BOON'S LICK TIMES.

Vol. 7.

FAYETTE, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1846.

No. 4.

THE SINGAPORE STORY.

The following is a correct copy of the proceedings of America. This fellow was at first regarded as a grisly, but by the Editor of the Times, and was requested to

FOR THE SPRING TRADE.

OPENING OF SPRING TRADE.

HAY & SEED, May 1845. JAMES P. STONE, Wholesaler and Retailer, 100 Main Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

C. & T. LEWIS, N. 100 Main Street, St. Louis, Wholesale Clothing, Boots and Shoes.

WHOLESALE CLOTHING.

STOCKS OF ALL KINDS.

OF 200 sets, can be made and every thing brought to St. Louis, 100 sets.

NEW ARRANGEMENTS.

ENTIRE ESTATE OF ELIAS FITZPATRICK.--THE EAST END.

400 suits of clothes, 200 pairs of shoes, 100 suits of dress for the gentleman, and 100 sets of clothing for the lady.

Orders promptly attended to.

CAT LEWIS.

St. Louis, May 1846.

THE NATIONAL ROAD-LETTER

FROM P.R.

The National Road Letter is the title of a 19th-century American newspaper. The text within the page appears to be an advertisement for a newspaper, possibly related to the national road system or other transportation-related news.