

We have had two or three eastern mail failures lately. Saturday and Tuesday mails came together, yesterday about noon. The roads have been almost impassable, in consequence of the heavy snow and sleet.

STOCKHOLDER MEETING.
A meeting of the Stockholders of Odd Fellows Hall & Female Seminary, will be held on Monday, at 1 o'clock, at the usual place of meeting. A full attendance is requested, as business of importance is to be transacted.

Gen. TAYLOR has accepted an invitation from the citizens of Nashville, Tennessee, to visit them on his way to Washington. He expects to be there some time between 1st and 15th February. He will sojourn also, several days at Cincinnati.

Editors very rarely insert communications unaccompanied by the author's name. We refer "Sol Quandy" to the "committee"—or invite him to a personal interview.

Gov. CRITTENDEN.—The Louisville Journal, after saying that Gov. Crittenden will, in all probability, be offered a seat in Gen. Taylor's Cabinet, but that his ideas of duty to the people may induce him to decline it, intimates that he may again be returned to the Senate of the United States. Should the whigs of the Legislature determine upon this course, and elect him, the office of Governor for the remainder of the term will devolve upon John L. Helm, the Lieut. Governor.

ILLINOIS, according to the official vote, gave Cass a majority of 3,314 over Taylor. Van Buren received 15,804 votes in the State.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.
RALEIGH, Nov. 22, 1848.

The house of Commons has just organized by the election of Robert B. Gilliam (Whig) as Speaker, with a Locofoco as chief clerk, and a Whig as assistant. There is, as yet, no organization of the Senate, there being a tie of the two parties in that body. Several ineffectual ballotings have taken place in the Senate, and in the House we only elected our Speaker on the seventh ballot.

In the Senate, we have 25 Whigs and 25 Locos; and in the House, 60 Whigs and 59 Locos, one having sent in his resignation.

For the Times.
Messrs. Green & Shirley: The caption heading an article in the last banner, though of exceedingly doubtful paternity, yet it is so peculiarly appropriate to the writer, that we must repeat it and say, yes, "let the gall'd judge wince." We are no adept in bandying profane and vulgar epithets, and therefore readily surrender the palm in this particular, with the remarks of the "Brunswick" on a former occasion, whose contents only had been provoked by his insolence, "we will let it pass, knowing the source whence it came."

As to the coat of arms which his borrowed dignity has prepared for us, we will only say, if these were the days of Knighthood, it would be worn by a large and respectable portion of our community, who would be exceedingly unwilling to exchange it for his coat of mail, the heraldic insignia of which, would be aptly represented by a political weather-cock perched upon a "dark" field, with the motto "contemptibilibus sinus."

"THAT LAST CHAP."

THIRTIETH CONGRESS—Second Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4th.

Senate.—This being the day fixed for the annual meeting of Congress, at 12 o'clock, meridiem, the Senate was called to order by the Hon. David R. Atchison, the Vice President being absent.

After prayer by the Rev. Henry Slicer, the Chaplain, the Secretary called the roll, when it was ascertained that a quorum of Senators were present.

On motion, the Secretary was authorized to inform the House that the Senate had organized, and was now ready to proceed to business.

Mr. Brees offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a joint committee from both Houses, to wait upon the President and inform him that the two Houses of Congress had been organized, and were now ready to receive any communication which he might please to make, which resolution was read and adopted.

Mr. Douglass gave notice that he would, on a future day, ask leave to introduce "a bill providing for the admission of California and New Mexico into the Union."

Mr. Cameron gave notice that on a future day he would introduce a bill providing for taking the 7th census of the United States.

Without transacting further business, the Senate adjourned.

House.—The House was called to order by the Speaker, and the roll called by the Clerk, when it appeared a quorum of members were present.

Mr. Watson presented the credentials of Mr. Sibley, delegate from the territory of Minnesota, upon which a discussion ensued. The matter was finally referred to the Committee on Elections.

After transacting the usual preliminary business, the House adjourned.

Gen. Taylor has resigned his commission in the army.

RHEUMATISM CAN BE CURED BY THE PROPER USE OF MYERS' EMBROCATION!

THIS sovereign and effectual remedy for that painful disease, was discovered upwards of sixty years ago by the Grand-Father of the undersigned, (a German Physician of his day) and has never been made known out of his family.

Its incredible cures have astonished thousands who have witnessed its power over that disease. Unfortunately, despairing invalids, who have been bed-ridden for years, have been restored to the enjoyment of perfect health. It banishes all pain in a few days, and its efficacy is gladly realized by the patients being able to resume their usual avocations, after having suffered in torments for months and years. The wonderful success of the EMBROCATION, in curing the worst cases of Rheumatism, has acquired for it a celebrity unprecedented, and its fame originated from its own merits.—It never has failed to cure Rheumatism, either inflammatory or chronic, and I feel safe in saying it never will if fairly tried. I pledge myself to refund the cash to any person who uses it properly without being benefited thereby. You who are afflicted may have tried every other remedy but this. Try it, and if it does not cure, it will not cost you any thing. By this rule I desire it should be used.

Persons are warned to be on their guard of whom they purchase, as several mean attempts have been made to procure the RECIPE from which this medicine is prepared. The proprietor deems it his duty to say to the afflicted, that he will furnish traveling agents with written authority for depositing it.

My name is on each bottle, and none genuine unless prepared by HENRY C. MYERS, Fayette, Missouri.

EVIDENCE OF ITS EFFICACY.
Read those who say of the Embrocation who have used it. A few of the hundreds who have testified can only be quoted here.

From Elders THOS. M. ALLEN and M. P. WILLS, Boone County, Mo., August 21, 1848.

This is to certify, that we have used "Myers' Embrocation" in our families with entire success, and we hereby take great pleasure in recommending it to any who may be afflicted with Rheumatism as a most sovereign remedy.

T. M. ALLEN, M. P. WILLS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., February 20, 1848.

This is to certify that I was cured of a severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism, from the use of one bottle of your Embrocation, and hope every fellow-sufferer will use it, for it is no doubt but what it will cure any case, however violent; this I can safely assert after trying it myself.

Yours, Respectfully, DELOSSE BROWN.

HENRY C. MYERS, Fayette, Mo.

HAMPTON L. BOON, Clerk of the Supreme Court of Missouri, and Editor of the Jefferson City Metropolitan, speaks of the Embrocation as follows, in his paper:

We desire to call the particular attention of all persons afflicted with Rheumatism to this very valuable medicine. One bottle we believe, will cure any case, however violent.

The senior editor of this paper, during the last winter and present spring, suffered so much from Rheumatism that he was unable at times to walk or stand upon his feet, or even change his position in bed without assistance.—A part of a bottle cured him in a few days. His son was also afflicted with the same dreadful complaint, and suffered the most excruciating pain until an application of the Embrocation was made, which effected an entire cure.—Col. Minor of this city, also had a severe attack of Rheumatism this spring from which he suffered severely, and which confined him to his bed for several weeks. Nothing gave him any relief until he sent to Rochester, forty miles, and procured a bottle of this medicine, which expelled his pains almost instantly.

Mr. Myers offers to have an agent in every county in the State, with which this medicine should be deposited for sale. We repeat our honest conviction, for the benefit of those suffering with Rheumatism, that one bottle of this medicine will cure the most violent case that can be found.—Metropolitan.

BETHANY Mo., March 10, 1848.

Dear Sir—At your request I called at Rochester on my return home, and got a bottle of your Embrocation; and gave it to a neighbor whose wife had been much afflicted with Rheumatism of the Chronic form for years. The effect is so self-evident, that if you see proper, you can send me 50 bottles, as I can dispose of it now that it has been tried here.

Yours, Respectfully, W. L. WATKINS.

Consumption is Cured

By Dr. Rogers' compound Syrup of Liverwort and Tar. A safe and certain cure for Consumption, Hoarseness, Spitting of Blood, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Pain in the Side, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all Pulmonary Affections.

TO those who have CONSUMPTION OR DISTEASED LUNGS, we call your earnest and immediate attention to the great merit of the above preparation, and entreat you not to put it above with other advertised medicines, without inquiring whether there is not entire and satisfactory proof of its value, and that too from men of the highest standing, who are living witnesses, and can be seen by all who take the trouble to call upon them. Not only the Physician, but even the Professors among the medical faculty, have had the honor of prejudice broken down by the astonishing cures effected by this great remedy, and have come out at last and given us their certificates that there is no mistake about it—that it really makes cures when every thing else has failed, and that it is the Great Remedy for Diseased Lungs.

Call on the Agent and see the statement of the following persons of Cincinnati who were cured by Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar, after being given up to die with the last stages of Consumption, not only by their friends, but by physicians of the highest standing:

Mr. D. Ludlow, Fifth street, between Race and Elm.

Mr. H. Plummer, hatter, between Eighth and Ninth, on Plum street.

Mr. G. Whitehead, Catharine street, half a square below Linn.

Mrs. Ann Childs, Sixth street, two doors west of Smith, &c., &c.

Be not deceived by worthless medicines, which are palmed on you, when such men as Dr. Wm. Richards and Judge Wm. Burke, Dr. H. Cox, late Professor of Cincinnati Medical College, have come out and certified that Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar is the great consumption remedy.

Dr. Cox states, that Miss Belt was pronounced by Prof. Warden and the late Prof. Worcester to be in the last stages of Consumption, and give her up to die; yet Dr. Rogers' Liverwort and Tar entirely cured her.

Statement of Judge H. Morse, of the Courts of Ohio and Cincinnati.

I am well acquainted with Dr. Hiram Cox and his practice, he having been my family physician for many years, and can cheerfully say, that I have as much or more confidence in him and his skill as a practicing physician as any man living.

HENRY MORSE, Cincinnati, Nov. 7th, 1847.

Dr. H. Cox is also the family physician of the Hon. Judge Jas. Saffin, of Cincinnati, late City Marshal.

Let us all—Owing to the increased demand for this medicine, an unprincipled man, (John T. Toland,) in Cincinnati, imitated in external appearance only the yellow and blue wrapper, and 'catched an interested runner, (P. Clinton,) in this nefarious business to St. Louis to make sales. This counterfeit omits the name of A. L. Scoville, in fine print on the bottom of the outside wrapper, where it reads, "Entered according to Act of Congress, &c." On the genuine, the name of A. L. Scoville is found following the words "Entered according to act of Congress, &c."

Dr. O. HENDERSON, Agent, Glasgow; Dr. SNELSON, Fayette.

Orders may be addressed to H. BARKS & Co St. Louis.
