Dear Santa Claus
I am a little girl six years old and am going to write you a note and put it in the paper. I'll write it large so you can see. no matter If its wasted. I'd like a doll, a nice new Cloak, an umbrella, Ring, some oranges, nuts, and candy. some gifts to the poor, I would like you to give to make them happy Christmas day. you see dear santa I want so many things and my stockings are so awfully little they wont hold enough for me so ill just borrow mammas and I want you to surely remember to fill my order or near as you can and when you come you'll find our door unlocked my bedroom on the right.

Dear Old Santa Claus. I wrote you a letter last Christmas, but you failed to bring the skates I asked for. I suppose you thought I would fall and break my neck. I will be very careful if you will bring them this time. I would like a pair of kidgloves, that is all this time.

Dear Santa Clause:—I think it is about time I was writing to you So you will not forget me Christmas. I sbould like to have an opal ring more than any thing else, but if you can't get the ring there are quite a number of articles that would be acceptable. As for instance a work box containing a thimble and small pair of scissors, I would also like to have a handkerchief box. I have a little sister whose name is Tiney. I think she would like a rocking chair and a little pasty set consisting of rolling pin, mixing bowl, potato masher, and kneading board. I will close by asking you to remember my little sister and I. I hope you will not think I am asking too much. I am 10 years old my name is Anna Hawkins.

P. S Please excuse pencil as I left my pen at school
