TO-DAY'S NEWS IN BRIEF

QUEEN VICTORIA ON HER DEATHBED; THE END MAY COME AT ANY MOMENT.

From the Daily Mirror

The queen is in a most unhappy state, and the end may be at any moment. She is under the care of the best physicians, and it is feared that she may not survive the night.

WALE WILL REIGN UNDER TITLE OF KING EDWARD VII.

From the Daily Express

The king will be proclaimed to the world as Edward, son of Victoria, king of England. The queen is believed to be in a very critical state, and the prince of wales will be declared heir apparent.

INTERESTING INCIDENTS IN LIFE OF QUEEN VICTORIA.

From the Daily News

The queen is said to have been married to Prince Albert at the age of 16, and to have reigned for 63 years. She was a devoted mother, and her influence on British politics was immense.

Browning, King & Co.,

Broadway and Pine.

DEATHS.

From the Daily Mirror

The death of a prominent physician has occurred, and the loss is keenly felt by his patients and colleagues.

Raglans, Ulsters

And All the New Shapes in Men's, Boys' and Children's Overcoats.

All these overcoats are new, fresh and stylish, and our prices are no higher than you have to pay for the old unsaleable styles at the so-called reduction sales.

WASHINGTON EAGLES

IN EXHAUSTED CONDITION

The Washington Eagles are said to be in a state of exhaustion, and it is feared that their chances of winning the championship are slim.

LONDON PRESS COMMENT.

In defence of the British Fleet.

The British fleet is said to be in a state of readiness, and it is feared that war may break out at any moment.

Rheumatism.

The cold wind is said to have caused a rise in the number of rheumatism cases in the city.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It tones up the whole system.