

Weak Women

frequently suffer great pain and misery during the change of life. It is at this time that the beneficial effect of taking Cardui is most appreciated, by those who find that it relieves their distress.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Lucinda G. Hill, of Freedom, O., writes: "Before I began to take Cardui, I suffered so badly I was afraid to lie down at night. After I began to take it I felt better in a week. Now my pains have gone and I can sleep like a girl of 16 and the change of life has nearly left me." Try Cardui.

Ed Dermody is some better.

Are you coming out to-night, Mary Ann?

Looks like she has rallied from a severe attack of the grippe.

Capt. Brown has rallied from an aggravated attack of the grippe.

Amos Jenkins has rallied from a hot attack of the grippe. It was a close call.

Col. Jeff Woods, City Marshal of Concord, was in Mexico Saturday shaking hands with his friends.

We're glad to learn that our friend, Dr. Benjolin Keeton, of Auxvasse, who has been seriously ill, is better.

Capt. John T. Hisey is now in the monkey-faced owl business at Beardstown, Illinois. John is a hummer.

A musical concert was held off in the Waverly Hotel parlors Sunday evening, much to the delight of a "crowded house." The Owl was sure there with the goods.

Miss Polly Woods, Ella Geary and Chabone Jackson, of Mexico, were delighted guests of the Misses Peck, west of town, Sunday.

Col. P. V. O'Brien has bought of Col. Lyman the fine 300-acre farm, known as the Jake Stephenson farm, southwest of town, at a long price. Col. O'Brien is there with the goods.

Col. Elmer Keiser, the hustling Mexico agent for twelve metropolitan papers, has the Owl's thanks for fifty favors. By close attention to business Elmer has worked up a splendid trade. He is sure there with the goods.

MISS ESTRELLA PIPPIN, Sister of Miss Golden Pippin, who will lead in the grand opening march at Col. Joe Pratt's fancy dress ball. Dr. Frankie Weiland will be Miss Pippin's gallant partner.

Col. Beamer, the hustling Metropolitan Life Insurance young man, called at the Ledger Monday and revived several drooping spirits. Wherever you find Col. Beamer you find sunshine and happiness. O, glory! O, glory!

Charlie Heck, late of Cannelton, Indiana, but who now owns several bricks in the Shoe Factory, filed his date and preceded at the Owl Roost Sunday. Heck is a warm member.

Also called to appear before the Grand Jury to testify in the case of the shooting of the late Governor. Will be held at the Court House, Monday, at 10 o'clock.

CENTRALIA MAY HAVE STATE FARM

Rumor says Farm of M. H. Pemberton, of Near Centralia, Mo., to be sold to State for Experimental Purposes in Agriculture.

REUBEN DILLIES, BY ONE DILL

What became of the other man? Are you glad you are single again? Ed Dermody is not so well today. He is quite poorly.

MAJOR J. B. MARTIN, THE SAMPLE STORE

Major J. B. Martin, the Sample Store merchant, has our thanks for favors. Major Martin employs plenty and accommodating lady clerks and is there with the goods.

MEXICO HOME TORN UP BY STORM

The residence of W. W. Johnson, in North Mexico, was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars Friday morning when the blizzard was at its height. Had there not been a change in the sleeping quarters of the family during the past few days the accident might have resulted fatally. The family all considered the children had a narrow escape.
