

9c 9c 9c Rogers & Thompson. 9c 9c 9c

Our GREAT 9c SALE starts Thursday Cut Prices in every Department. Clean, Reliable goods at Seemingly Impossible Figures. But remember if ROGERS & THOMPSON advertise it, it is so.

9 CENTS

- Men's 15c sox go at 9c
- Ladies' 15c vests for 9c
- New Spring Embroidery 2 yds for 9c
- Boys' Caps 9c
- Towels 2 for 9c
- Neck Ribbon 1 1/2 yds for 9c
- Children's 10c Hose 2 pairs for 9c
- Children's Yarn Mitts go at 9c
- Children's Fleeced Vests and Pants at 9c each
- Cotton Voile worth 25c 9c yard
- Good Apron Gingham at 2 yds for 9c
- 5c Hair Pin Cabinets 3 for 9c
- Fancy Bordered Handkerchiefs 4 for 9c
- Mens' 15c Linen Collars 9c each
- Ladies' Handkerchiefs 2 for 9c

ABOVE 9 CENTS.

- Large heavy huck towels 2 for 19c
- 10 yds bleached or unbleached muslin 39c
- Men's 10c canton flannel mittens 3 pr for 19c
- 15 prs men's $1.25 & $1.50 pants 89c each
- Corsets, a few odd sizes 19c each
- $1 and $1.50 black corsets 49c each
- Best bleached 9-4 sheeting 2 1/2 yds for 49c
- Ladies' heaviest 25c vests and pants 19c
- 10 men's $15 suits for this sale $8 99 each
- 14 " $12.50 suits for this sale 6 99 each
- 10 " suits were $5 $6 and $6.50 choice 3 99 each
- Ladies' shoes 35 prs worth $1.50 choice 99c
- 12 pairs heavy calf skin shoes 79c
- Men's shoes were $1 25 and 1.50 99c
- Ladies 10c black hose 3 pairs for 19c
- 10 1/4 blankets 49c pr
- 50c bleached table damask 39c yd
- 40c " " " 29c "

ROGERS & THOMPSON.

Schouten's bre ad at Griffith's
Get your dinner at Griffith's.

Os Mudd was a Hannibal visitor Sunday.

James McFarland was with Bluff City friends Tuesday.

Senator Frank W. McAllister was a Monroe visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Lou Boone, of Ely, was a shopper in the city Tuesday.

G. Ellet Tompkins was a business visitor in Lewistown Saturday.

E. S. Boulware was a business visitor in the Bluff City Saturday.

John Baxter, of Palmyra, was a business visitor in the city, Saturday.

Mrs. J. B. McClintic spent Sunday with her kinspeople at Hunnewell.

Miss Annie Ragland went to Hannibal yesterday to visit the homefolks.

Raphael Leake and better half attended the policemen's ball in Quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, of Ely, spent Sunday in the city with friends.

Briggs Medcalf, of Winfield, Mo., spent Sunday in the city with homefolks.

Fred Davis and family have been spending a week with the homefolks near this city.

Mrs. C. W. Christian and daughter, Miss Addie came down from Shelbyville, Saturday to visit their son and brother, D. B. Christian.

Miss Maggie Tramel returned yesterday from a visit with Hannibal friends.

Mrs. J. R. Higgins, of Palmyra, came up yesterday to visit the family of A. Grimm.

The Quincy Herald says: Twenty per cent of the "Hello" girls marry every year.

The fine piano which the DEMOCRAT is going to give away is worth hustling for.

James McLeod, of Palmyra, has been visiting his relatives, John W. Stephens and family.

W. B. and A. J. Kendrick, of Shelbyville, were visiting their brothers, east of the city, Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Lawson, of Hannibal, has been the guest of her brother-in-law, Charles Lawson and wife.

Mrs. John L. Aylor was called to Hannibal Sunday by the serious illness of her son, Allen Aylor.

Mrs. Cora Umstatt and Miss Georgie Hawkins spent Sunday in the Bluff City with the family of J. T. S. Hickman.

After a pleasant visit with the homefolks, Mrs. Minnie Young, returned to her home, St. Louis, Saturday.

February 10th, 1905, your account will be in the hands of a collector if not settled prior to above date.

W. B. SPALDING,

WANTED—10 men in each state to travel, tack signs and distribute samples and circulars of our goods. Salary $75 per month, $3 per day for expenses. Kuhlman Co., Dept. S., Atlas Bldg., Chicago. 3-9.

The V. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. G. A. Lenhoff on Tuesday, February 7, at 2:30.

The Chicago "Hello" girls say society women use more vulgar and profane words than men do.

J. K. Ely has concluded to enter the contracting and building business. See him before you let your building contracts off.

In Hannibal they always call it holy wedlock. The Kansas City Star wonders if anybody ever gets, just married in that town.

Miss Edith Evans, student at Stephens College, Columbia, came home last week and brought her friend La Grippe with her.

Dr. Clare Noland spent Sunday with a fair one in Palmyra. When asked if he was going to have his throat treated, he gave us a grin for reply.

Mrs. B. E. Diggs left yesterday morning for Galesburg, Ill. It is her old home and she will remain there while the family here is moving. She has made many friends who will miss her.

Frank Losson and Miss Agnes Hays spent Sunday with Frank's sister, Mrs. P. Yancey Thiehoff, in Hannibal. Frank says: "We had a lovely time, well, why shouldn't we?"

Are Hannibal men different from others? A Monroe City paper tells of one who recently came to that town on a "sad" mission—to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law.—Kansas City World.—Nay brother, the Bluff City men are on a par with all others, but the Monroe City mother-in-law is the best on earth.

Earl Reid was with Quincy friends the first of the week.

Alex Melson was a business visitor in the Gem City, Thursday.

A treat is in store for those who hear Miss Shaner at Grace Baptist church to night.

Thomas Shepard and daughter, Miss Orrie, have been the guests of Rev. and Mrs. Lenhoff.

Mrs. Al Vance, of Hamilton, Mont., is the guest of her friend Mrs. Price Young, north of the city.

Thornton Marshall, of Quincy, and Tip Marshall, of Hannibal, spent Sunday in the city with the homefolks.

Mrs. G. B. Smith, children and brother, Larue, of Kirksville, have been visiting friends in this vicinity.

Pat Yates has been to Oklahoma, prospecting, but the prospects are that Missouri is good 'nough for him.

J. B. Burges, who ran a kind of salvage store here for a few months, has moved his stock to Montgomery City, Mo.

Mrs. Eva Keith, of Cotton Plant, Ark., has presented her husband with a fine boy. They have named him J. B. Settle Keith.

Miss Jewell Fowler, of the Saccharine village was shopping in the city Monday. She is a Jewell that one of Monroe's young men would like to wear and care for, for ever and aye.

Zack Young, of near Palmyra was in the city Tuesday with friends. He had been over to Victor to see his brother John, who was quite ill with pneumonia.

Kincaid
Harvey Kincaid died at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Howe, Friday at 2 a. m. He was 35 years 7 months and 21 days old.

The funeral services were conducted at his late home Saturday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. D. Neal, of Hunnewell.

When a toddling child he got hold of a cup half full of home made lye and drank it. It left his stomach in such condition that it has always been a source of trouble to him and caused him to be delicate.

He was a good young man, one that left not only relatives, but friends who mourn their loss sincerely.

There is a brand new boy at the home of Jacob Rohr.

Mrs. C. C. Cassidy went to Quincy, Tuesday to visit friends.

Let no trivial thing prevent you from hearing the address at Grace Baptist church to-night.

After an extended visit with the homefolks, William Gentry and family have returned to their home in Shelbyville.

R. L. Utterback and Chris L. Drescher had a big time at the M. W. A. meeting in Palmyra Tuesday night.

The Watson case caused the following gentlemen to go to New London, Thursday, as prospective jurors:

E. W. Campbell, the only living commissioner who was connected with building the Salt River bridge, was expected to identify the original plat or draft of the bridge where the death occurred. The others as jurors were: Jno. Campbell, E. L. Kimes, Thomas Lawles, Jno. Greathouse, Will Mounts and Geo. Hampton.