amounts to about the same in the end."

Mrs. Sam Adams of Canady was in Hayti last week. We learn that Mr. Adams died of dropsy on Sunday of last week and was buried at Blytheville. We also learn that Miss Rachel Adams was married recently to Fred Cessel of Mayfield Ky., the wedding occurring at Blytheville.

Amos Huffman started up the Faris grist mill Tuesday. He expects to make a regular run, and the mill being a home enterprise, certainly deserves the patronage of home people. This is one of Hayti's many good enterprises.

H. P. Coleman of Long Beach, California, who is looking after his extensive interests in Pemiscot county, was in Hayti last Thursday. He will remain in the county about a month. He owns valuable city property in Hayti.

Last Thursday J. S. Wahl, Ben Tinsley, Liston Hazel and Chip Franklin of Caruthersville passed through Hayti on a hunting expedition to Clayroot.

Prof. J. C. Jones of Cooter passed through Hayti Monday, on his way to North and South Dakota, where he is going to look after some homesteads.

Said Poundkeeper shall make a report at each regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen, and turn over such money as may remain in his hands to the Treasurer of said city of Hayti, Mo., excepting his fees as mentioned and set forth in Ordinance number 41, Sec. 2. Passed October 4, 1909.

John T. Buckley, Mayor.

John T. Buckley, Mayor.

Attest: Chas Morgan, Clerk.

Amos Huffman has returned from Cairo, Ill., where he had went to accept a position to put in two gasoline engines at gins in Ark., one at England and one at Scotts. He was working for F. L. Harp, of the Olds people, and reports that the engines started to work in fine shape. Mr. Huffman is manager of the Faris Milling Co., at this place.

S. P. Williams is working on the contract to cut a ditch 4x8x18 from the end of the dredge new ditch to the Frisco railroad, between Hayti and Caruthersville. He also has the contract to cut a half-mile and a mile ditch on the Alfa Farm.

Herbert Rust of Troy, Ind., was here this week prospecting. We understand that he has sold his interests in Indiana, and expects to locate in Pemiscot county, and we hope he will find what he is looking for.

DOLLARS COUNT

It takes longer to make money than to spend it. Every man should try as hard to save money as to make it. Saving is to accumulate---saving is the key-stone to independence.

Don't forget this point. Your future depends upon the present. The dollar saved in your daily purchases is a dollar made. To help you save money is my stronghold in business, for if I could not aid you I could not expect your trade.

Come and let's figure it over and let me prove to you that this is true. Isn't this fair?
