WITH THE CHURCHES

METHODIST CHURCH

The Methodist church of Hayti will begin the New Year in Bible study and worship, and each member and friend is urged to start the New Year right by attending Sunday school and being in the worship at the A. M. hour.

The sacrament will be administered after a brief talk on "It's meaning to us living now."

Leaguers are called to the church at 6:30 p. m. for their devotional and study season.

At 7:30 o'clock, Rev. Culbertson will have for his topic: "The call of Isaiah." This discussion will link up the bearing Isaiah has on our present day living.

Let no purposeful person in Hayti fail in using the opportunity to start the New Year right by being in Sunday school, League and in Worship.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The appreciation of the church is hereby expressed to those who made the Christmas program a success. The revolving tree as devised by Mr. Richmond was unusually beautiful. At the Sunday morning service the following officers were elected:

Arthur Allen, trustee.
Mrs. M. Z. Elliston, clerk.
Mrs. D. B. Hayes, treasurer.
Mrs. A. Ansell, pianist.
A. G. Sanders, superintendent of the Sunday school.

Prof. O. E. Hooker, assistant superintendent of Sunday school.

Sunday evening services will be held at 7 p. m., and all are cordially invited to attend.

HERALD'S NEW EDITOR TAKES HIMSELF A WIFE

The Herald office this week has been functioning a little one-sided, the editor has been absent a few days, and it has been necessary of the "force" to edit the paper.

Its editor, L. J. Banner, left Sunday morning early for Campbell and spent the Holiday visiting. Monday morning he failed to show up for his many duties, but seems to have taken on more important duties, for Monday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Teague, in Campbell, he was wedded to Miss Kathleen Teague by the Reverend Liddell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of that city, the ceremony being said at the home, it being at first contemplated that the affair to be a quiet one, but the secret soon reached the ears of the many friends of the bride, and quite a number of them appeared ready for the ceremony. Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Eason Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jennings of Trezevant, Tenn., and the Misses Elsie Davis, Volla, Lena and Ruth Matheny, Marguerite Reynolds, Joan Landess, Alma Rice, and Messrs. Victor Burch, Monroe Clem Jr., Raymond Toole, of Campbell, also Misses Lillian Harvey of Kennett and Verne Helings of St. Louis.

Immediately the couple left for this city, several of the couple's friends following them, and upon their arrival here late in the evening, they were met at the station by many friends who escorted them to town amid a roar of bells and the throwing of rice the bride and the groom being compelled to mount an open, ramshackled buggy, delivering the couple at the Peoples Drug Store where several perplexing questions were propounded to the groom, much to his pleasure as well as the happy crowd.

After a hour of merriment the couple went to the home of Billy Nethery, where they will reside until the New Year, after which they will be at home to their friends in the J. H. Wilks property.

The bride is one of Campbell's most popular young ladies, and was a leader among the social set. She is a graduate of Stephens College of Columbia, and we feel sure will prove as popular among our people as in her home town.

The groom is a successful business man of this city, an editor of this paper, and has as many friends as his acquaintances are numbered.

It is with pleasure the writer extends congratulations to the newlyweds, wishing that theirs may be a cup overflowing with happiness and prosperity.

WATER WORKS NEARING COMPLETION

Hayti's water works system, which has been so badly needed, is nearing completion, and the contractors for the pumping apparatus are now installing the two big Fairbanks-Morse engines and two tri-plex pumps in the pump house, this building being erected by M. T. Baldwin. The tank and tower have been completed for some time, and should answer our requirements, according to the estimate of the engineer in charge of the system, and will give Hayti the protection which she has needed for so long a time. Several more weeks will see the water turned into the mains. The Caruthersville Plumbing and Heating Co., has been busy for several weeks making house connection from the various streets and are also installing plumbing fixtures in quite a number of the homes of the city, which will give us the city feeling. Mr. Baldwin, the contractor for the building has been delayed for some time because of the rainy and cold weather, this causing the mortar in the brick work to freeze and look very bad from appearance sake. He is however doing his utmost to rush the work and informs us that unless other delays occur the building will soon be ready for use.

Miss Joan Landess of Campbell, who has been visiting Mrs. L. J. Banner for several days returned home Wednesday.

—Do you know that Buckleys deliver dry goods and groceries to any part of town free?

Raymond Toole of Campbell spent Tuesday visiting his friends, Billy Nethery, Lamar Thompson and L. J. Banner.

Miss Sarah Culbertson of Mexico is spending the Christmas days in Hayti with the family of A. B. Culbertson and wife.

—Make a New Year's resolution to trade at Buckleys; we will do our best to please you

Miss Nellie Reeves of Caruthersville visited with Miss Cecil Proctor today.

Miss Lupille Nethery and Miss Finch of Caruthersville visited in Hayti yesterday.

SHE BURNS MONEY ON CLOTHES

Here are two views of Mrs. Smith Wilkinson, who is acknowledged as the best dressed woman in the world, and who is coming to America shortly to show us what real gowns are. Mrs. Wilkinson started in life as a restaurant keeper in England. She and her husband expanded the business into a chain of restaurants, then into a chain of hotels and they made millions. Her whole life now is spent in buying things to wear, and wearing 'em at a cost of a million a year. Her wardrobe contains hundreds of costly gowns, priceless furs, gorgeous hats, diamond studded shoes and her strings of pearls and rubies are a huge fortune in themselves. Some of her gowns are so complicated in make and material that they take six months to

J. H. O'Connor and wife Cooter were among those who are spending the Xmas holidays with relatives in Hayti.

Pink Acuff and wife of Caruthersville was here Sunday, spending a few hours with Eurties Powell and family.

POSTMASTER AVERILL AN EFFICIENT OFFICER

Postmaster Averill was asked by the Department to resign, and, as every one believes, for no other reason than to make a place for a Republican. It is known by everyone familiar with the situation, and admitted by his greatest enemies, that Mr. Averill has attended strictly to the duties of the office and has made Caruthersville a polite, courteous and efficient postmaster. His commission has not expired, and if we were in his place we would hold on to the position until thrown out. Wilson permitted Republican federal officers to hold their places until their commissions expired. — Caruthersville Democrat-Argus.

—Want to buy two cottages in Hayti, not to cost over $1000 each; prefer to buy from owner of property. Address J. H. Barnett, box 613, Kennett, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Reinhard and daughter, Betty, spent Xmas Day in Caruthersville the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, and report a most enjoyable time. Both Mr. and Mrs. Scott are noted for their hospitality and are royal entertainers.

Roscoe Hayden, the genial representative of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., of Caruthersville, attended to business in Hayti Monday and Wednesday.

Mrs. E. E. Moore of Cincinnati, O., mother of Dr. J. V. Moore, came down to spend the holidays with Dr. and Mrs. Moroe.

A. A. Caner of Senath, who has just undergone an operation in Memphis, Tenn., passed thru Hayti Monday enroute home.

Dr. T. O. Nevill of Campbell passed thru Hayti Monday enroute from Caruthersville to his home after spending the holidays.

Senator R. B. Oliver of Cape Girardeau came down Wednesday for a few hours attending to his vast farm interests.

Chas. Berry, who has been visiting in points adjacent to Chicago, Ill., is expected home tomorrow.

HAYTI SCHOOL NOTES

"It pays around here to be on time and to do the right thing."

The manual training students are doing excellent work now. They are making large and more useful articles, such as foot-stools, magazine racks, picture frames, candlesticks, bread boards and sofas. Most of these were given as Christmas presents.

The Senior class entertained the High School Friday afternoon with a program and Christmas tree. The program consisted of selections by the orchestra, solos by Sadie Mitchell and Carmel Popham, a legend by Pearl Cameron, reading by Juanita Herrell and a play by the Senior class. Many visitors were present for the program.

We had with us recently Prof. Hinchey, a representative of Southeast Missouri State Teachers College. He is advocating a new and splendid movement for a historical and geological organization. The purpose of this organization is to give the boys and girls of Missouri a better knowledge of their own state. He mentioned the fact that our section of the state is called the cradle of civilization west of the Mississippi river. He said it is up to the boys and girls of Missouri to collect material for the history of their own state. He told the boys and girls that the old people of the county could, and would gladly tell them pioneer stories and legends of their own county. He also told them that this county is rich in Indian relics. He urged them to make a collection of the Indian arrows and also wants a collection of the different woods found in this county. He told several incidents in the making of our county and history and emphasized the fact that the average student knows much more about European and general history than he knows about his own state.

Prof. Hinchey is urging all High Schools to form a historical and geological society. All High Schools organizing such a society will be given an individual place in the new memorial building which is being erected in memory of the soldiers, which is to be erected at Cape Girardeau.

Prof. Hinchey's talk was a supplement to the health program rendered by the third, fourth and sixth grades of the Grammar School.

Capt. Frank G. Armitage, a representative of the White-Myers Lyceum Bureau, visited High School recently. The Captain gave a miscellaneous program here recently under the auspices of the Civic League. The program consisted of pianologues, Dicken's impersonations ventriloquism and conjuring. Capt. Armitage is very much interested in schools as he himself at one time was a teacher. He was for sometime an instructor in Harvard University. Since Captain Armitage had spare time between trains he took advantage of the opportunity to visit the school. We are sure that every boy and girl enjoyed Captain Armitage's talk, and hope that they may profit by his valuable advice. He spoke of the advantages of an education, urging the boys and girls to attend college after completing their High School work. He pointed out the advantages the American people have over the English in securing an education. He pointed out that no American boy is too poor to secure an education, but that an English boy must have blue blood in his veins before he can enter any of the universities of England. He emphasized the fact that the boys and girls of today are to solve the problems for the future, and therefore must be educated in order to do bigger and better things than the present generation is doing. He knows what it is to work for an education, as he worked his way through college in America. Captain Armitage is English by birth, Canadian by adoption and American by education.

Ernest Leifer and Louie Kohn will represent Hayti High School in the debating contest with Poplar Bluff on January the sixth. A more definite report concerning the debate will be given later.

We are informed that Mr. Guffy and wife will erect a four-apartment building the coming year at a very desirable location in Hayti.
