Items From Home and Abroad, Gathered From Many Sources

If there are any Democrats in this part of the country thinking of trying for a job as census enumerators, or any other job in the census department they just as well give up the idea. Read the following letter from Congressman Crow, published last week by the Charleston Enterprise:

Caruthersville, Mo., Oct. 4, 1909.

Dear Friend: I received your favor of the 3rd inst. and note all you say about being appointed census enumerator of your township.

It is my understanding that only Republicans will be appointed enumerators. If it should turn out that a few Democrats will be appointed I shall be glad to recommend you for enumerator.

Very truly yours,

Chas. A. Crow.

P. S.—I wrote the above with the understanding that you are a Democrat but if I have been misinformed it will be an easy matter to get the appointment for you.

Please let me hear from you in regard to the matter.

Respectfully, C. A. Crow.

Portageville Critic: Dr. J. E. Corlis and Louie B. DeLisle, of this city, were hunting on Cushion Lake yesterday, when Mr. DeLisle's gun was accidentally discharged, the load of shot entering the Doctor's head, killing him instantly. There was never a sadder gloom cast over this city than this accident has cast, for there never lived a man with a truer heart than Dr. Corlis. If he had an enemy, we never heard of it, and the nights were never too dark nor too cold for him to wait on the poor. Peace to the soul of this generous friend and always genial companion. This is a terrible blow to Louie DeLisle—a young man of tender disposition, who, if he could recall the life of his friend, would give even his own.

Malden News: The trial of W. J. Huggins for shooting Sam Blanton on last February, resulted in his acquittal, which gives almost universal satisfaction in this community. The case was put on trial last Tuesday before a jury of six good men, who, after hearing the evidence, quickly acquitted Mr. Huggins, who proved a good character, and a law abiding citizen. W. R. Satterfield, the defendant's attorney, made a masterly plea in behalf of his client.

New Madrid Record: The editor of the Record testifies as an expert that St. Peter will pass the men through the pearly gates who ever worked with a gasoline engine while here on earth. They have suffered purgatory already.

When one remembers that in an ordinary column there are 10,000 pieces of type, that there are seven wrong positions each letter may be put in and therefore 70,000 chances in a column to make errors besides millions of chance transpositions, he will not be too critical. In the sentence, "To be or not to be," by transposition alone it is possible to make 6,250,800 errors. Do you see what besets the printer?—Ex.

In the cities girls are beginning to take the place of boys in offices, and the reason for these changes is one that boys would do well to consider. The old fashioned office boy who swears, smokes cigarettes and is impertinent, reads dime novels, or loafers when sent on errands, is fast petering out, and in course of time the office girl will have taken his place. No one wants an impertinent, dirty mouth, wagging cigarettes, slobbering, boy about an office, or as a clerk, book-keeper or stenographer. Girls do not acquire these habits, hence the change.—Ex.

Under the terms of the new game law, which went into effect recently, it is a crime to use any kind of a net, trap or any device except hook, line or gig to catch fish in any of the streams. The fine is sufficiently heavy to make it interesting. The popular idea of violating the laws pertaining to game and fish should be discouraged by all good citizens. No one can afford to keep mum when he knows of a violation. The man who observes the law should make it his duty to see that others do.

Kansas City Star: A paper out in Northwestern Kansas tells of a pious old farmer who has the habit of gazing at the rafters in his dining room when saying grace. One day while so engaged he forgot himself, and his grace sounded something like this: "We thank Thee for this food and—by Heck! there's that darned gimlet I've been looking for for the last six months. I'll have Jim get up and get it. Thou hast been gracious to us, O Lord, and again we thank Thee. Amen."

When you hear a man sneering at the local papers you can safely bet he don't spend his time making them better. They who don't see a benefit arising to a town from its newspapers, haven't as much sense as a coxe oyster, and are of about as much value to a town as a ten year-old delinquent.

Twice-a-Week Democrat: Charles Stanfill of Hayti and Miss Ola Glover of this city were quietly married yesterday evening, Rev. A. E. J. Baldridge officiating, performing the ceremony at the parsonage. The young people have many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous life.

The Portageville Critic is a welcome visitor to our exchange table. Col. Walker is to be congratulated in getting his new outfit in so soon, and in making such a good start, and we hope he will live to reap and enjoy the fruits of his labor.

Clarkton Courier: The work of "drilling" in the first oil well in Southeast Missouri began Monday. There has been an unfortunate and expensive delay in getting the casing, and only the 16 in. drive casing had then arrived.

Portageville Critic: The Hayward postoffice has been discontinued. Most of the former patrons of that office will get mail here.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a phantom party box supper Saturday night, Oct. 30. Everybody cordially invited. Bring pillow slip and sheet.

When you see a cross mark on your paper, made with a pencil, it tells you that your subscription is out and we ask you to renew at once. Not hearing from you promptly, we will stop the paper.

Prof. Hubbard and Miss McKay of Steele seem to be seeking a great deal of publicity. The Caruthersville papers and Memphis Commercial appeal containing additional matter last week.

We are closing out our Columbia, Victor and Zonophone 10 inch records at 45 cents each. We have 1,000 records in stock. Also a good discount on graphophones. Chas. Goodrich, Caruthersville.
