

The St. Louis Republic Magazine.

NINETY-FOURTH YEAR.

ST. LOUIS, MO., SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 1902.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

SUNDAY REPUBLIC POSTER NO. 5.

In cutting this colored drawing from the page, the outline of the sketch should be closely followed. The picture may then be mounted on a red, green or brown poster board, that should be 20x30 inches in size. The necessary mount can be purchased at any art dealer's at a price not exceeding 15 cents. Heavy colored wrapping paper will serve, in the absence of the poster board.
