

"EACH MUST WORK FOR ALL AND ALL FOR EACH."

—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

President, in Addresses in New Hampshire, Emphasizes the Importance of Mutual Help and the Impossibility of Living to One's Self.

BUSY DAY FULL OF MISHAPS.

THE PRESIDENT AS A PHRASEMAKER.

"In this life, as a rule, the job that is easy to do is not very well worth doing." "I believe in play, and I believe in playing hard while you play, and don't make a business of it. Do your work and do it up to the hilt, and then play when you have got time to play, and if you are worth anything, enjoy that, too."

Newbury, N. H., Aug. 28.—President Roosevelt to-night is the guest of Secretary of State Hay, whose summer home is situated a few miles from here along the shores of Lake Sunapee.

DRANK OF GASOLINE AND IGNITED FUMES

Robert Ferguson was Severely Burned in Attempting to Execute Trick on Street Corner.

APPLIED MATCH TO HIS MOUTH.

Face Was Seared by Flames and Clothes Nearly Burned From His Body Before Bystanders Could Interfere.

Robert Ferguson, in attempting to blow flame from his mouth last night, was so severely burned that he may not recover.

TWO ST. LOUIS GIRLS MIRED IN QUICKSAND

Misses Christine Beard and Helen Langralier Have Thrilling Experience Near Kimmswick.

FARMER AND HIS NEGRO SERVANT ATTRACTED BY THEIR CRIES FOR HELP, RESCUE THEM IN THE NICK OF TIME.

Farmer and his Negro servant, attracted by their cries for help, rescued them from quicksand near Kimmswick.

ST. LOUIS GIRLS WIN CUP.

Misses Lionberger Carry Away Yachting Trophy.

At the beginning of the season Doctor Maurice H. Richardson of Boston offered a beautiful silver cup for the winner of this class of boats, the only condition being that the boats should be sailed by ladies, with no men on board.

FOOTPADS TEAR RING FROM VICTIM'S HAND

Rob J. T. Winters, a Salesman, of Valuables Worth $950 Near Twelfth and Olive Streets.

OVERLOOK A PURSE WITH $300.

Futile Search for Highwaymen Made by Four Courts Officers and Victim Is Treated at Dispensary.

Three footpads followed John T. Winters of Kansas City from Eleventh and Chestnut streets to Twelfth and Olive streets about 1:30 o'clock this morning, and knocking him down, relieved him of jewelry valued at $50. In jerking a diamond ring from the third finger of his left hand the highwaymen cut the flesh to the bone.

ONE MAN KILLED BY STRIKERS; MOBS ATTACK THE TROOPS.

Regiment of Militia Ordered to the New River District, Where the Sheriff Says He Is Unable to Protect Life and Property—Effort to Transport Soldiers on Trolley Cars Leads to Encounters, in Which a Captain Is Hurt.

ST. LOUIS YOUTH ASSISTS IN SAVING TWO LIVES.

Jules Valle, a Yale Freshman, Swims to Rescue a Boy and a Man Grappling in Life and Death Struggle.

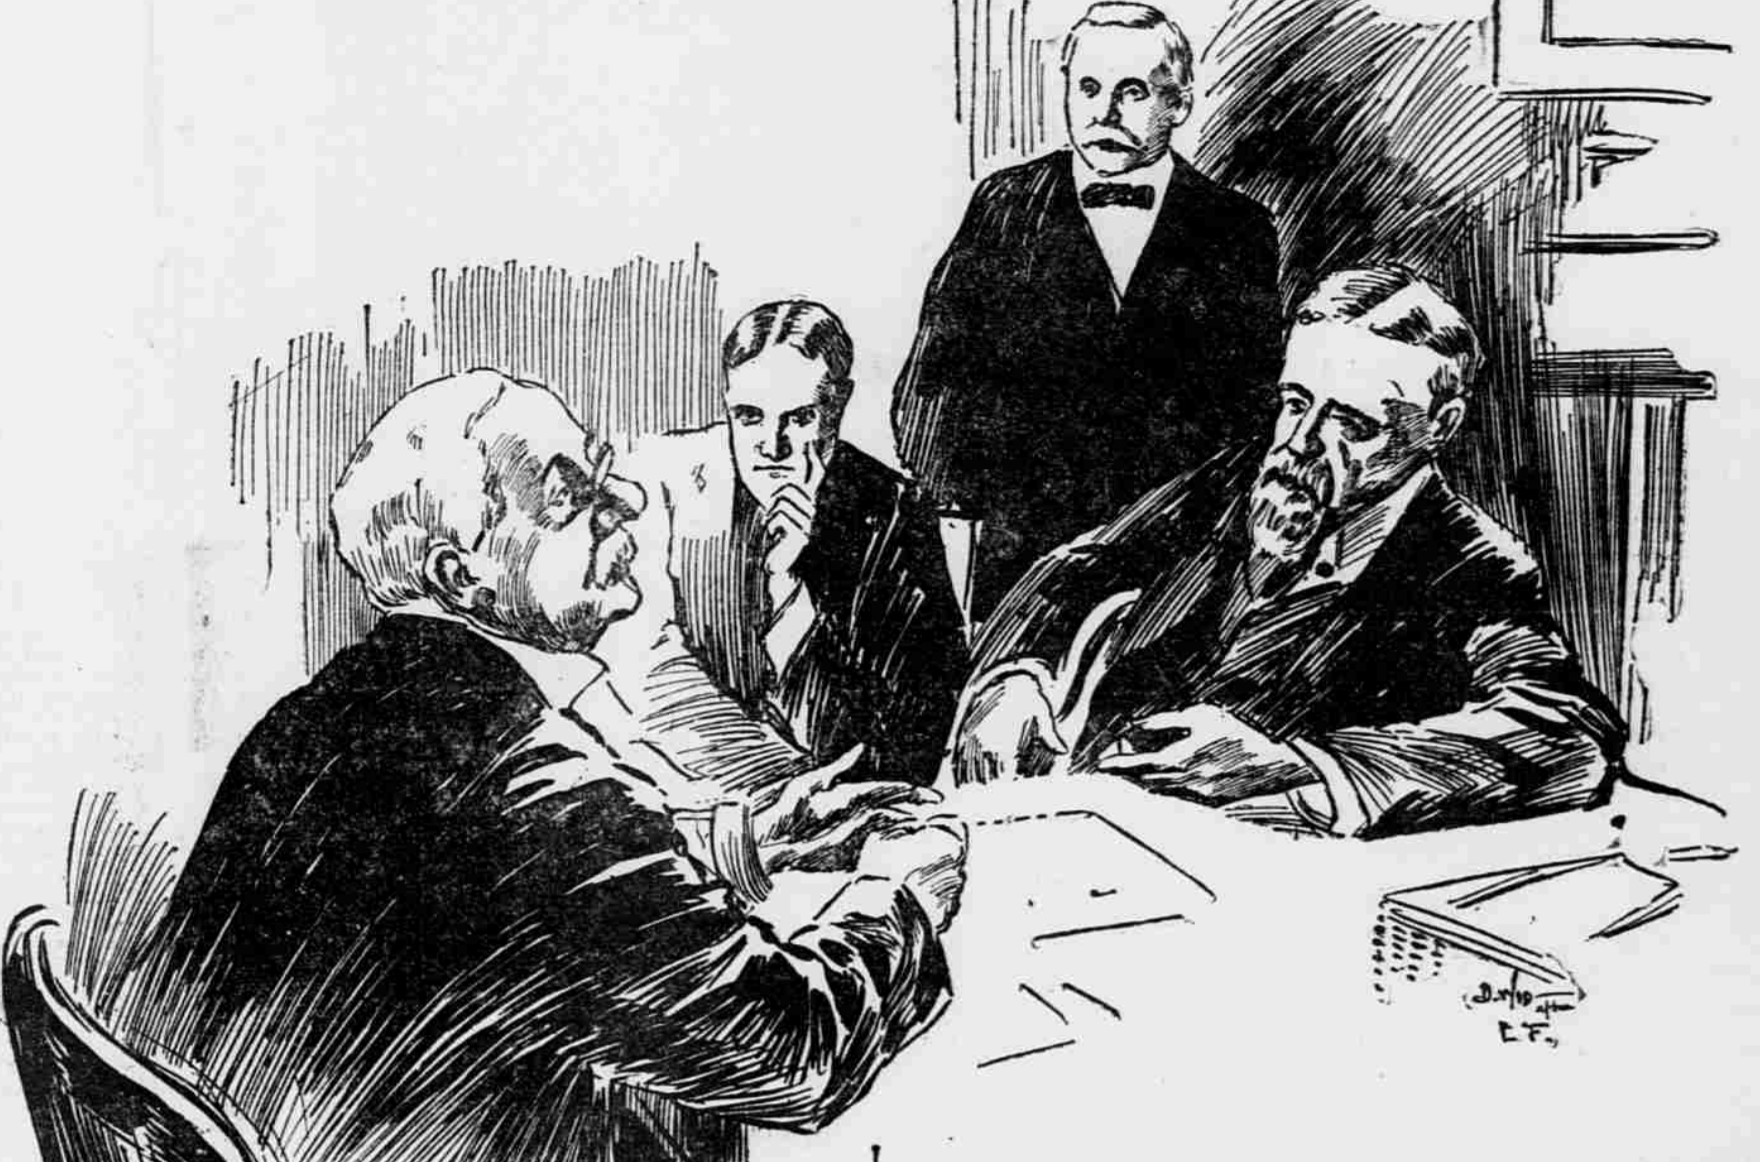

CAR KNOCKS BOY FROM A BICYCLE

William Helfrich Sustains Probably Fatal Injuries While Riding to Work.

MINERS PROPOSED TO HAVE PRICE OF COAL RAISED?

but 11 cents per ton to the operators, since they were limited to the sum of $1 a ton, the cost of transportation and distribution not being counted in, that, if the demand for 10 cents advance were conceded, there would be left for the operator only 1 cent profit per gross ton, a profit that would vanish entirely in the loss in wear and tear of machinery and wastage of operation.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN LISTENING TO REPORTS ON THE COAL STRIKE.

President Eber of the Reading Railroad is presenting his views. Behind Mr. Eber stands E. T. Stotesbury and sitting at his right is Charles Steele, both listening intently to what is said. It was at this conference that Mr. Morgan made clear his intention to keep hands off the trouble in the anthracite fields. Mr. Eber is the man who recently declared that the operators would never yield to agitators control of property "which God, in His wisdom, has given into the keeping of Christian men."

GIRLS AND MEN TO TAKE PLACES OF MESSENGER BOYS WHO HAVE GONE ON STRIKE AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—The Western Union Telegraph Company has definitely decided that it will in this city employ no more boys as messengers.

STREET CAR STRIKES BUGGY AT CROSSING

William Koenig and Wife Are Taken From Wreck of a Collision on Grand Avenue.

BOTH ARE SEVERELY INJURED.

Attempt to Cross the Tracks in Front of Fast Approaching Car at Russell Avenue Causes Accident.

LEADING TOPICS TO-DAY'S REPUBLIC

- THE SUN RISES THIS MORNING AT 5:25 AND SETS THIS EVENING AT 6:37. THE MOON RISES TO-MORROW MORNING AT 2:34. WEATHER INDICATIONS. For St. Louis and Vicinity—Generally fair and warmer. For Missouri—Showers Friday. Fair and cooler Saturday. For Illinois—Fair in south, showers and warmer in north Friday. Saturday, showers and cooler. For Arkansas—Fair Friday. Saturday, showers and cooler. For East Texas—Partly cloudy Friday; local rains in interior. Saturday fair. For West Texas—Showers Friday and Saturday.

WILLIAM KOENIG, WHO WAS INJURED IN A STREET CAR ACCIDENT WHILE DRIVING WITH MRS. KOENIG ON GRAND AVENUE.

William Koenig, president of the William Koenig Implement Manufacturing Company, and vice president of the German Savings Institution, and his wife, Mrs. Caroline Koenig, were severely injured in a street car accident at Grand and Russell avenues last night.

EXPLAINS SUBSTATION SYSTEM.

Postmaster Baumhoff Addresses National Association.

266 Want Help To-Day. The Republic of today contains the following ads for "Help": Housework... 60 Trades... 41 Boys... 21 Cooks... 10 Barbers... 33 Miscellaneous... 101 People out of work, as well as those desiring to better their positions, should read these columns every day.